EARTH DAY INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

HON. TOM UDALL

OF NEW MEXICO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 18, 1999

Mr. UDALL of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to introduce a resolution recognizing the growing observance of Earth Day. On April 22, 1970, 20 million Americans celebrated the first Earth Day. Since Earth Day's first observance, the number of Americans celebrating Earth Day and the number of countries observing Earth Day has steadily risen. In fact, Earth Day is now observed in more than 140 countries.

Every year on April 22, millions of Americans and millions of people throughout the world participate in activities that call attention to harmful human activities that impact our natural environment. These calls have not gone unanswered. Since the first observance of Earth Day, Congress has passed the Clean Air Act, the Clean Water Act, and the Endangered Species Act in an effort to halt and roll back the harmful impacts of human activity. In addition, we have seen the creation of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, and just recently, in the House Committee on Resources, we witnessed a successful bipartisan effort to provide funding for an array of conservation and wildlife programs.

Earth Day provides an opportunity to learn about the positive actions we can take to improve energy efficiency; to develop safe, renewable energy sources; to design goods that are durable, reusable, and recyclable; and to eliminate the production of harmful wastes while protecting our environment and encouraging sustainable development throughout the world.

Mr. Speaker, this resolution recognizes the importance of Earth Day and calls on the House of Representatives to recognize that Earth Day should be established to draw attention to the impact of human activity on the natural environment, to alert the world to environmental threats to human health and well-being, and advocate personal actions and public policies to promote and preserve a healthy, diverse, resilient, and productive world for our children and our children's children.

This is a companion measure to one already introduced in the other chamber by Senator JEFF BINGAMAN of New Mexico.

Mr. Speaker, I ask this body to support this worthy resolution.

HONORING JOHN OLSEN AS HE RECEIVES THE STATE OF ISRAEL BONDS LABOR MEDAL

HON. ROSA L. DeLAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 18, 1999

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor my good friend John W. Olsen as he receives the State of Israel Bonds Labor Medal for his lifelong contributions to the labor movement in the State of Connecticut.

Created in 1951, State of Israel Bonds serves as the cornerstone of Israel's economy. Committed to improving Israel's infrastructure as a whole, Israel Bonds provides financial support for the construction of research facilities, transportation networks, communications links, and the expansion of port and airport facilities. Its commitment to the betterment of Israel's people and its economy is unparalleled—helping transform the state of Israel into one of the world's leading industrial nations.

In many ways, John's commitment to the labor movement is reflective on Israel Bonds' commitment to the state of Israel. Since he began his career as a member of the UA Local 133, Plumbers and Pipefitters, John has dedicated his life to working families. He has fought for better wages, more comprehensive health benefits for workers and their families, and safer work environment. As President of the Connecticut AFL-CIO, John has forced the largest corporations in Connecticut to listen to their employees' and afford them these basic rights. He has been a true leader for our working families, giving them a voice during the hardest of economic times.

John has also worked hard to make Connecticut a better place to live and grow. He has been active in state and national politics, serving on the Democratic State Central Committee and the Democratic National Committee. He also serves on a number of boards and commissions with the purpose of making Connecticut's workers the most productive in the nation. Over the years, John has become an ambassador for the labor movement, spreading its message of helping and protecting working families through lectures, newspaper columns, and on the radio. We in Connecticut have much to thank John for—his contributions have been truly invaluable.

It is with great pride that I rise to join friends and family in saluting my dear friend, John, as he receives the State of Israel Bonds Labor Medal. Congratulations.

TRIBUTE TO MICHAEL TERRELL

HON. ANNE M. NORTHUP

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 18, 1999

Mrs. NORTHUP. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate and honor a Kentucky teacher from my district who has achieved national recognition for his exemplary role in educating young students. Michael Terrell of Louisville is one of 29 teachers from across the country selected for USA TODAY'S 1999 ALL-USA Teacher Team. He should be extremely proud to have been both nominated by a colleague and to have received an award conferred on the most impressive teachers in the nation. In light of constant stories about the crisis in our nation's schools, it is vital that we recognize the dedication and outstanding achievements of our teachers. It is my honor to pay tribute to someone who has made such a difference to so many children.

Michael Terrell has had a distinguished career as a primary teacher for 27 years, including 18 years at Cochran Elementary School where he currently teaches first and second grades. Thanks to Michael Terrell's devotion and selfless contributions, the Cochran Elementary School is filled with spirit and activism. His hard work and dedication to making schools better and improving the lives of his students, both encourages parents to get involved and sets an example for all teachers to follow. He is one of the people who helps create the vitality of Cochran Elementary School and his enthusiasm creates a can-do attitude. He is responsible for the many successes there which, in turn, positively affect our entire community's well-being.

Mr. Terrell is a teacher who knows how to get the job done. He knows it takes hard work, it takes flexibility, and it takes a commitment to each child. I was proud to hear that Michael Terrell supports what this Congress is trying to do—give schools and teachers the ability to make the choices which best reflect their students needs. We are all in agreement that such changes will help improve education—for Michael Terrell and his students. Because of all he does, I salute Michael Terrell for working so hard to make our schools a flourishing environment for our children to learn, grow and play.
