Civil Action No. 16-2770 (ILG)(SMG)

~~PROPOSED~~ CONSENT DECREE
AND FINAL JUDGMENT

WHEREAS, the United States commenced this action against defendants TRENDS SERVICE IN KOMMUNIKATIE, B.V. (“Trends”), KOMMUNIKATIE SERVICE BUITENLAND, B.V. (“KSB”), and ERIK DEKKER, individually and as an officer of Trends and KSB, (“Dekker”) (collectively, “the Defendants”) by filing a Complaint in this Court;

WHEREAS, the Complaint states a claim for relief under the Fraud Injunction Statute, 18 U.S.C. § 1345;

WHEREAS, on June 1, 2016, having considered the ex parte application of the United States, the Court issued a temporary restraining order as to the Defendants;

WHEREAS, the United States and Defendants Trends, KSB, and Dekker wish to settle this action upon the following terms without further litigation;

WHEREAS, the parties hereby agree to fully and finally settle this matter without any admissions of liability or wrongdoing on the part of Defendants Trends, KSB, and Dekker;

WHEREAS, neither this Consent Decree and Final Judgment, nor the fact that the Defendants have agreed to a permanent injunction, shall constitute an admission of liability, be admitted into evidence or otherwise used against them in any other matter, save for a matter to enforce this Stipulated Consent Decree and Final Judgment; and

WHEREAS, the Defendants are not citizens or residents of the United States but wish to finally resolve the matters alleged in the Complaint without further litigation and therefore agree that this Court may enter and enforce this Consent Decree and Final Judgment against them in the United States, but specifically do not submit to this Court's jurisdiction (or the jurisdiction of any court in the United States) for any other purpose by entering into this Consent Decree and Final Judgment;

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1345 and the inherent power of this Court, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that:

Re: United States of America v. Trends Service in Kommunikatie, B.V., et al.
Civil Action Number 16-CV-2770 (ILG)(SMG)

Dear Sir/Madam:

We are writing to you because you previously mailed [merge field—money/bearer instrument/personal item and specific amount of remission] to a P.O. box owned by one of two Dutch companies, Trends Service in Kommunikatie, B.V. ("Trends") or Kommunikatie Service Buitenland, B.V. ("KSB"). We are returning your [merge field—money/bearer instrument/personal item and specific amount of remission].

The United States Department of Justice (DOJ) has filed civil charges against Trends, KSB, and their owner and director, Erik Dekker. The case, filed in the Eastern District of New York, alleged that the defendants engaged in a scheme to defraud victims through the mail. Specifically, DOJ alleged that the defendants have used their P.O. boxes in the Netherlands to receive payments from mass-mailing fraud schemes. The alleged schemes sent out solicitations that looked like personalized letters, when, in reality, hundreds of thousands of identical letters were mailed to potential victims. DOJ alleged that the solicitations falsely claimed that the recipient had won, or would soon win or receive, money or valuable prizes. Some solicitations instructed recipients to pay a fee in order to receive their winnings; others urged recipients to purchase goods or services based on false promises of guaranteed future lottery wins.

On June 1, 2016, the United States District Court made a probable cause determination that the defendants were engaging in the mail fraud scheme described above. Among other things, the Court ordered the U.S. Postal Service to detain mail sent to P.O. boxes in the Netherlands that were owned by the defendants.

On [insert date], the District Court entered a permanent injunction against the defendants, prohibiting them from participating in any scheme that uses the U.S. mail to send fraudulent solicitations or collect payments from victims. This injunction also requires USPS to return to consumers any currency, bearer instruments (such as money orders or travelers checks), or personal items that can be identified with a specific sender. Enclosed, please find the [merge field—money/bearer instrument/personal item and specific amount of remission] that was identified as belonging specifically to you.

Should you have any questions about this notice, please contact [merge field—name of USPS POC] with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service at [merge field—contact phone number]. For more information, visit [insert URL for press release website.]
