Importance: High

Hello, Commissioners –

Over the last several weeks, we have been busy editing the chapters to ensure that the recommendations are as high-level and impactful as possible. We are still on track for a Commission report release in October, however we would appreciate one final round of Commissioner review and comment on these drafts. Please note that these chapters will go through additional copy editing and layout, so we ask that you please reserve your comments to any significant suggestions or questions. After copy editing and layout, the chapter and recommendation numbers will change in the final report once it is finalized.

We plan for sequencing this final review by sending you the first five chapters today, the second five chapters this Wednesday, and the final five chapters Friday. Because of the limited number of days remaining before the release of the report, we are asking that any comments on chapters for all three batches be provided back to this email address within two business days or sooner, and no later than Wednesday, September 23 at 12 PM ET for these five chapters.

I understand your many competing priorities, however this final review is a critical step in completing the Commission's report, which is a culmination of the last eight months of your work. I continue to appreciate your commitment and dedication to the work of this Commission. Please do not hesitate to let me know if you have any questions.

Regards,

Phil Keith, Chair
President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice
