Beginning in February 2008, the United States received authority from U.S. District Judge Barbara Crabb to conduct wiretaps on several of the telephones being used by Maximo and Efrain Pineda-Buenaventura to conduct a drug operation run out of multiple dwellings in Watertown and a residence in Janesville. Approximately 8,000 calls were monitored by law enforcement officers between February and June in which Pineda-Pineda and others were overheard conducting drug transactions and making arrangements to facilitate the sale of large amounts of cocaine in the Western District of Wisconsin.

On June 19, 2008, law enforcement officers executed 11 search warrants in the Western and Eastern Districts of Wisconsin, resulting in the arrest of several defendants in Watertown, the seizure of over $100,000 in United States currency, several automobiles, and multiple kilograms of cocaine.

Prior to the execution of those search warrants, Pineda-Pineda left Jefferson County and relocated his drug operation to Tampa, Fla., where he was arrested under an alias, Magin Avellaneda-Avila. Pineda-Pineda was prosecuted in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida for conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute methamphetamine and on September 3, 2009, was sentenced to 70 months in prison. Judge Crabb ordered that the sentence imposed today will run consecutively to this Florida sentence.

The prosecution of this case was handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Paul W. Connell.
