3 (a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 46 of title 18, United 4 States Code, is amended by inserting the following new 5 section after section 982:

6 “§ 983. Civil forfeiture procedures

7 “(a) ADMINISTRATIVE FORFEITURES.—(1)(A) In 8 any nonjudicial civil forfeiture proceeding under a civil for-9 feiture statute, with respect to which the agency conduct-10 ing a seizure of property must send written notice of the 11 seizure under section 607(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 12 U.S.C. 1607(a)), such notice together with information on 13 the applicable procedures shall be sent not later than 60
14 days after the seizure to each party known to the seizing
15 agency at the time of the seizure to have an ownership 16 or possessory interest, including a lienholder’s interest, in 17 the seized article. If a party’s identity or interest is not 18 determined until after the seizure but is determined before 19 a declaration of forfeiture is entered, such written notice
20 and information shall be sent to such interested party not 21 later than 60 days after the seizing agency’s determination 22 of the identity of the party or the party’s interest.

23 “(B) If the Government does not provide notice of 24 a seizure of property in accordance with subparagraph 25 (A), it shall return the property pending the giving of such 26 notice.

1 “(2) The Government may apply to a Federal mag-
2 istrate judge (as defined in the Federal Rules of Criminal
3 Procedure) in any district where venue for a forfeiture ac-
4 tion would lie under section 1355(b) of title 28 for an ex-
5 tension of time in which to comply with paragraph (1)(A).
6 Such an extension shall be granted based on a showing
7 of good cause.

8 “(3) A person with an ownership or possessory inter-9 est in the seized article who failed to file a claim within 10 the time period prescribed in subsection (b) may, on mo-11 tion made not later than 2 years after the date of final 12 publication of notice of seizure of the property, move to 13 set aside a declaration of forfeiture entered pursuant to 14 section 609 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1609).
15 Such motion shall be granted if—

16 “(A) the Government failed to take reasonable 17 steps to provide the claimant with notice of the for-18 feiture; and

19 “(B) the person otherwise had no actual notice 20 of the seizure within sufficient time to enable the 21 person to file a timely claim under subsection (b).

22 “(4) If the court grants a motion made under para-
23 graph (3), it shall set aside the declaration of forfeiture
24 as to the moving party’s interest pending forfeiture pro-
25 ceedings in accordance with section 602 et seq. of the Tar-

1 iff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1602 et seq.), which proceed-2 ings shall be instituted within 60 days of the entry of the 3 order granting the motion.

4 “(5) If, at the time a motion under this subsection 5 is granted, the forfeited property has been disposed of by 6 the Government in accordance with law, the Government 7 shall institute forfeiture proceedings under paragraph (4).
8 The property which will be the subject of the forfeiture
9 proceedings instituted under paragraph (4) shall be a sum 10 of money equal to the value of the forfeited property at 11 the time it was disposed of plus interest.

12 “(6) The institution of forfeiture proceedings under 13 paragraph (4) shall not be barred by the expiration of the 14 statute of limitations under section 621 of the Tariff Act 15 of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1621) if the original publication of 16 notice was completed before the expiration of such limita-17 tions period.

18 “(7) A motion made under this subsection shall be 19 the exclusive means of obtaining judicial review of a dec-20 laration of forfeiture entered by a seizing agency.

21 “(b) FILING A CLAIM.—(1) Any person claiming such 22 seized property may file a claim with the appropriate offi-
23 cial after the seizure.

24 “(2) A claim under paragraph (1) may not be filed 25 later than 30 days after—

1 “(A) the date of final publication of notice of 2 seizure; or

3 “(B) in the case of a person receiving written 4 notice, the date that such notice is received.

5 “(3) The claim shall set forth the nature and extent 6 of the claimant’s interest in the property.

7 “(c) FILING A COMPLAINT.—(1) In cases where prop-8 erty has been seized or restrained by the Government and 9 a claim has been filed, the Attorney General shall file a 10 complaint for forfeiture in the appropriate court in the 11 manner set forth in the Supplemental Rules for Certain 12 Admiralty and Maritime Claims, or shall include a forfeit-13 ure count in a criminal indictment or information, or both, 14 not later than 90 days after the claim was filed, or return
15 the property pending the filing of a complaint or indict-16 ment. By mutual agreement between the Government and 17 the claimants, the 90-day filing requirement may be 18 waived.

19 “(2) The Government may apply to a Federal mag-
20 istrate judge (as defined in the Federal Rules of Criminal
21 Procedure) in any district where venue for a forfeiture ac-
22 tion would lie under section 1355(b) of title 28 for an ex-
23 tension of time in which to comply with paragraph (1).
24 Such an extension shall be granted based on a showing 25 of good cause. If the reason for the extension is that the

1 filing required by paragraph (1) would jeopardize an ongo-
2 ing criminal investigation or prosecution or court-author-
3 ized electronic surveillance, the application may be made 4 ex parte.

5 “(3) Upon the filing of a civil complaint, the claimant
6 shall file a claim and answer in accordance with the Sup-7 plemental Rules for Certain Admiralty and Maritime 8 Claims.

9 “(d) APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL.—(1) If the person
10 filing a claim is financially unable to obtain representation 11 by counsel and requests that counsel be appointed, the 12 court may appoint counsel to represent that person with 13 respect to the claim. In determining whether to appoint 14 counsel to represent the person filing the claim, the court
15 shall take into account—

16 “(A) the nature and value of the property sub-17 ject to forfeiture, including the hardship to the 18 claimant from the loss of the property seized, com-
19 pared to the expense of appointing counsel;

20 “(B) the claimant’s standing to contest the for-
21 feiture; and

22 “(C) whether the claim appears to be made in 23 good faith or to be frivolous.

24 “(2) The court shall set the compensation for that 25 representation, which shall be the equivalent to that pro-

1 vided for court-appointed representation under section
2 3006A of this title, and to pay such cost, there are author-3 ized to be appropriated such sums as are necessary as an 4 addition to the funds otherwise appropriated for the ap-5 pointment of counsel under such section.

6 “(3) The determination of whether to appoint counsel
7 under this subsection shall be made following a hearing 8 at which the Government shall have an opportunity to 9 present evidence and examine the claimant. The testimony 10 of the claimant at such hearing shall not be admitted in 11 any other proceeding except in accordance with the rules
12 which govern the admissibility of testimony adduced in a 13 hearing on a motion to suppress evidence. Nothing in this 14 paragraph shall be construed to prohibit the admission of 15 any evidence that may be obtained in the course of civil 16 discovery in the forfeiture proceeding or through any other 17 lawful investigative means.

18 “(e) BURDEN OF PROOF.—In all suits or actions
19 brought for the civil forfeiture of any property, the burden 20 of proof at trial is on the United States to establish, by 21 a preponderance of the evidence, that the property is sub-22 ject to forfeiture. If the Government proves that the prop-23 erty is subject to forfeiture, the claimant shall have the 24 burden of establishing any affirmative defense by a pre-25 ponderance of the evidence.

1 “(f) INNOCENT OWNERS.—(1) An innocent owner’s 2 interest in property shall not be forfeited in any civil for-3 feiture action.

4 “(2) With respect to a property interest in existence
5 at the time the illegal conduct giving rise to the forfeiture
6 took place, the term ‘innocent owner’ means an owner 7 who—

8 “(A) did not know of the conduct giving rise to 9 the forfeiture; or

10 “(B) upon learning of the conduct giving rise to 11 the forfeiture, did all that reasonably could be ex-12 pected under the circumstances to terminate such 13 use of the property.

14 “(3)(A) With respect to a property interest acquired 15 after the conduct giving rise to the forfeiture has taken 16 place, the term ‘innocent owner’ means a person who, at 17 the time that person acquired the interest in the property, 18 was a bona fide purchaser for value and was at the time 19 of the purchase reasonably without cause to believe that 20 the property was subject to forfeiture.

21 “(B) Except as provided in paragraph (4), where the 22 property subject to forfeiture is real property, and the 23 claimant uses the property as his or her primary residence 24 and is the spouse or minor child of the person who com-25 mitted the offense giving rise to the forfeiture, an other-

1 wise valid innocent owner claim shall not be denied on the 2 ground that the claimant acquired the interest in the prop-
3 erty—

4 “(i) in the case of a spouse, through dissolution 5 of marriage or by operation of law, or

6 “(ii) in the case of a minor child, as an inherit-7 ance upon the death of a parent,

8 and not through a purchase. However, the claimant must 9 establish, in accordance with subparagraph (A), that at 10 the time of the acquisition of the property interest, the 11 claimant was reasonably without cause to believe that the 12 property was subject to forfeiture, and was an owner of 13 the property, as defined in paragraph (6).

14 “(4) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, 15 no person may assert an ownership interest under this sec-
16 tion—

17 “(A) in contraband or other property that it is 18 illegal to possess; or

19 “(B) in the illegal proceeds of a criminal act 20 unless such person was a bona fide purchaser for 21 value who was reasonably without cause to believe 22 that the property was subject to forfeiture.

23 “(5) For the purposes of paragraph (2) of this sub-24 section a person does all that reasonably can be expected 25 if the person takes all steps that a reasonable person

1 would take in the circumstances to prevent or terminate
2 the illegal use of the person’s property. There is a rebutta-
3 ble presumption that a property owner took all the steps
4 that a reasonable person would take if the property
5 owner—

6 “(A) gave timely notice to an appropriate law 7 enforcement agency of information that led to the 8 claimant to know the conduct giving rise to a forfeit-9 ure would occur or has occurred; and 10 “(B) in a timely fashion, revoked permission for 11 those engaging in such conduct to use the property

12 or took reasonable steps in consultation with a law
13 enforcement agency to discourage or prevent the ille-
14 gal use of the property.

15 The person is not required to take extraordinary steps 16 that the person reasonably believes would be likely to sub-17 ject the person to physical danger.

18 “(6) As used in this subsection—

19 “(A) the term ‘civil forfeiture statute’ means 20 any provision of Federal law providing for the for-21 feiture of property other than as a sentence imposed 22 upon conviction of a criminal offense;

23 “(B) the term ‘owner’ means a person with an 24 ownership interest in the specific property sought to 25 be forfeited, including a lien, mortgage, recorded se-

1 curity device, or valid assignment of an ownership
2 interest. Such term does not include—

3 “(i) a person with only a general unse-
4 cured interest in, or claim against, the property
5 or estate of another;

6 “(ii) a bailee unless the bailor is identified 7 and the bailee shows a colorable legitimate in-8 terest in the property seized; or

9 “(iii) a nominee who exercises no dominion 10 or control over the property;

11 “(C) a person shall be considered to have 12 known that the person’s property was being used or 13 was likely to be used in the commission of an illegal 14 act if the person was willfully blind.

15 “(7) If the court determines, in accordance with this 16 subsection, that an innocent owner had a partial interest 17 in property otherwise subject to forfeiture, or a joint ten-
18 ancy or tenancy by the entirety in such property, the court
19 shall enter an appropriate order—

20 “(A) severing the property;

21 “(B) transferring the property to the Govern-
22 ment with a provision that the Government 23 compensate the innocent owner to the extent of his 24 or her ownership interest once a final order of for-

1 feiture has been entered and the property has been 2 reduced to liquid assets; or

3 “(C) permitting the innocent owner to retain 4 the property subject to a lien in favor of the Govern-5 ment, to the extent of the forfeitable interest in the 6 property, that will permit the Government to realize 7 its forfeitable interest if the property is transferred 8 to another person.

9 To effectuate the purposes of this subsection, a joint ten-10 ancy or tenancy by the entirety shall be converted to a 11 tenancy in common by order of the court, irrespective of 12 state law.

13 “(8) An innocent owner defense under this subsection 14 is an affirmative defense.

15 “(g) MOTION TO SUPPRESS SEIZED EVIDENCE.—At 16 any time after a claim and answer are filed in a judicial 17 forfeiture proceeding, a claimant with standing to contest 18 the seizure of the property may move to suppress the 19 fruits of the seizure in accordance with the normal rules 20 regarding the suppression of illegally seized evidence. If 21 the claimant prevails on such motion, the fruits of the sei-
22 zure shall not be admitted into evidence as to that claim-
23 ant at the forfeiture trial. However, a finding that evi-24 dence should be suppressed shall not bar the forfeiture of

1 the property based on evidence obtained independently be-2 fore or after the seizure.

3 “(h) USE OF HEARSAY AT PRE-TRIAL HEARINGS.—

4 At any pre-trial hearing under this section in which the 5 governing standard is probable cause, the court may ac-6 cept and consider hearsay otherwise inadmissible under 7 the Federal Rules of Evidence.

8 “(i) STIPULATIONS.—Notwithstanding the claimant’s

9 offer to stipulate to the forfeitability of the property, the 10 Government shall be entitled to present evidence to the 11 finder of fact on that issue before the claimant presents 12 any evidence in support of any affirmative defense.

13 “(j) PRESERVATION OF PROPERTY SUBJECT TO

14 FORFEITURE.—The court, before or after the filing of a 15 forfeiture complaint and on the application of the Govern-16 ment, may—

17 “(1) enter any restraining order or injunction

18 in the manner set forth in section 413(e) of the Con-
19 trolled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 853(e));

20 “(2) require the execution of satisfactory per-21 formance bonds;

22 “(3) create receiverships;

23 “(4) appoint conservators, custodians, apprais-24 ers, accountants or trustees; or

1 “(5) take any other action to seize, secure,
2 maintain, or preserve the availability of property
3 subject to forfeiture under this section.

4 “(k) EXCESSIVE FINES.—(1) At the conclusion of the 5 trial and following the entry of a verdict of forfeiture, or 6 upon the entry of summary judgment for the Government 7 as to the forfeitability of the property, the claimant may 8 petition the court to determine whether the excessive fines
9 clause of the Eighth Amendment applies, and if so, wheth-
10 er forfeiture is excessive. The claimant shall have the bur-
11 den of establishing that a forfeiture is excessive by a pre-12 ponderance of the evidence at a hearing conducted in the 13 manner provided in Rule 43(e), Federal Rules of Civil 14 Procedure, by the Court without a jury. If the court deter-15 mines that the forfeiture is excessive, it shall adjust the 16 forfeiture to the extent necessary to avoid the Constitu-17 tional violation.

18 “(2) The claimant may not object to the forfeiture
19 on Eighth Amendment grounds other than as set forth 20 in paragraph (1), except that a claimant may, at any time, 21 file a motion for summary judgment asserting that even 22 if the property is subject to forfeiture, the forfeiture would 23 be excessive. The court shall rule on such motion for sum-
24 mary judgment only after the Government has had an op-
25 portunity—

1 “(A) to conduct full discovery on the Eighth 2 Amendment issue; and

3 “(B) to place such evidence as may be relevant 4 to the excessive fines determination before the court
5 in affidavits or at an evidentiary hearing.

6 “(l) PRE-DISCOVERY STANDARD.—In a judicial pro-
7 ceeding on the forfeiture of property, the Government 8 shall not be required to establish the forfeitability of the 9 property before the completion of discovery pursuant to 10 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, particularly Rule 11 56(f) as may be ordered by the court or if no discovery 12 is ordered before trial.

13 “(m) APPLICABILITY.—The procedures set forth in 14 this section apply to any civil forfeiture action brought 15 under any provision of this title, the Controlled Substances 16 Act, or the Immigration and Naturalization Act.”.

17 (b) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—Section 274(b)(5)
18 of the Immigration and Naturalization Act (8 U.S.C.
19 1324(b)(5)) is amended—

20 (1) by striking “the burden of proof shall lie 21 upon such claimant, except that probable cause shall 22 be first shown for the institution of such suit or ac-
23 tion. In determining whether probable cause exists,”; 24 and

1 (2) by adding after and below subparagraph (C)
2 the following:
3 “The procedures set forth in chapter 46 of title 18, United 4 States Code, shall govern judicial forfeiture actions under 5 this section.”

6 (c) STRIKING SUPERSEDED PROVISIONS.—(1) Sec-
7 tion 981(a) of title 18, United States Code, is amended 8 by—

9 (A) striking paragraph (2); and

10 (B) striking “Except as provided in paragraph 11 (2), the” and inserting “The”.

12 (2) Paragraphs (4), (6), and (7) of section 511(a) 13 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 881(a)) are 14 each amended by striking “, except that” and all that fol-
15 lows, each time it appears and inserting a period.

16 (3) Paragraphs (2) and (3) of section 2254(a) of title
17 18, United States Code, are each amended by striking “, 18 except that” and all that follows, each time it appears and 19 inserting a period.

20 (4) Section 274(b)(1) of the Immigration and Natu-
21 ralization Act (8 U.S.C. 1324(b)(1)) is amended by strik-
22 ing “, except that” and all that follows and inserting a 23 period.

1 (d) RELEASE OF PROPERTY.—Chapter 46 of title 18,
2 United States Code, is amended to add the following sec-
3 tion after section 984:

4 “§ 985. Release of property to avoid hardship

5 “(a) A person who has filed a claim under section 6 983 is entitled to release pursuant to subsection (b) of 7 seized property pending trial if—

8 “(1) the claimant has a possessory interest in 9 the property sufficient to establish standing to con-10 test forfeiture and has filed a nonfrivolous claim on 11 the merits of the forfeiture action;

12 “(2) the claimant has sufficient ties to the com-13 munity to provide assurance that the property will 14 be available at the time of the trial;

15 “(3) the continued possession by the United 16 States Government pending the final disposition of 17 forfeiture proceedings will cause substantial hard-18 ship to the claimant, such as preventing the claim-19 ant from working, leaving the claimant homeless, or 20 preventing the functioning of a business;

21 “(4) the claimant’s hardship outweighs the risk 22 that the property will be destroyed, damaged, lost, 23 concealed, diminished in value or transferred if it is 24 returned to the claimant during the pendency of the 25 proceeding; and

1 “(5) none of the conditions set forth in sub-2 section (c) applies;

3 “(b)(1) The claimant may make a request for the re-4 lease of property under this subsection at any time after 5 the claim is filed. If, at the time the request is made, the 6 seizing agency has not yet referred the claim to a United 7 States Attorney pursuant to section 608 of the Tariff Act 8 of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1608), the request may be filed with 9 the seizing agency; otherwise the request must be filed 10 with the United States Attorney to whom the claim was 11 referred. In either case, the request must set forth the 12 basis on which the requirements of subsection (a)(1) are 13 met.

14 “(2) If the seizing agency, or the United States At-15 torney, as the case may be, denies the request or fails to 16 act on the request within 20 days, the claimant may file
17 the request as a motion for the return of seized property 18 in the district court for the district represented by the 19 United States Attorney to whom the claim was referred, 20 or if the claim has not yet been referred, in the district 21 court that issued the seizure warrant for the property, or 22 if no warrant was issued, in any district court that would 23 have jurisdiction to consider a motion for the return of 24 seized property under Rule 41(e), Federal Rules of Crimi-
25 nal Procedure. The motion must set forth the basis on

1 which the requirements of subsection (a) have been met
2 and the steps the claimant has taken to secure the release
3 of the property from the appropriate official.

4 “(3) The district court must act on a motion made 5 pursuant to this subsection within 30 days or as soon 6 thereafter as practicable, and must grant the motion if 7 the claimant establishes that the requirements of sub-8 section (a) have been met. If the court grants the motion, 9 the court must enter any order necessary to ensure that 10 the value of the property is maintained while the forfeiture
11 action is pending, including permitting the inspection, 12 photographing and inventory of the property, and the 13 court may take action in accordance with Rule E of the 14 Supplemental Rules for Certain Admiralty and Maritime 15 Cases. The Government is authorized to place a lien 16 against the property or to file a lis pendens to ensure that 17 it is not transferred to another person. The Government, 18 in responding to a motion under this subsection, may, in 19 appropriate cases, submit evidence ex parte in order to 20 avoid disclosing any matter relating to an ongoing crimi-
21 nal investigation or pending trial.

22 “(4) If property returned to the claimant under this 23 section is lost, stolen, or diminished in value, any insur-24 ance proceeds shall be paid to the United States and such

1 proceeds shall be subject to forfeiture in place of the prop-
2 erty originally seized.

3 “(c) This section shall not apply if the seized prop-
4 erty—

5 “(1) is contraband, currency or other monetary
6 instrument, or electronic funds unless such currency
7 or other monetary instrument or electronic funds 8 constitutes the assets of a business which has been 9 seized,

10 “(2) is evidence of a violation of the law,

11 “(3) by reason of design or other characteristic, 12 is particularly suited for use in illegal activities; or 13 “(4) is likely to be used to commit additional 14 criminal acts if returned to the claimant.”

15 “(d) Once a motion for the release of property under 16 this section is filed, the person filing the motion may re-
17 quest that the motion be transferred to another district
18 where venue for the forfeiture action would lie under sec-
19 tion 1355(b) of title 28 pursuant to the change of venue

20 confiscation judgment rendered is in force and is not 21 subject to appeal;

22 “(4) an affidavit or sworn declaration that all 23 reasonable efforts have been undertaken to enforce 24 the value-based confiscation judgment against the 14 a request under paragraph (b), the foreign nation may file 15 a civil proceeding in United States district court seeking 16 to enforce the foreign value-based confiscation judgment

 4 court shall be bound by the findings of facts insofar as 5 they are stated in the foreign judgment of conviction and 6 value-based confiscation judgment.

7 “(f) CURRENCY CONVERSION.—Insofar as a value-
 8 based confiscation judgment requires the payment of a 9 sum of money, the rate of exchange in effect at time when 19 association, profession, occupation, and calling of 20 every kind whether or not conducted for profit; and
