PURPOSE OF THE ACT

The principal purpose of Congress in enacting the Foreign Agents Registration Act was to ensure that the Government and the people of the United States would be informed of the identity of persons engaging in political activities for or on behalf of foreign governments, foreign political parties and other foreign principals.

The amendments to the Foreign Agents Registration Act were designed to strengthen the basic purpose of the original Act -- i.e., to protect the interests of the United States by requiring complete public disclosure by persons acting for or in the interests of foreign principals where such activities are political in nature. The public disclosure required by the Act permits the Government and the people of the United States to be informed as to the identities and activities of such persons and to be better able to appraise them and the purposes for which they act. These amendments arose in connection with hearings held by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in its examination of the interrelationships of nondiplomatic agents with the executive and legislative branches of the Government, as well as with our mass media.

Registration under the Act does not imply recognition by the United States Government of either the existence or legality of the foreign principal. Furthermore, registration does not indicate approval by the United States Government of the propaganda material disseminated or of the activities of the registered agent.

STATISTICAL SUMMARY

During the calendar year 1984, the Department received 93 new registration statements and terminated 73 registrations, leaving a total of 751 active registrations on file as of December 31, 1984. Individuals acting as officials or employees or rendering assistance to a registrant for or in the interest of the latter's foreign principal filed 758 short-form registration statements under the Act, bringing the present total of active short-form registration statements to 7,430. There were 171 agreements with new foreign principals reported by agents currently registered under the Act.

In this calendar year, the staff of the Registration Unit reviewed over 1,400 supplemental statements and processed approximately 15,000 pieces of both incoming and outgoing correspondence which involved other government agencies, registrants and the general public.

ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT

LITIGATION

In a case styled Attorney General v. Irish Northern Aid Committee, 530 F. Supp. 241 (S.D.N.Y. 1981), 668 F.2d 159 (2d Cir. 1982), the Department commenced an action in February 1977 in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against the defendant for failing to make full disclosure of its activities in its statements filed under the Act and for failing to comply with the Act's provisions regarding the dissemination of "political propaganda".

Following our examination of the defendant's documents produced pursuant to Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the court granted our request to amend the complaint to include the allegations that the defendant has acted as an agent for the Provisional Irish Republican Army. On April 30, 1980, the Department filed a motion for summary judgment, which the court took under advisement in the latter part of July.

On April 30, 1981, the court entered a 63 page opinion enjoining the defendant from further violations of the Act and finding the alleged violations of various constitutional and statutory rights contained in the defendant's counterclaims to be totally unsubstantiated.

Perhaps most significant of the court's findings is that the defendant acts as the agent of the Irish Republican Army and must register as its agent. The court also held that the defendant must disclose its relation to The Irish People, a weekly newspaper.

In addition, the court found that the defendant has failed to report its other activities as required; has failed to identify properly its sub-agents and affiliates; and has repeatedly violated the financial reporting provisions of the Act. According to the court, the requirements of the Act dealing with "political propaganda" have been ignored continuously by the defendant.

The defendant appealed to the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, and on January 5, 1982, the Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the District Court granting a permanent injunction against the Committee based on its violations of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended. In its opinion the appellate court adopted the Department's position regarding the interpretation of a key portion of the Act's definition of "agent of a foreign principal."

The defendant has failed to comply with the terms of the injunction since the denial of its appeal, citing the Fifth Amendment as the basis for its refusal. In November 1983 a motion seeking to have the defendant held in contempt for its refusal was filed in the District Court. Subsequently the court denied the motion, but in the process rejected each of the defenses raised by the defendant. The court further ordered that the defendant had ninety days to undertake compliance with the injunction or the court would entertain a further motion for contempt. The attorneys for the defendant have indicated that the defendant will comply with the injunction.

In the case of Attorney General v. The Irish People, Inc., 502 F. Supp. 63 (D.D.C. 1980), 684 F.2d 928 (D.C.Cir. 1982), an action was commenced on August 15, 1976, against the defendant charging it with failure to register as an agent of a foreign principal as required by the Foreign Agents Registration Act. The defendant is the nominal owner and publisher of a nationally distributed weekly newspaper The Irish People. The complaint sought a mandatory injunction requiring the defendant to register and otherwise to comply with the Act. After losing a series of motions to dismiss, the defendant filed an answer denying the principal allegations of the complaint, raising a series of affirmative defenses, and asserting several counterclaims alleging violations of certain statutory rights. On our motion the Privacy Act counterclaim has been dismissed. The remaining counterclaim alleges illegal electronic surveillance and seeks both monetary and injunctive relief. On August 8, 1980, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia ruled that certain documents to which we had earlier asserted a claim of state secrets privilege, and which the court had held to be privileged, were material to the defense, and must either be produced or the action would be dismissed. The Department filed a motion for reconsideration, based on the court's erroneous application of the principles of criminal law to a civil action and its failure to comply with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The court, without elaboration, denied our motion for reconsideration and granted the defendant's motion to dismiss.

The Department appealed this decision to the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit where oral argument was heard on October 21, 1981. On July 2, 1982, the Court of Appeals overturned the dismissal and reinstated the complaint, ruling that the defendant was not entitled to the material. The court also agreed that even if the lower court had not erred on this issue, dismissal of our suit was not justified and some alternative should have been fashioned by the District Court, such as in the so-called Socialist Workers Party case, In re Attorney General of the United States, 596 F.2d 58 (2d Cir. 1979).

The defendant sought rehearing either before the original panel or the entire Court of Appeals. On September 9, 1982, the Court of Appeals denied the defendant's attempt. The defendant filed a petition for certiorari with the United States Supreme Court. We opposed the petition on the basis that it is interlocutory and on that basis certiorari was denied. A subsequent motion for reconsideration was also denied.

Upon remand to the District Court, both sides filed motions for summary judgment. The motions were argued in December, 1983, and in July, 1984, the Court granted the plaintiff's motion and denied the defendant's except on the issue of the selective prosecution defense. This remaining issue was briefed by both parties and oral argument was held in December. The Court's ruling is expected in mid-1985.

The National Film Board of Canada (NFBC) has been registered with the Department under the Act since 1947 for its dissemination of films from Canada. On January 13, 1983, following a review of five films out of some fifty titles being disseminated for the first time by NFBC, the Department advised NFBC that three of the films, Acid from Heaven, Acid Rain, Requiem or Recovery and If You Love This Planet, constituted political propaganda as defined in the Act. Consequently the NFBC was advised to add the statutory disclaimer to the films disclosing its relationship with its foreign principal, the fact of registration and the fact that registration does not indicate approval by the U.S. Government.

On March 9, 1983, several plaintiffs, not including the NFBC, filed a civil action in the District Court for the District of Columbia styled Mitchell Block, et al. v. William French Smith, et al. (Civil Action No. 83-672) seeking declaratory and injunctive relief, on First Amendment and other grounds, against the application of the provisions of the Act to the three films distributed by the NFBC. On May 23, 1983, the Government filed its motion to dismiss, or in the alternative, for summary judgment. On April 2, 1984 the Government prevailed in the District Court on its motion to dismiss for lack of standing. Judge Richey's opinion is published as Block v. Smith, 583 F. Supp. 1288 (D.D.C. 1984). Plaintiff appealed, and at the close of the year arguments in the case were scheduled for February 12, 1985 before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

On March 24, 1983, plaintiff California State Senator Barry Keene filed a civil action styled Barry Keene v. William French Smith, et al. (Civil Action No. 583-287-RAR) in the District Court for the Eastern District of California alleging that he wished to exhibit the films but was deterred from doing so because any connection with material "denigrated" by the Government as "foreign political propaganda" would be injurious to him. On May 23, 1983, Judge Raul A. Ramirez indicated he was denying the Government's motion to dismiss and granting the plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction until a hearing on the Government's motion for summary judgment. Judge Ramirez's opinion is published as Keene v. Smith, 569 F. Supp. 1513 (E.D.Cal. 1983). The hearing on cross motions for summary judgment was still pending at the end of the year.

OTHER INITIATIVES

The Registration Unit continued to conduct in-depth inspections of a broad spectrum of registrants pursuant to Section 615 of the Act. As a result of such inspections of books and records, it was determined in several cases that disclosures were inadequate, thereby necessitating the submission of amendments to registration statements.

Unit personnel also continued to conduct field and office conferences in order to assist new registrants in fully meeting their reporting obligations under the Act. The Department also has retained the practice of distributing copies of registration statements and supplements to interested departments and agencies of the Federal Government.

Respectfully submitted,

LISTING ACCORDING TO GEOGRAPHICAL AREA OR NATIONALITY
FIELD OF REGISTRANTS WHOSE STATEMENTS WERE IN ACTIVE STATUS AT ANY TIME DURING
CALENDAR YEAR 1983

- (T) Indicates termination of entire registration during 1984
- (t) Indicates termination of single foreign principal in a given geographical area during 1984

The dollar figure included for each registrant represents the total amount of money received in the United States in furtherance of the agency purpose by agents working on behalf of the foreign principal. This information is based on the registrant's reporting period rather than the calendar year.

The list is compiled alphabetically by country; however, it necessarily will include foreign principals which have no association with the government.

The format utilized in this part of the report sets forth the name, address and registration number of the registrant. Following this is set forth the identity of the foreign principal, the nature of the activities engaged in, the amount of monies received and the political propaganda disseminated, if any.
