Hello Commissioners:

Thank you once again for your continued work and support for the President's Commission. This week we had several important panels, including a discussion on policing culture and use of force; use of force and law enforcement culture; and the importance of strong relationships between the faith community and law enforcement. Our hearings will commence again next week with three panels, and another great group of distinguished witnesses to provide you with testimony related to Accreditation/Standards; Community Relations, Training, and Law Enforcement; and Community Engagement and Respect for Law Enforcement. We will provide you with all materials, including the hearing agenda, and witness bios and testimony prior to the hearing.

Again, we appreciate your continued commitment and contributions in conducting these hearings by telephone. Thank you for your service and support, and we look forward to hearing from you soon.

Phil Keith, Chair

President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice
