Extension and Redesignation of South Sudan for Temporary Protected Status—Correction

AGENCY: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), Department of Homeland Security (DHS).

ACTION: Notice; correction.

SUMMARY: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), a component of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), is making a correction to the notice titled “Extension and Redesignation of South Sudan for Temporary Protected Status” that published in the Federal Register on March 3, 2022, at 87 FR 12190. USCIS is correcting a typographical error in the “General Employment-Related Information for TPS Applicants and Their Employers” section of the notice to correct the date from September 17, 2021 to May 2, 2022 as the eligibility date that should be showing on South Sudan TPS-based Employment Authorization Documents (EADs) in order to receive an automatic 180-day EAD extension through November 1, 2022.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

- You may contact Rená Cutlip-Mason, Chief, Humanitarian Affairs Division, Office of Policy and Strategy, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, U.S. Department of Homeland Security, by mail at 5900 Capital Gateway Drive, Camp Springs, MD 20746, or by phone at 800-375-5283.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On March 3, 2022, DHS published a notice in the Federal Register at 87 FR 12190. USCIS is making a correction to that published notice. The correction is as follows:

On page 12198, under the question “Am I eligible to receive an automatic 180-day extension of my current EAD through November 1, 2022, using this Federal Register notice?” USCIS is revising the second sentence to correct the referenced expiration date on the face of the card for TPS EADs issued under the prior TPS South Sudan extension. This date should reflect May 2, 2022, not September 17, 2021.

Applicable to automatic extension periods of current EADs for this population, DHS published a Temporary Final Rule on May 4, 2022 that temporarily increased the automatic 180-day extension under 8 CFR 274a.13(d) to up to 540 days for those TPS beneficiaries that file to renew their existing EAD.¹ Accordingly, for TPS beneficiaries who are covered under the South Sudan TPS Notice and file to renew their EAD with a May 2, 2022 expiration date on the face of the card during the filing period described under the South Sudan TPS Notice, the Temporary Final Rule permits an automatic extension of their EAD for up to 540 days after the expiration date on the face of the EAD.

Correction

In FR 2022–04573, on page 12198 in the Federal Register of March 3, 2022, in the second column, USCIS is correcting the second sentence as follows:

Regardless of your country of birth, provided that you currently have a South Sudan TPS-based EAD with an expiration date of May 2, 2022, on the face of the card, bearing the notation A–12 or C–19 under Category, this notice automatically extends your EAD through November 1, 2022.²

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Why do we conduct 5-year status reviews?

Under the Endangered Species Act of 1973, as amended (Act; 16 U.S.C. 1531, et seq.), we maintain lists of endangered and threatened wildlife and plant species (referred to as the List) in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) at 50 CFR 17.11 (for wildlife) and 17.12 (for plants). Section 4(c)(2) of the Act requires us to review each listed species' status at least once every 5 years. For additional information about 5-year status reviews, refer to our factsheet at <https://www.fws.gov/endangered/what-we-do/recovery-overview.html>.

What information do we consider in our review?

A 5-year status review considers all new information available at the time of the review. In conducting these reviews, we consider the best scientific and commercial data that have become available since the listing determination or most recent status reviews, such as:

- A. Species biology, including but not limited to population trends, distribution, abundance, demographics, and genetics;
- B. Habitat conditions, including but not limited to amount, distribution, and suitability;
- C. Conservation measures that have been implemented that benefit the species;
- D. Threat status and trends in relation to the five listing factors (as defined in section 4(a)(1) of the Act); and
- E. Other new information, data, or corrections, including but not limited to taxonomic or nomenclatural changes, identification of erroneous information contained in the List, and improved analytical methods.

Any new information will be considered during the 5-year status review and will also be useful in evaluating the ongoing recovery programs for these species.

Which species are under review?

This notice announces our active review of 167 species, including 4 birds, 1 reptile, 50 snails, 9 insects, and 103 plants, as listed in the table below.

² Again, for applicants who filed a request to renew their existing EAD and their EAD has a facial expiration of May 2, 2022, the May 4th Temporary

Final Rule automatically extends that EAD for up to 540 days through October 24, 2023.
