GRAHAM: THE HORWITZ REPORT, McCABE, COMEY, ROSENSTEIN, GATES, HOW DID YOU MISS IT SO BADLY? HOW COULD YOU ISSUE FOUR WARRANTS AGAINST AN AMERICAN CITIZEN BASED ON INFORMATION THAT WAS UNRELIABLE. BUT HERE'S WHAT I WANT TO TELL THE PRESIDENT: I'M NOT GOING TO BE THE REPUBLICAN CHRISTOPHER STEELE. SO RUDY GIULIANI LAST NIGHT SAID HE'S GOT THE GOODS ON HUNTER BIDEN. I CALLED THE ATTORNEY GENERAL THIS MORNING, AND RICHARD BURR, THE CHAIRMAN OF THE INTEL COMMITTEE, AND THEY TOLD ME TAKE VERY CAUTIOUSLY ANYTHING COMING OUT OF THE UKRAINE AGAINST ANYBODY. SO WHAT I'LL DO IS I WILL GET TO THE BOTTOM OF HOW THE FISA WARRANT SYSTEM FAILED AND MAKE SURE WE REFORM IT, IT DOESN'T HAPPEN AGAIN, AND I THINK QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CONFLICT OF INTEREST REGARDING HUNTER BIDEN INTO UKRAINE NEED TO BE ASKED. THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAD WARNINGS, AND THEY IGNORED THE CONFLICT OF INTEREST. THE WHISTLEBLOWER EPISODE NEEDS TO BE INVESTIGATED BY RICHARD BURR, BUT IF RUDY GIULIANI HAS ANY INFORMATION COMING OUT OF UKRAINE, HE NEEDS TO TURN IT OVER TO THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE BECAUSE IT COULD BE RUSSIAN PROPAGANDA. >>

Brennan: LAST TIME YOU WERE ON THIS PROGRAM IN DECEMBER, YOU SAID GIULIANI SHOULD COME TO THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE WITH WHAT HE SAID WAS A SUITCASE FULL OF DOCUMENTS HE PICKED UP IN UKRAINE ON THE BIDENS. ARE YOU SAYING YOU DON'T WANT ANY PART OF THIS ANYMORE? >>

GRAHAM: AFTER TALKING TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL AND THE INTELLIGENCE CHAIRMAN THAT ANY DOCUMENTS COMING OUT OF UKRAINE AGAINST ANY AMERICAN, REPUBLICAN OR DEMOCRAT, NEED TO BE LOOKED AT BY THE INTELLIGENCE SERVICES, WHO HAS EXPERTISE, I DON'T, BECAUSE RUSSIA IS PLAYING US ALL LIKE A FIDDLE. AND CHRISTOPHER STEELE WAS PLAYED BY THE RUSSIANS. THAT STARTED THE RUSSIAN INVESTIGATION AGAINST PRESIDENT TRUMP. IT WAS ALL GARBAGE. >>

Brennan: ARE YOU SAYING RUDY GIULIANI IS GETTING PLAYED BY THE RUSSIANS?

GRAHAM: I DON'T KNOW. I'M SAYING THAT -- >>

Brennan: IT SOUNDS LIKE THAT'S WHAT YOU'RE SUGGESTING. >>

GRAHAM: I'M SAYING THAT ANYBODY WHO HAS ANY INFORMATION COMING FROM THE UKRAINE NEEDS TO TURN IT OVER TO THE INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY. AS TO SENATOR SCHUMER WANTING PARNAS IN THE AUDIENCE --

Brennan: ONE OF RUDY GIULIANI'S ASSOCIATES. >>

GRAHAM: YES. CROOKED AS A SNAKE. SCHIFF GETS CALLED BY A RUSSIAN HOAXSTER, I HAVE PHOTOS OF PRESIDENT TRUMP IN A COMPROMISING SITUATION. TO EVERY AMERICAN POLITICIAN, YOU SHOULD BE VERY CAUTIOUS ABOUT RECEIVING INFORMATION COMING OUT OF THE UKRAINE THAT MAY BE A HOAX. >>

Brennan: DOES THE PRESIDENT KNOW THAT? >>

GRAHAM: IF HE'S WATCHING THE SHOW, HERE'S WHAT I WOULD TELL HIM: I'LL GET TO THE BOTTOM OF THE FISA PROCESS. BECAUSE IT WAS AN ABUSE OF POWER OF THE DOJ, THE FBI. WE'LL MAKE SURE HUNTER BIDEN'S CONFLICT OF INTEREST WAS EXPLORED, BECAUSE IT'S LEGITIMATE. HOW COULD JOE BIDEN FIGHT CORRUPTION WHEN HIS SON IS SITTING ON THE BURISMA BOARD.

>> Brennan: CAN YOU CLARIFY. YOU SAID YOU TALKED TO ATTORNEY GENERAL BARR. >>

GRAHAM: THIS MORNING. >>

Brennan: HAS THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE BEEN ORDERED TO INVESTIGATE THE BIDENS? >>

GRAHAM: NO, THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE IS RECEIVING INFORMATION COMING OUT OF UKRAINE FROM RUDY -- >>

Brennan: ALREADY? >>

GRAHAM: HE TOLD ME THAT THEY HAD CREATED A PROCESS THAT RUDY COULD GIVE INFORMATION AND THEY WOULD SEE IF IT'S VERIFIED. RUDY GIULIANI IS A WELL-KNOWN MAN. HE'S A CRIME FIGHTER. HE'S LOYAL TO THE PRESIDENT. HE'S A GOOD LAWYER. WHAT I'M TRYING TO SAY TO THE PRESIDENT AND ANYBODY ELSE, THE RUSSIANS ARE STILL UP TO IT. DETERRENCE IS NOT WORKING SO LET'S LOOK AT HUNTER BIDEN'S CONFLICT. LET'S LOOK AT JOE BIDEN. VICE PRESIDENT BIDEN WHAT DID YOU DO WHEN THEY TOLD YOU YOUR SON WAS ON BURISMA'S BOARD? IT UNDERCUTS YOUR ABILITY TO FIGHT CORRUPTION? DID YOU TAKE IT SERIOUSLY IS? WHEN IT COMES TO DOCUMENTS COMING OUT OF THE UKRAINE THE REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS, BE VERY CAUTIOUS. TURN ANYTHING YOU HAVE OVER TO THE INTEL COMMITTEE? >>

One Hundred Sixteenth Congress

February 10, 2020

The Honorable William Barr
Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20530

Dear Attorney General Barr,

I write with serious concern regarding the Department of Justice's establishment of a so-called "intake process" to receive information from the President's personal attorney, Rudolph Giuliani. Yesterday, in a live interview, Senator Lindsey Graham stated that you informed him such a process exists, whereby Mr. Giuliani "could give information" and DOJ would "see if it's verified."¹ At a press conference this morning, you confirmed that DOJ has in fact established such a process to receive information concerning Ukraine, including "anything Mr. Giuliani might provide."²

As you know, the Department has formal, established channels by which to receive information and begin investigations.³ This new channel to Mr. Giuliani would seem to be a significant departure from those traditional channels.

Your announcement also represents a significant departure from your past statements about Mr. Giuliani. On September 25, the Department confirmed it had not been asked by the President to "contact Ukraine—on this or any other matter. The attorney general has not communicated with Ukraine—on this or any other subject. Nor has the attorney general discussed this matter, or anything relating to Ukraine, with Rudy Giuliani.⁴

To the extent that statement is no longer accurate, any official relationship between Mr. Giuliani and the Department raises serious questions about conflicts of interest—both for the Department, generally, and for you, specifically. As you know, the U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York has indicted two of Mr. Giuliani’s close associates—Lev Parnas and Igor Fruman. Mr. Parnas has confirmed that, as part of the scheme underlying those charges, he and Mr. Giuliani struck a deal with a Ukrainian oligarch who would provide information about former Vice President Joe Biden for the Trump campaign and, in exchange, his case would be “dropped at the DOJ.”⁵ He elaborated that this “was all connected. At the end of the day, the agenda was to make sure that the Ukrainians announced the Biden investigation.” Importantly, Mr. Parnas stated that you, Attorney General Barr, “had to have known everything” and “was basically on the team.”⁶

On January 20, Mr. Parnas submitted an official letter requesting your recusal from his case, in light of an alleged conflict of interest based on your personal involvement.⁷

Mr. Parnas’s allegations are confirmed, at least in part, by multiple witnesses who have testified that Mr. Giuliani ran his own influence campaign in Ukraine on behalf of the President. Mr. Giuliani’s own statements seem to confirm this, as well. On May 9, 2019, for example, Mr. Giuliani stated that his requests to Ukraine for an investigation of the Bidens were not part of U.S. “foreign policy,” but would be information “very, very helpful to [his] client,” President Trump.⁸

Whether or not you are in league with Mr. Giuliani and his associates, DOJ guidelines and regulations exist to protect you and the Department from even the appearance of a conflict of interest or any impropriety. Given your creation of a new “intake process” for Mr. Giuliani, it is all the more important that you provide a complete explanation for your decision to sidestep standard Department practice.

Accordingly, we ask that you answer the following questions by February 25, 2020:

- (1) Please describe the exact “intake process” by which any information from Mr. Giuliani or others may be received, documented, and reviewed.
- (2) Under what official guidelines or procedures was this intake process established? Who has reviewed this process? Has the Department’s legal counsel reviewed whether this process conflicts with any of the Department’s established guidelines, ethics rules, or internal procedures?
- (3) Have the Department’s ethics officials reviewed the process to ensure it does not create conflicts of interest?
- (4) You stated in your press conference this morning that any information received from Mr. Giuliani will be carefully scrutinized “by the Department and its intelligence community partners.” Please state which specific “intelligence community partners” will receive the information submitted to the intake process, and please confirm that all information received in the process will be provided to those partners.
- (5) What is the process for assessing the credibility of information received through the intake process?
- (6) In light of the allegations by Mr. Parnas against the Department and you personally, do you intend to recuse yourself from any and all communications relating to Ukraine? Have you done so already?
- (7) Mr. Parnas has suggested that you had at least multiple conversations with Mr. Giuliani prior to September 25. On September 25, the Department stated that you have not “discussed [any investigations], or anything relating to Ukraine, with Rudy Giuliani.” Please confirm whether the Department’s September 25 statement is accurate.
- (8) Please state the dates of any communications between the Department and Mr. Giuliani regarding information relating to Ukraine or investigations of the Bidens. Please state who else, if anyone, participated in those communications.
- (9) Has the Department shared any information it has received from Mr. Giuliani with President Trump or any other White House official? If so, please state the dates of any such communications, the participants in any such communications, and the nature of the information conveyed to the White House.

- (10) Have you discussed the intake process with President Trump or any other White House official? If so, please state the dates of any such communications, the participants in any such communications, and the nature of the discussion.
- (11) Has the Department initiated any informal or formal investigations as a result of the information Mr. Giuliani has provided?

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Jerrold Nadler
Chairman

MEMORANDUM FOR ALL UNITED STATES ATTORNEYS
ALL DEPARTMENT COMPONENT HEADS
ALL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY HEADS

FROM: THE DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL

SUBJECT: COORDINATION OF INVESTIGATIONS

As has been publicly reported, there currently are several distinct open investigations being handled by different U.S. Attorney's Offices and/or Department components that in some way potentially relate to Ukraine. In addition, new information potentially relating to Ukraine may be brought to the attention of the Department going forward. The Department has assigned Richard Donoghue, the U.S. Attorney in the Eastern District of New York (EDNY), who currently is handling certain Ukraine-related matters, to coordinate existing matters and to assess, investigate, and address any other matters relating to Ukraine, including the opening of any new investigations or the expansion of existing ones. Several of you already have heard from and spoken to U.S. Attorney Donoghue in connection with this role, and I appreciate the assistance you have provided to date.

In light of the above, if you are currently working on a Ukraine-related investigation, and have not already done so, please contact U.S. Attorney Donoghue to notify him of your matter and to consult with him regarding issues that reasonably could relate to your current investigations. Any and all new matters relating to Ukraine shall be directed exclusively to EDNY for investigation and appropriate handling. Unless otherwise directed, existing matters covered by this memorandum shall remain in the Offices and components where they currently are being handled, subject to ongoing consultation with EDNY. Any widening or expansion of existing matters shall require prior consultation with and approval by my office and EDNY.

We are implementing this policy to avoid duplication of efforts across Offices and components, to obviate the need for deconfliction at a later stage of potentially overlapping investigations, and to efficiently marshal the resources of the Department to address the appropriate handling of potentially relevant new information. As always, the Department will continue to pursue all credible, meritorious leads and investigations. Thank you for working closely with my office and EDNY to ensure that these matters are handled responsibly and appropriately.

Office of Legislative Affairs

Office of the Assistant Attorney General

Washington, D.C. 20530

FEB 18 2020

The Honorable Jerrold Nadler
Chairman
Committee on the Judiciary
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

This responds to your letter to the Attorney General dated February 10, 2020 regarding the process by which the Department of Justice (Department) receives information related to potential or ongoing matters involving Ukraine.

As you know, the Department typically does not provide information relating to ongoing matters. However, the Department is aware of news reports and public comments from Members of Congress that have significantly distorted the public's understanding of the Department's handling of such cases. Accordingly, we are pleased to provide the following information to clarify the record.

In light of several open matters being handled by different U.S. Attorney's Offices and Department components that in some way potentially relate to Ukraine—the existence of which have been publicly reported—Deputy Attorney General Rosen has assigned Richard Donoghue, the U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of New York, to assist in coordinating such matters. The Deputy Attorney General implemented this policy to avoid duplication of efforts across Department Offices and components, to facilitate information sharing, to ensure there are no conflicts among potentially overlapping matters, and to efficiently marshal the resources of the Department. To protect the integrity of ongoing matters, particularly with respect to unsolicited information offered to the Department, the Deputy Attorney General has also assigned Scott Brady, the U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania, to assist in the receipt, processing, and preliminary analysis of new information provided by the public that may be relevant to matters relating to Ukraine.

The Deputy Attorney General's efforts to coordinate matters potentially related to Ukraine, and to provide for the receipt of relevant information, does not circumvent the Department's established channels. The Department regularly assigns U.S. Attorneys to coordinate or focus on certain matters. Nor do these procedures grant any individual unique access to the Department. Indeed, any member of the public who has relevant information may contact the Department and make use of its intake process for Ukraine-related matters. As the Attorney General has stated, the Department “has the obligation to have an open door to anybody who wishes to provide us information that they think is relevant.”¹ Any individual who makes use of this process will be treated just like anyone else who brings information to the Department’s attention. All information provided through this process will be treated just like any other information provided to the Department. Indeed, such information will be carefully evaluated and vetted by the Department before investigatory steps, if any, are taken. The Department remains vigilant against the significant threat of disinformation. As always, the Department will reject information it finds to be non-credible while continuing to discharge its duty to pursue all meritorious leads and investigations.

Finally, your letter poses questions regarding a September 25, 2019 press statement by the Department. That statement remains accurate. As Attorney General Barr has repeatedly affirmed, he has not discussed matters relating to Ukraine with Rudolph Giuliani.

We hope this information is helpful. Please do not hesitate to contact this office if we may provide additional assistance regarding this or any other matter.

Sincerely,

Stephen E. Boyd
Assistant Attorney General
