UNITED STATES' MOTION TO INTERVENE

The United States, under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure ("Rule") 24, respectfully moves the Court for leave to intervene in this action and for permission to file the attached complaint in intervention. Counsel for the United States has spoken to counsel in the Alabama Attorney General's Office, who indicated that the Defendants would reserve taking a position on the relief requested in this Motion until they have had an opportunity to review it.

As grounds for its motion to intervene, the United States asserts the following facts, which are more fully set forth in the accompanying memorandum of law:

1. On April 19, 2022, the Eknes-Tucker Plaintiffs filed this lawsuit challenging Act No. 2022-289, Senate Bill ("S.B.") 184, the "Alabama Vulnerable Child Compassion and Protection Act." Section 4 of S.B. 184 is a felony ban on providing medical care to transgender minors to affirm their gender identity. S.B. 184 goes into effect on May 8, 2022.

2. The Eknes-Tucker Plaintiffs are four Alabama transgender minors and their parents, a pediatrician, child psychologist, and a pastor. The Eknes-Tucker

Plaintiffs assert that S.B. 184, inter alia, discriminates on the basis of sex and transgender status in violation of the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment.

3. The United States seeks to intervene in this lawsuit against the Defendants and the State of Alabama under Rule 24.

4. Rule 24(a)(1) provides that, on timely motion, a court must permit anyone to intervene who "is given an unconditional right to intervene by a federal statute."

5. Section 902 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, grants the United States an unconditional right to intervene in cases seeking relief from the alleged denial of equal protection of the laws under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution on account of sex, if the Attorney General certifies that the case is of general public importance. 42 U.S.C. § 2000h-2. The United States' complaint in intervention alleges that S.B. 184 violates the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment on account of sex and transgender status.

6. The Attorney General certifies that this is a case of public importance.A Certificate of Public Importance is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

7. Alternatively, Rule 24(b) provides for permissive intervention upon a timely motion when a potential party has a claim or defense that shares with the main action a common question of law or fact, and when intervention will not unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the original parties' rights. The United States has satisfied the requirements for permissive intervention here.

8. A complaint in intervention is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

WHEREFORE, the United States respectfully requests that this Court grant its motion to intervene in this action.
