FACTUAL BASIS

Should this matter have gone to trial, the government would have proven, through the introduction of competent testimony and admissible, tangible exhibits, the following facts, beyond a reasonable doubt, to support the allegations in the indictment now pending against the defendant:

The Defendant, ANGEL IRLANDO GONZALEZ-FUENTES (hereinafter “GONZALEZ”) has agreed to plead guilty as charged to the one-count indictment charging him with illegal reentry of a removed alien in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 1326(a).

An Immigration and Customs Enforcement Special Agent (hereinafter the “agent”) would testify that on or about July 13, 2011, he encountered the defendant, GONZALEZ, while conducting a consent search of a residence located at 1101 Colbert Street, Trailer 49 in Mandeville, Louisiana during an investigation in St. Tammany Parish, in the Eastern District of Louisiana. Upon determining the defendant was illegally in the United States, the defendant was arrested by Immigration and Customs Enforcement (hereinafter "ICE") agents for immigration violations.

The agent would testify that he confirmed the defendant's illegal status by performing biographic and biometric database checks through various United States Department of Homeland Security databases. The databases also revealed that the defendant was a citizen of Honduras who had previously been removed from the United States.

Documentation from the records of ICE, contained in the defendant's Alien file, including a Warrant of Removal/Deportation, complete with the defendant's fingerprints, photographs and signature, would demonstrate that the defendant, GONZALEZ, was removed from the United States to Honduras on or about August 23, 2000, at or near Chandler, Arizona. A qualified ICE Fingerprint Specialist would testify that the fingerprints of the individual documented in the Alien file containing the Warrant of Removal/Deportation and the fingerprints of the defendant are the same. Documentation from the Alien file would further show that the defendant is an alien, and not a citizen or national of the United States.

Testimony of an official from United States Citizenship and Immigration Services regarding record checks conducted through the Computer Linked Application Information Management System would show that the defendant, GONZALEZ, did not receive consent from the United States Attorney General or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to apply for readmission or receive permission to reenter the United States since the time of the defendant's previous removal.

Further documents, court records, and other admissible evidence would show that on or about

August 2, 2000, in the Circuit Court for Multnomah County, Oregon, the defendant, GONZALEZ, was convicted of delivery of a controlled substance.
