NOFERI, Temporary Appellate Immigration Judge

On December 28, 2022, the Supreme Court of California issued an order suspending the respondent from the practice of law in California for a period of three years; with the execution of that period stayed. The order also placed the respondent on probation for three years subject to certain conditions, including suspension from the practice of law in California for a minimum of the first two years of probation, effective January 27, 2023. On February 2, 2023, the Disciplinary Counsel for the Executive Office for Immigration Review (“EOIR”) and the Disciplinary Counsel for the Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”) jointly petitioned for the respondent’s immediate suspension from practice before the Board of Immigration Appeals, the Immigration Courts, and DHS. The petition will be granted.² See 8 C.F.R. §§ 1003.103(a)(1) and (4) (discussing grounds for immediate suspension).

¹ Temporary Appellate Immigration Judges sit pursuant to appointment by the Attorney General. See 8 C.F.R. § 1003.1(a)(4)

² Upon good cause shown, the Board of Immigration Appeals may set aside the order of immediate suspension when it appears in the interest of justice to do so. 8 C.F.R. § 1003.103(a)(4).
