Great, Maggie! Warn DeMint that if he calls from his AG cell, the caller ID is blocked so he won't know who is calling.

I was hoping Errical had followed up and she was not where I could ask. The AG is booked solid this afternoon but sometimes he gets free early between meetings and I just have him make waiting calls. What would be the best number to try DeMint if that happens? Over here, schedules just blow up for half days with no notice and I hate for him to get stuck in one of those 10 times rescheduled call modes!

Sen. DeMint was hoping to speak with Sec. Sessions at some point this week. Do you think there's any hope of that happening? I know things are so crazy.

Peggi,

I hope all is well with you. Its still taking some time getting used to the fact that you guys are no longer right across the street.

Please see below/attached for a list of U.S. Attorney candidates for most of the districts around the country compiled by the John Malcolm and the legal scholars in our Meese Center here at Heritage. DeMint asked me to send this on to General JBS.

As always, let me know if I can ever be of assistance.

Jim,

Per your request, the Meese Center has compiled the attached list of solid U.S. Attorney candidates for most districts around the country (where we did not have a solid recommendation, we have left it blank). I am assuming that you will want to forward this to General Sessions. I have also copied James Swanson, who may wish to forward it to Rod Rosenstein.

Please let me know if there is any follow-up that you would like us to do.

TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL:

Dear Jeff,

On behalf of the Conservative Action Project, a group of over 100 leaders of major national Conservative organizations, we invite you to speak at a Conservative Leadership Summit on Thursday, 18 May 2017. We will arrange your speaking time to fit your schedule, anytime between 9:30 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. The location is local to Washington DC, at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in McLean.

We would appreciate any topic you wish to provide us, perhaps your plans for the Department of Justice, the Trump Administration strategies for crime control, etc.

I would appreciate it if you would call me, whenever it is convenient, to discuss this (and also one other strategic matter). I am available anytime on my cell phone (b) (6), including over the weekend.

Thanks for considering this. Knowing how busy you are, I have tried not to bother you, but this is important and I believe the group could be helpful to you and the President.

Best wishes,

Ed

Let's try for 1. It will be with the two attorneys I mentioned earlier.

Thanks. What time works for you all on Friday? We have a conflict from 10-11 but early afternoon would be good.

Elizabeth- Hope this is helpful. Still working on exact names of participants. Will get back with you shortly on that. For now, you can say "senior litigators from the Civil Division." Hearing it will probably be August Flentje and Erez Reuveni. The filing deadline is March 26 "for now" according to the judge. Because of the short timeline we'd prefer to have the call this week if at all possible. Issues below:

-Private property rights (AB 450)

- Uniformity in business expectations (AB 450, some national outfit with business interests in CA or who represents such groups)
- Uniformity in investment from abroad (AB 450)
- Crime and recidivism and public safety (SB 54 this should be national, not unique to CA—groups like the NSA)
- Crime and recidivism and public safety, CA specific (SB 54)
- Detention contractors (AB 103, GEO)
- Border law enforcement (AB 450, SB 54) (union of former CBP officers or some such)

Elizabeth,

We now have 11 more days to file amicus briefs. The new due date is April 6. I thought I'd pass that along in case it encourages anyone to participate. Thank you,

Rachael
