ORDER

The Court has retained jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to Section XI of the Final Judgment entered July 11, 1967; and

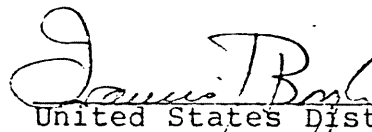

The plaintiff, the United States of America, and the defendant ITT Grinnell Corporation ("Grinnell"), formerly named Grinnell Corporation have entered into a stipulation dated January 29, 1982, and filed with the Court on February 2, 1982, which provides that an order vacating the final judgment as to Grinnell may be filed and entered provided that the plaintiff has not withdrawn its consent. The plaintiff's consent to the vacation order was subject to the publication, prior to the entry of any order terminating the final judgment as to Grinnell, of a notice of this application inviting interested parties to submit comments for a period of 60 days. Such publication has been made by Grinnell and no comments have been received. Plaintiff has not withdrawn its consent; and

The Court has considered the affidavit and memoranda filed by the parties and heard argument from plaintiff and Grinnell in support of their motion, and has concluded that vacation of the decree as to Grinnell is in the public interest.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

The final judgment entered July 11, 1967, as modified on May 15, 1975, and on August 15, 1979, is hereby vacated as to Grinnell.

So Ordered:
