OF THE UNITED STATES

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

ANDREW G. BROWN

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

Claim No. CU-1426

Decision No. CU 4485

Counsel for Claimant:

H. S. Wood, Esquire

PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Cuba, under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, was presented by ANDREW G. BROWN for $6,581.90 based upon the asserted ownership and loss of real property in Cuba. Claimant has been a national of the United States since birth.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964), 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property; means any property, right, or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Claimant describes his loss as 20 acres of residential property, East one-half of Lot 13, Section 8, subdivision San Pedro, Nueva Gerona, Isle of Pines, Cuba.

Based upon the entire record, including copy of sales contract, copy of deed, receipt for payment and letters of a Cuban attorney, the Commission finds that claimant in fact owned the aforesaid property.

On December 6, 1961, the Cuban Government published its Law 989 (Official Gazette, XXIII, No. 237, p. 23705) which confiscated all assets, personal property and real estate, rights, shares, stocks, bonds and securities of persons who had left the country.

The Commission finds, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the subject real property was taken by the Government of Cuba on December 6, 1961 pursuant to the provisions of Law 989. (See Claim of Wallace Tabor and Catherine Tabor, Claim No. CU-0109, 25 FCSC Semiann. Rep. 53 [July-Dec. 1966]).

The act provides in Section 503(a) that in making determinations with respect to the validity and amount of claims and value of properties, rights, or interests taken, the Commission shall take into account the basis of valuation most appropriate to the property and equitable to the claimant, including but not limited to fair market value, book value, going concern value or cost of replacement.

The record includes, in support of the claimed values the original receipt for the price paid by claimant.

Based on the entire record, the Commission finds that the aforesaid property had a value of $6,581.90 and was free of liens. Accordingly, the Commission concludes that claimant suffered a loss in the amount within the meaning of Title V of the Act, as the result of the taking of his property by the Government of Cuba on December 6, 1961.

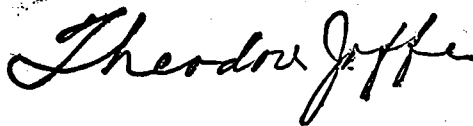

The Commission has decided that in certification of loss on claims determined pursuant to Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, interest should be included at the rate of 6% per annum from the date of loss to the date of settlement (see the Claim of Lisle Corporation, FCSC Claim No. CU-0644), and in the instant case, it is so ordered.

CERTIFICATION OF LOSS

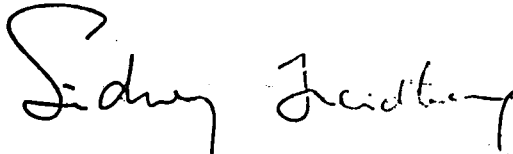

The Commission certifies that ANDREW G. BROWN suffered a loss, as a result of actions of the Government of Cuba, within the scope of Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of Six Thousand Five Hundred Eighty-One Dollars and Ninety Cents ($6,581.90) with interest at 6% per annum from December 6, 1961 to the date of settlement.

Section 501 of the statute specifically precludes any authorization for appropriations for payment of these claims. The Commission is required to certify its findings to the Secretary of State for possible use in future negotiations with the Government of Cuba.
