DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	:	Criminal No. 22-
v.	:	Hon.
NYASIA HUTCHINSON	:	18 U.S.C. § 1709 and § 2

I N F O R M A T I O N

The defendant having waived in open court prosecution by Indictment, the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey charges:

(Theft of Mail Matter by Postal Employee)

1.   At all times relevant to this Information, defendant NYASIA HUTCHINSON was employed by the United States Postal Service as a Postal Service Clerk at the Elizabeth Post Office in Elizabeth, New Jersey ("EPO").

2.   From on or about May 21, 2018, through on or about December 31, 2018, defendant NYASIA HUTCHINSON stole, from mail packages at EPO, between 15 to 20 cellular telephones (including Apple iPhones) having a total approximate value of at least $12,246.39.

3.   At the time they were stolen, the cellular phones were en route to a company in Hillside, New Jersey which provided addresses for customers to ship their online purchases. When a customer's package arrived at the company, the customer was notified and could then select the ultimate destination of the package and the preferred method of shipment.

4.   From on or about May 21, 2018, through on or about December 31, 2018, in Union County, in the District of New Jersey, and elsewhere, defendant being a Postal Service employee, did embezzle, steal, abstract, and remove, articles and things, namely, cellular telephones, from packages, bags, and mail, entrusted to her and which had come into defendant NYASIA HUTCHINSON's possession intended to be conveyed by mail, and carried and delivered by any carrier, messenger, agent, and other person employed in any department of the Postal Service, and forwarded through and delivered from any post office and station thereof established by authority of the Postmaster General and of the Postal Service.

In violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1709 and Section 2.
