

Chamber Youth Leadership Legal Day

On April 18, 2013, the Wheeling Area Chamber of Commerce and Ohio County Circuit Clerk's Office held their annual Chamber Youth Leadership Legal Day at the Federal Building in Wheeling, West Virginia. High school students from Bellaire, Bridgeport, Linsly, John Marshall, Shadyside, St. John's Central Catholic, Wheeling Central Catholic, and Wheeling Park were selected to represent their schools.

United States Attorney William J. Ihlenfeld, II reviewed the Federal court system with the students as well as cases prosecuted by the Federal Government. U.S. Attorney Ihlenfeld also spoke to the students about job opportunities with the Federal Government.

Agent Mark Simala of the Drug Enforcement Administration spoke to the students on his role as an agent for the DEA.

Students also heard from Jason Dias, Criminal Investigator and Deputy United States Marshal and Sara Beth Ahrens, Senior Criminal Investigator and Deputy in Charge, United States Marshals Service, on the role of United States Marshals.

L to R: Luke Miller, Linsly; Agent Mark Simala, DEA; Jason Dias, DUSM/CI, United States Marshals Service; Sara Beth Ahrens, DUSM/CI, United States Marshals Service; Brenda Miller, Ohio County Circuit Clerk; Lisa Mullins, Vice President of Operations, Wheeling Area Chamber of Commerce; and, Alec Reed, Linsly.