Civil Action No. 70-2855-CC

Entered: March 19, 1973

FINAL JUDGMENT

Plaintiff, United States of America, having filed its Complaint herein on December 18, 1970, and defendants having filed their answers to said Complaint and plaintiff and defendants by their respective attorneys having consented to the making and entry of this Final Judgment without admission by either party in respect to any issue:

NOW, THEREFORE, before any testimony has been taken herein, without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law herein and without this Final Judgment constituting evidence of an admission by any party hereto with respect to any such issue, and upon consent of the parties hereto, it is hereby:

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

Ι

This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and of the parties hereto. The Complaint states claims upon which relief may be granted against the defendants under Section 1 of the Act of Congress of July 2, 1890, as amended (15)

U.S.C. §1), commonly known as the Sherman Act.

II

As used in this Final Judgment:

- (A) 'Multiple Listing Service' shall mean any plan or program controlled, operated or sponsored by a defendant for the circulation of real property listings among multiple listing service members;
- (B) "Person" shall mean any individual, partnership, firm, association, corporation, or other business or legal entity.

III

The provisions of this Final Judgment applicable to any defendant shall also apply to each of its subsidiaries, successors, and assigns, to its directors, officers, agents, employees, when acting in such capacity, and, in addition, to all persons, including members, in active concert or participation with any of them who receive actual notice of this Final Judgment by personal service or otherwise.

· IV

Each defendant, whether acting unilaterally or in concert or agreement with any other person, is enjoined and restrained from:

- (A) Fixing, establishing, or maintaining any rate or amount of commissions or fees for the sale, lease or management of real estate, or for obtaining financing in real estate transactions;
- (B) Urging, recommending, or suggesting that any person including the members of said defendant adhere to any schedule or other recommendation concerning the rate or the amount of commissions or fees for the sale, lease, or management of real estate, or for obtaining financing in real estate transactions;

- (C) Adopting, suggesting, publishing or distributing any schedule or other recommendation concerning the rate or amount of commissions or other fees for the sale, lease or management of real estate or for obtaining financing in real estate transactions;
- (D) Adopting, adhering to, maintaining, enforcing or claiming any rights under any by-law, rule, regulation, plan or program which restricts or limits the right of any of its members or any other real estate broker to seek any commission or fee in accordance with his own business judgment;
- (E) Taking any punitive action against any person where such action is based upon the person's failure or refusal to adhere to any schedule or other recommendation concerning the rate or amount of commissions or other fees to be charged in connection with the sale, lease or management of real estate, or for obtaining financing in real estate transactions;
- (F) Fixing, maintaining, suggesting, or enforcing any percentage division of commissions between the selling and listing broker;
- (G) Adopting, adhering to, maintaining or enforcing any by-law, rule, regulation, plan or program which would prohibit any member from doing business with any person;
- (H) Establishing, maintaining, or enforcing any fees for membership in the Board or Multiple Listing Service which are not related to the approximate cost, including reasonable reserves, of maintaining the organization as a going concern.

Each defendant is ordered to insert in all its rules, by-laws, regulations, contracts, and other forms which contain a set commission rate, or division thereof, a provision that commission rates for the sale, lease or management of property or for obtaining financing in real estate transactions shall be negotiable between the broker and his client, and that commission divisions shall not be influenced by the defendant.

VI

- (A) Each defendant is ordered and directed to admit to membership any person duly licensed as a broker or salesman to sell real estate by the appropriate governmental authority, and to allow participation in its Multiple Listing Service by any member duly licensed as a real estate broker by the appropriate governmental authority, provided such person or member meets and satisfies reasonable and non-discriminatory written requirements for such membership or participation adopted and maintained by the defendant or its Multiple Listing Service, which are not otherwise inconsistent with this Final Judgment;
- (B) Each defendant is ordered and directed within ninety (90) days from the date of entry of this Final Judgment to amend its by-laws, rules, regulations, contracts, and all forms requiring a client's signature or which contain a set commission rate for the sale, lease or management of real estate or for obtaining financing in real estate transactions by eliminating therefrom any provision which is contrary to or inconsistent with any provision of this Final Judgment and to send amended copies of each such by-law, rule, regulation, contract, and form to each of its members;
- (C) Each defendant is ordered and directed within ninety-five (95) days from the date of entry of this Final Judgment to file with the plaintiff a true copy of its by-laws, rules, regulations, contracts, and forms, as aforesaid amended and distributed;
- (D) Upon amendment of their respective by-laws, rules, regulations, contracts, and forms as aforesaid, each defendant is thereafter enjoined and restrained from adopting, adhering to, enforcing or claiming any rights under any by-law, rule, regulation, plan or program which is contrary to or inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Final Judgment.

VII

- Each defendant is ordered and directed to mail within sixty (60) days after the date of entry of this Final Judgment, a copy thereof to each of its members and within one hundred and twenty (120) days from the aforeseid date of entry to file with the Clerk of this Court, an affidavit setting forth the fact and manner of compliance with this Section VII and Section VI(B) above;
- For ten years each defendant herein is ordered to file with the plaintiff, on each anniversary date of this Final Judgment, a report setting forth the steps which it has taken during the prior year to advise said defendant's appropriate officers, directors, and employees of its and their obligations under this Final Judgment.

VIII

Nothing in this Final Judgment shall be deemed to prohibit (A) the publication or circulation through a Multiple Listing Service of information concerning any commission set in accordance with this Final Judgment, or any division thereof which a listing broker is willing to pay to a selling broker or (B) the adoption and enforcement, directly or through a Multiple Listing Service, of rules requiring (i) that neither the commission nor the percentage division thereof, arrived at in accordance with this Final Judgment and specified for a listing not to exceed a reasonable period, may be altered without the consent of both the listing and the selling broker, and (ii) that the said percentage division of the commission must upon receipt be promptly paid over to the selling or listing broker, as the case may be.

 For the purpose of determining or securing compliance with this Final Judgment, and for no other purpose, and subject to any legally recognized privilege, duly authorized representatives of the Department of Justice shall, upon written request of the Attorney General or the Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Antitrust Division, and on reasonable notice to any defendant, made to its principal office, be permitted:

- (A) Access during its office hours, and in the presence of counsel if defendant chooses, to all books, ledgers, accounts, correspondence, memoranda, and other records and documents in the possession of or under the control of such defendant relating to any matters contained in this Final Judgment; and
- (B) Subject to the reasonable convenience of such defendant, and without restraint or interference from it to interview offices or employees of the defendant, who may have counsel present, regarding any such matters; and upon such request, each defendant shall submit such reports in writing, under oath if so requested, to the Department of Justice with respect to any of the matters contained in this Final Judgment as may from time to time be requested. No information obtained by the means provided in this Section IX shall be divulged by any representative of the Department of Justice to any person, other than a duly authorized representative of the Executive Branch of plaintiff, except in the course of legal proceedings to which the United States of America is a party for the purpose of securing compliance with this Final Judgment or as otherwise required by law.

Jurisdiction is retained by this Court for the purpose of enabling any of the parties to this Final Judgment to apply to this Court at any time for such further orders and directions as may be necessary or appropriate for the construction or carrying out of this Final Judgment, for the modification of any of the provisions hereof, for the enforcement of compliance therewith, and for the punishment of violations thereof.
