

FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION
OF THE UNITED STATES
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20579

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

EDWARD K. HESSBERG
NATHAN H. POHLY AND
GLADYS GRAHAM, TRUSTEES
UNDER THE WILL OF FANNIE
POHLY, DECEASED

Claim No. CU-4970

Decision No. CU 1707

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Cuba, filed under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of $1,000.00, was presented by EDWARD K. HESSBERG, NATHAN H. POHLY AND GLADYS GRAHAM, TRUSTEES UNDER THE WILL OF FANNIE POHLY, DECEASED, and is based upon the asserted loss of one bond of the Guantanamo and Western Railroad Company of Cuba. Claimants stated that Fannie Pohly had been a national of the United States since her birth in the United States.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964), 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right, or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

Section 504 of the Act provides, as to ownership of claims, that

(a) A claim shall not be considered under section 503(a) of this title unless the property on which the claim was based was owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly by a national of the United States on the date of the loss and if considered shall be considered only to the extent the claim has been held by one or more nationals of the United States continuously thereafter until the date of filing with the Commission.

The Regulations of the Commission provide:

The claimant shall be the moving party and shall have the burden of proof on all issues involved in the determination of his claim. (FCSC Reg., 45 C.F.R. §531.6(d) (Supp. 1967).)

The only evidence of record consists of a decree of the Surrogate's Court of the County of New York granting letters of trusteeship to EDWARD K. HESSBERG, NATHAN H. POHLY and GLADYS GRAHAM under the trust created by the Will of Fannie Pohly. By Commission letter of September 1, 1967, claimants were advised as to the type of evidence proper for submission to establish this claim under the Act. Thereafter, by letters of November 22, 1967 and January 19, 1968, the Commission made additional suggestions to claimants concerning the submission of supporting evidence in this matter. However, no evidence in response to this correspondence has been received to date.

On March 8, 1968 claimants were invited to submit any evidence available to them within 45 days from that date, and they were informed that, absent such evidence, it might become necessary to determine the claim on the basis of the existing record. No evidence has since been submitted.

The Commission finds that claimants have not met the burden of proof in that they have failed to establish ownership of rights and interests in property which was nationalized, expropriated or otherwise taken by the Government of Cuba. Thus, the Commission is constrained to deny this claim and it is hereby denied. The Commission deems it unnecessary to make determinations with respect to other elements of the claim.
