

Instructions: To complete this form, fill out all blanks below, including the proof of service, which certifies that you have provided a copy of this form to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). After filling in the blanks and signing both the declaration and proof of service, you must submit the form in person or by mail. If submitting the form by mail, follow the mailing instructions on page two. You must submit a separate copy of this form for each individual in immigration court proceedings (i.e., you must submit a form for each person who has a case pending in immigration court and whom the change of address or phone number affects).

You must file this form with the immigration court within five working days of the change to your address or phone number, or your receipt of a charging document (e.g., a Notice to Appear) with incorrect contact information. The immigration court will send all official correspondence (e.g., date, time, and place of hearings) to the address you provide. The immigration court will only make any change(s) to your address and phone number in EOIR's records upon receipt of this form; the immigration court will not change your address or phone number based on a different address or phone number on pleadings, motions, or other communications with the court.

If you fail to appear at any hearing before an immigration judge when notice of that hearing or other official correspondence was served on you or sent to the address you provided, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) may take you into custody. In addition, the immigration court may conduct your hearing in your absence and enter an order of removal, deportation, or exclusion against you. If the court enters such an order, you may be ineligible for certain forms of relief from removal under the Immigration and Nationality Act as follows:

If you are in removal proceedings: You will be subject to an order of removal for a period of ten years after the date of entry of the final order.

You may also become ineligible for voluntary departure, cancellation of removal, and adjustment of status or change of status.

If you are in deportation proceedings: You will be subject to an order of deportation for a period of five years after the date of the entry of the final order. You may also become ineligible for voluntary departure, suspension of deportation or voluntary departure, and adjustment of status or change of status.

If you are in exclusion proceedings: Your application for admission to the United States may be considered withdrawn.
