FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
(ATLANTA DIVISION)

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)

)	COMPLAINT TO REVOKE
RONNIE HAROLD PRICE,)	NATURALIZATION
Defendant.)

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The United States of America brings this civil action against Ronnie Harold Price to revoke his naturalized United States citizenship. This action under 8 U.S.C. § 1451(a) is based on Price’s criminal conduct prior to naturalizing for which he was charged and convicted after he naturalized. The nature of Price’s criminal conduct is such that, had it been disclosed during the naturalization process, he would have been disqualified for the privilege of citizenship. More specifically, Price was convicted in 2017 of felony Statutory Rape in violation of Georgia law for engaging in sexual intercourse with a female under age 16 who was not his spouse. Price turned 30 years old while engaged in these crimes.

Price had notice that his criminal conduct precluded his lawful naturalization through specific questions advanced on his naturalization application, during his naturalization interview, and at his final preparation to take the oath of citizenship. Throughout the process, Price gave false testimony and concealed and misrepresented facts that would have uncovered his unlawful conduct and consequent lack of eligibility to naturalize, thereby unlawfully procuring citizenship in violation of federal law. Under these circumstances, as set forth more fully below, this Court must revoke and set aside Price's naturalization and cancel his Certificate of Naturalization.

II. PARTIES, JURISDICTION, AND VENUE

1. This is an action filed under 8 U.S.C. § 1451(a) to revoke and set aside the decision admitting the Defendant, Ronnie Harold Price ("Price"), to United States citizenship and to cancel Price's Certificate of Naturalization No. 38006849.
2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1345 for this cause of action under 8 U.S.C. § 1451(a).
3. Venue is proper in this District under 8 U.S.C. § 1451(a) and 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because Price can be found in and resides in this District.
4. Plaintiff is the United States of America, suing on its own behalf.
5. Price is a native of Trinidad and Tobago who obtained his U.S. citizenship through naturalization.
6. Price's last-known address of residence is in DeKalb County, Georgia.

III. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

7. The affidavit of Ronald Dorman, Deportation Officer, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, United States Department of Homeland Security, showing good cause for this action as required by 8 U.S.C. 1451(a) is attached as Exhibit A.

Immigration History

8. Ronnie Harold Price was born in Trinidad and Tobago in 1985.
9. Price was admitted to the United States as a lawful permanent resident in July 2010.

Georgia State Criminal Conviction

10. Just over five years following his admission to the United States, for the period between September 29, 2015, and May 7, 2016, Price engaged in sexual intercourse with a female under age 16 who was not his spouse.
11. Based on this criminal conduct, Price was arrested and charged with felony Statutory Rape in violation of Georgia state law (O.C.G.A. 16-6-3). See Accusation at 2, State of Georgia v. Ronnie Harold Price, No. 17-FT-00273-6 (Ga. Superior Ct. May 10, 2017).

12. A true and correct copy of the Accusation, except for redactions of immaterial personally identifying information, is attached hereto as Exhibit B.
13. The Accusation at Count 2 charged that “between the 29th day of September, 2015, and the 7th day of May, 2016, [Price] did then and there unlawfully engage in sexual intercourse with [the victim], a female under the age of sixteen (16) years, not his spouse, contrary to the laws of said State, the peace, good order and dignity thereof.”
14. Price was convicted via guilty plea specifically to Count 2 of the Accusation. See Final Disposition: Felony with Probation Plea, State of Georgia v. Ronnie Harold Price, No. 17-FT-00273-6 (Ga. Superior Ct. May 10, 2017).
15. A true and correct copy of the Final Disposition: Felony with Probation Plea, except for redactions of immaterial personally identifying information, is attached hereto as Exhibit C.¹

16. Price was sentenced to a total of 20 years with the first six years served in confinement and the remainder served on probation, while receiving credit for time served since June 7, 2016.

Naturalization Proceedings

17. Coinciding with the commencement of his unlawful criminal acts, Price began the process of acquiring citizenship through naturalization.

18. Price signed and submitted to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services an N-400 Application for Naturalization ("N-400") on September 22, 2015.

19. A true and complete copy of the N-400, except for redactions of immaterial personally identifying information, is attached hereto at Exhibit D.

20. On his Naturalization Application, Price selected the box indicating "No" to the question "Have you ever committed, assisted in committing, or attempted to commit, a crime or offense for which you were not arrested?" Exh. D, Question 22.

21. By signing the N-400 Application for Naturalization, Price "certif[ied], under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that this application, and the evidence submitted with it, [was] all true and correct." Exh. D, Part 12.

22. Four months later, on January 7, 2016, Price appeared for an interview before U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services to determine his eligibility for naturalization. See Exh. D, Part 15.
23. At that interview, the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services officer placed Price under oath.
24. During that interview, Price said -- orally and under oath -- that he had never committed a crime for which he had not been arrested.
25. At the conclusion of that interview, Price swore, affirmed, and certified to the interviewing officer, by his signature on his N-400, that the contents of the N-400 Naturalization Application, including corrections, were "true and correct." See Exh. D, Part 15.
26. Three months later, on April 25, 2016, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services issued an N-445 Notice of Naturalization Oath Ceremony directing Price to appear at a Naturalization Oath Ceremony scheduled for April 29, 2016, to complete the naturalization process.
27. A true and correct copy of the N-445 Notice of Naturalization Oath Ceremony, except for redactions of immaterial personally identifying information, is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

28. The N-445 Notice of Naturalization Oath Ceremony directed Price to complete and sign a questionnaire and bring the questionnaire to the scheduled Naturalization Oath Ceremony.
29. On the questionnaire, Price selected the box indicating “No” in response to the question, “[s]ince your interview, have you knowingly committed any crime or offense, for which you have not been arrested?”
30. Price signed the N-445 Notice of Naturalization Oath Ceremony, “certify[ing] . . . that each answer [was] true and correct as of the date of [his] Naturalization Oath Ceremony” on April 29, 2016.
31. U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services awarded Price a Certificate of Naturalization on April 29, 2016.
32. A true and correct copy of the Certificate of Naturalization, except for redactions of immaterial personally identifying information, is attached hereto as Exhibit F.

IV. GOVERNING LAW

A. Congressionally Imposed Prerequisites to the Acquisition of U.S. Citizenship.

33. No individual has a right to naturalization “unless all statutory requirements are complied with.” United States v. Ginsberg, 243 U.S. 472, 474-75 (1917). Indeed, the Supreme Court has underscored that “[t]here must be strict compliance with all the congressionally imposed prerequisites to the acquisition of citizenship." Fedorenko v. United States, 449 U.S. 490, 506 (1981); see also id. (an individual "who seeks political rights as a member of the Nation can rightfully obtain them only upon the terms and conditions specified by Congress." (quoting Ginsberg, 243 U.S. at 474)).

34. Among other requirements, Congress has mandated that an individual may not naturalize unless that person "during all periods referred to in this subsection has been and still is a person of good moral character" See 8 U.S.C. § 1427(a)(3). The required statutory period for good moral character begins five years before the date the applicant files the application for naturalization, and it continues until the applicant takes the oath of allegiance and becomes a U.S. citizen. Id.; 8 C.F.R. § 316.10(a).
35. Although Congress has not specifically defined what constitutes good moral character for naturalization purposes, the Immigration and Nationality Act lists certain classes of applicants who cannot be found to have the requisite good moral character. 8 U.S.C. § 1101(f).
36. Congress explicitly has precluded individuals who give false testimony for the purpose of obtaining immigration benefits from being able to establish the good moral character necessary to naturalize. 8 U.S.C. § 1101(f)(6).

37. Individuals who commit unlawful acts adversely reflecting upon their moral character cannot meet the good moral character requirement, unless they prove that extenuating circumstances existed. See 8 C.F.R. § 316.10(b)(3)(iii); 8 U.S.C. § 1101(f).

38. Thus, an individual unlawfully procures naturalization if he or she commits unlawful acts during the statutory period, even if he or she is convicted of those crimes after being granted citizenship. See United States v. Jean-Baptiste, 395 F.3d 1190, 1193-94 (11th Cir. 2005), cert. denied, 546 U.S. 852 (2005).

B. The Denaturalization Statute

39. Recognizing that there are situations where an individual has naturalized despite failing to comply with all congressionally imposed prerequisites to the acquisition of citizenship or by concealing or misrepresenting facts that are material to the decision on whether to grant his or her naturalization application, Congress enacted 8 U.S.C. § 1451.

40. Under 8 U.S.C. § 1451(a), this Court must revoke an order of naturalization and cancel the individual's Certificate of Naturalization if his or her naturalization was either:

- i. illegally procured, or
- ii. procured by concealment of a material fact or by willful misrepresentation.

41. Failure to comply with any of the congressionally imposed prerequisites to the acquisition of citizenship renders the citizenship “illegally procured.”

Fedorenko, 449 U.S. at 506.

42. Naturalization was procured by concealment of a material fact or by willful misrepresentation, where: (1) the naturalized citizen misrepresented or concealed some fact during the naturalization process; (2) the misrepresentation or concealment was willful; (3) the fact was material; and (4) the naturalized citizen procured citizenship as a result of the misrepresentation or concealment. See Kungys v. United States, 485 U.S. 759, 767 (1988).

43. Where the government establishes that the defendant’s citizenship was procured illegally or by willful misrepresentation or concealment of material facts, “district courts lack equitable discretion to refrain from entering a judgment of denaturalization.” Fedorenko, 449 U.S. at 517.

V. CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT I ILLEGAL PROCUREMENT OF NATURALIZATION LACK OF GOOD MORAL CHARACTER (UNLAWFUL ACTS)

44. The United States re-alleges and incorporates by reference the factual and legal allegations contained in Sections II through IV of this Complaint.

45. To be eligible for naturalization, Price was required to establish that he was a person of good moral character during the relevant statutory period which, in his case, is from September 25, 2010 (five years immediately preceding the filing of his naturalization application) through April 29, 2016 (the date he became a naturalized citizen).

46. For purposes of naturalization, a person lacks good moral character if he “[c]omitted unlawful acts that adversely reflect upon [his] moral character.” 8 C.F.R. 316.10(b)(3)(iii).

47. Price was convicted via guilty plea of felony Statutory Rape under Georgia law.²

² Georgia law also treats and proscribes statutory rape as a misdemeanor in certain circumstances that did not apply to Price’s criminal case. See O.C.G.A. 16-6-3(c) (proscribing statutory rape as a misdemeanor when the victim is at least 14 but less than 16, and the person convicted is 18 or younger and no more than four years older than the victim). Price was older than 18 at the time of his crimes. See supra at 1 & ¶ 8.

48. Price's guilty plea was an admission to the existence of evidence sufficient to establish the required elements of criminal, felony Statutory Rape under O.C.G.A § 16-6-3 -- namely, that he engaged in sexual intercourse with a female under 16 years old who was not his spouse. See United States v. Booker, 136 F.4th 1005, 1014-15 (11th Cir. 2025) (describing an Alford plea as an "'intrinsic admission to each element of the crime'") (quoting Blohm v. Comm'r of Internal Revenue, 994 F.2d 1542, 1554 (11th Cir. 1993)); Quintanilla-Solis v. State, 885 S.E.2d 323 (Ga. Ct. App. 2023) (stating the elements of statutory rape under O.C.G.A. § 16-6-3).
49. Price's plea likewise reflects the trial court's determination and his acknowledgement there was a factual basis for the plea. See Booker, 136 F.4th at 1014-15 (discussing the nature of Alford pleas under Eleventh Circuit and Georgia law).
50. Price's unlawful criminal conduct involves sexual victimization of an underage girl that implicates and reflects adversely on his moral character. See generally Ashcroft v. Free Speech Coalition, 535 U.S. 234, 244-45 (2002) ("The sexual abuse of a child is a most serious crime and an act repugnant to the moral instincts of a decent people").
51. Price's felony Statutory Rape conviction was based on unlawful criminal conduct between September 29, 2015, and May 7, 2016, a timeframe that coincides with the relevant statutory period during which he was required to establish and maintain good moral character.

52. Because Price committed unlawful criminal acts that impugned his moral character during the relevant statutory period, he was not a person of good moral character as required to naturalize under 8 U.S.C. 1427(a).

53. Because Price lacked the good moral character required to naturalize, he illegally procured his citizenship, and this Court must revoke and set aside the April 29, 2016 order admitting Price to citizenship and cancel the certificate of naturalization issued the same date.

COUNT II
ILLEGAL PROCUREMENT OF NATURALIZATION
LACK OF GOOD MORAL CHARACTER
(FALSE TESTIMONY)

54. The United States re-alleges and incorporates by reference the factual and legal allegations contained in Sections II through IV of this Complaint.

55. To be eligible for naturalization, Price was required to establish that he was a person of good moral character during the relevant statutory period which, in his case, is from September 25, 2010 (five years immediately preceding the filing of his naturalization application) through April 29, 2016 (the date he became a naturalized citizen). “This includes the period between the examination and the administration of the oath of allegiance.”

8 C.F.R. § 316.10(a)(1).

56. A person generally lacks good moral character if he, “during the period for which good moral character is required to be established is, or was, . . . one who has given false testimony for the purpose of obtaining any benefits under this chapter.” 8 U.S.C. 1101(f)(6); see also 8 C.F.R. § 316.10(b)(2)(vi) (requiring a finding of a lack of good moral character based on “false testimony to obtain any benefit from the Act, if the testimony was made under oath or affirmation and with an intent to obtain an immigration benefit” regardless of materiality).

57. Following the submission of his naturalization application, Price was interviewed by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services on January 7, 2016, at which time he was placed under oath and questioned about his application.

58. In answering the adjudicating officer’s questions, Price provided false testimony -- statements made under oath (see Kungys v. United States, 485 U.S. 759, 780 (1988)) -- for the purpose of obtaining naturalization, an immigration benefit.

59. While under oath at his naturalization interview, Price said that he had never committed a crime for which he had not been arrested, thereby reaffirming his earlier written answer to Question 22 of his N-400.
60. Price's felony Statutory Rape conviction was based on criminal activity between September 29, 2015, and May 7, 2016, a timeframe that includes January 7, 2016 – the date of his naturalization interview.
61. Price's affirmative, under-oath statement -- asserted during his interview for the purpose of ensuring he would be naturalized -- falsely represented that he had never been involved in any criminal activity during the period relevant to ascertain his eligibility for the privilege of U.S. citizenship.
62. Because Price provided false testimony under oath for the purpose of obtaining naturalization, he was precluded under 8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(6) from demonstrating that he had the good moral character necessary to become a naturalized U.S. citizen under 8 U.S.C. 1427(a)(3). See Kungys 485 U.S. at 780 (stating that 1101(f)(6)'s primary purpose is to identify lack of good moral character, emphasizing that the false testimony need not be material).
63. Because Price lacked the good moral character required to naturalize, he illegally procured his citizenship, and this Court must revoke and set aside the April 29, 2016 order admitting Price to citizenship and cancel the certificate of naturalization issued the same date.

COUNT III
PROCUREMENT OF U.S. CITIZENSHIP BY CONCEALMENT OF A MATERIAL FACT OR WILLFUL MISREPRESENTATION

64. The United States re-alleges and incorporates by reference the factual and legal allegations in Sections II through IV of this Complaint.

65. Under 8 U.S.C. 1451(a), this Court must revoke Price's naturalization and cancel his Certificate of Naturalization because he procured his naturalization by concealment of a material fact and by willful misrepresentation.

66. As set forth above, throughout the naturalization process, Price concealed his criminal activity and willfully misrepresented that he had never committed a crime or offense for which he had not been arrested.

67. Price further concealed and willfully misrepresented criminal activity material to his eligibility for naturalization on two additional occasions:

- a. During his January 7, 2016 interview when he swore, affirmed, and certified under penalty of perjury, through his signature on Part 15 of his naturalization application, that the contents of his naturalization application were true and correct;

b. On April 29, 2016, the day of his Naturalization Oath Ceremony, when he completed, signed, and submitted a questionnaire answering “no” to Question 3 asking, “[s]ince your interview, have you knowingly committed any crime or offense, for which you have not been arrested,” certifying that his answer was “true and correct.”³

68. Price’s concealment and willful misrepresentations were material to his naturalization because a disclosure about his sexual intercourse with a female under age 16, when that activity occurred, and any subsequent acknowledgment that he had failed to disclose or lied about his criminal activity, would have had a natural or reasonable tendency to influence U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services’ decision whether to approve the naturalization application because such information directly related to statutory and regulatory criteria that USCIS is required to consider when deciding whether to grant or deny a naturalization application. See Kungys, 485 U.S. at 767.

³ Price dated the naturalization questionnaire April 29, 2015 – a date that preceded the criminal conduct that ultimately led to his felony Statutory Rape conviction, his naturalization application, and the naturalization examination and proceedings that followed. See Exh. E. While also indicative of an intent to conceal or misrepresent, the government currently is not alleging as much as part of this Complaint.

69. Price procured his naturalization because of his concealment and misrepresentations. Had Price disclosed his criminal activity involving sexual intercourse with a female under 16 years of age, he would have revealed facts making him ineligible for naturalization, and USCIS would not have approved his application or administered the oath of allegiance.

70. Price thus procured his naturalization by concealment and willful misrepresentation of material facts, and this Court therefore must revoke his naturalization pursuant to 8 U.S.C 1451(a).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, the United States of America, requests:

2. A declaration that Price procured his naturalization by willful misrepresentation and concealment of material facts;

RONNIE HAROLD PRICE,)

I, Ronald Dorman, declare under penalty of perjury as follows:

1. I am a Deportation Officer with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, a component of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”). In this capacity, I have access to the official records of DHS, including the immigration file of Ronnie Harold Price (“PRICE”), Alien Number [REDACTED]-548.

2. I have examined records relating to PRICE, including, but not limited to, his immigration files. Based upon my review of these records, I state that the information set forth in this Affidavit of Good Cause is true and correct.

3. Based on the facts and law contained herein, good cause exists to institute proceedings pursuant to section 340(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (“INA”), 8 U.S.C. § 1451(a), to revoke the U.S. citizenship of PRICE and to cancel his Certificate of Naturalization No. [REDACTED].

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

4. PRICE was born in Trinidad and Tobago on [REDACTED] 1985.

5. On or about July 3, 2006, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (“USCIS”) received a Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, submitted on PRICE’s behalf by his U.S. citizen father pursuant to section 201(b) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. § 1151(b).

6. On or about August 27, 2009, the U.S. Department of State received a Form DS-230, Application for Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration, submitted by PRICE. It was approved on or about April 29, 2010, and PRICE’s status was adjusted to that of a lawful permanent resident (visa class IR-2), pursuant to section 245 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. § 1255.

7. On or about July 20, 2010, at Houston, Texas, PRICE was admitted to the United States as a permanent resident by U.S. Customs and Border Protection.

8. On or about September 25, 2015, USCIS received a Form N-400, Application for Naturalization (“Form N-400” or “naturalization application”), submitted by PRICE pursuant to section 316(a) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. § 1427(a).

9. On his naturalization application, PRICE checked the box marked “No” in response to Question 22 in Part 11., which asked: “Have you ever committed, assisted in committing, or attempted to commit, a crime or offense for which you were not arrested?”

10. On or about September 22, 2015, PRICE signed his naturalization application under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, thereby certifying that the application, and the evidence he submitted with it, were all true and correct.

11. On or about January 7, 2016, PRICE appeared in person before a USCIS Adjudications Officer for an interview to determine his eligibility for naturalization. At the beginning of the interview, the Officer placed PRICE under oath.

12. At the conclusion of the interview, PRICE again signed his naturalization application, in the presence of the Officer, swearing and certifying under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that he knew that the contents of his application, subscribed by him, including the two numbered changes¹ made at his request, and that his amended application was true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

13. Based on his written responses on the Form N-400, documentation provided in support of the application, and his testimony at the naturalization interview, USCIS approved PRICE's application for naturalization on or about April 25, 2016.

14. On or about April 29, 2016, PRICE completed a Form N-445, Notice of Naturalization Oath Ceremony ("Form N-445"). On his Form N-445, PRICE checked the box marked "No" in response to Question 3, which asked: "Since your interview, have you knowingly committed any crime or offense, for which you have not been arrested?"

15. PRICE signed the Form N-445 on April 29, 2016, thereby certifying that the answers he provided were made by him and that they were true and correct.

16. Based on the written statements he made on his Form N-400, documentation provided in support of the Form N-400, his testimony under oath during the naturalization interview, and his statements on the Form N-445, PRICE was permitted to take the oath of allegiance and he became a naturalized U.S. citizen on April 29, 2016. The naturalization ceremony was conducted by USCIS in Atlanta, Georgia. The same day, USCIS issued PRICE Certificate of Naturalization No. [REDACTED].

17. As set forth below, PRICE illegally procured his naturalization because he could not have established that he was a person of good moral character on account of his false testimony under oath during his naturalization proceedings and his commission of unlawful acts for which he was later convicted that reflect a lack of good moral character. PRICE additionally procured his naturalization by concealment of a material fact and willful misrepresentation—a separate ground for denaturalization under 8 U.S.C. § 1451(a).

ILLEGAL PROCUREMENT OF NATURALIZATION

18. As an applicant for naturalization pursuant to section 316(a) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. § 1427(a), PRICE was required to prove that he was a person of good moral character from September 25, 2010, five years before he filed his application for naturalization, until April 29, 2016, the date on which he was admitted to U.S. citizenship (the “statutory period”).

I. PRICE illegally procured his naturalization because he committed unlawful acts that adversely reflected on his moral character, which precluded him from establishing the requisite good moral character to naturalize.

19. PRICE was statutorily precluded from establishing the good moral character necessary to naturalize because he committed unlawful acts during the statutory period that adversely reflected on his moral character.

20. Absent extenuating circumstances, an applicant for naturalization is precluded from establishing good moral character if, during the statutory period, he or she commits unlawful acts that adversely reflect on his or her moral character. See 8 U.S.C. § 1101(f); 8 C.F.R. § 316.10(b)(3)(iii); see also United States v. Jean-Baptiste, 395 F.3d 1190, 1194 (11th Cir. 2005) (holding that a naturalized citizen, who committed an offense during the statutory period prior to taking the oath of allegiance but who was not indicted, arrested, and convicted until after naturalization, was subject to denaturalization for lack of good moral character).

21. Whether unlawful acts affect the applicant’s moral character is a case-by-case determination, considering the standards of the average citizen in the applicant’s community of residence.

22. As described above, on or about May 8, 2017, in the Superior Court of Georgia in Gwinnett County, PRICE pleaded guilty to one count of statutory rape, a felony, in violation of Georgia Code § 16-6-3. The same day, the court entered judgement against PRICE and sentenced him to a term of imprisonment of six years for that offense.

23. The count to which PRICE pleaded guilty, and for which the Court entered judgment against him, was committed during the statutory period.

24. Committing statutory rape, i.e., unlawfully engaging in sexual intercourse with any person under the age of 16 years, is an unlawful act that adversely reflects on an individual's moral character, as measured against the standards of the average citizen in the community of residence.

25. The crime of statutory rape in violation of Georgia Code § 16-6-3 is a felony, punishable by up to 20 years of imprisonment per violation and is an unlawful act that adversely reflected on PRICE's moral character as contemplated by 8 U.S.C. § 1101(f) and 8 C.F.R. § 316.10(b)(3)(iii).

26. There were no extenuating circumstances that could have mitigated the effect of PRICE's actions on his ability to establish good moral character.

27. Because PRICE committed an unlawful act adversely affecting his moral character during the statutory period, he is precluded from establishing the requisite good moral character to naturalize. Consequently, he illegally procured his naturalization.

II. PRICE illegally procured his naturalization because he provided false testimony under oath, which precluded him from establishing the requisite good moral character to naturalize.

28. PRICE could not have established that he was a person of good moral character because he provided false testimony under oath during the statutory period for the purpose of obtaining his naturalization.

29. An applicant shall be found to lack good moral character if, during the statutory period, the applicant gave false testimony under oath for the purpose of obtaining an immigration benefit, including naturalization. See 8 U.S.C. § 1101(f)(6); 8 C.F.R. § 316.10(b)(2)(vi).

30. As set forth above, during the statutory period, PRICE provided false testimony for the purpose of obtaining naturalization when he swore under oath during his January 7, 2016, naturalization interview that he had never committed a crime or offense for which he had not been arrested, and that all of his responses on his amended N-400 were true and correct. From at least on or about September 29, 2015, to the date of his naturalization interview on January 7, 2016, PRICE had knowingly committed criminal acts constituting the crime described above for which he was later convicted.

31. Because PRICE provided false testimony under oath for the purpose of obtaining his naturalization, he was barred under 8 U.S.C. § 1101(f)(6) from showing that he had the good moral character necessary to become a naturalized U.S. citizen. Consequently, he illegally procured his naturalization.

PROCUREMENT OF NATURALIZATION BY CONCEALMENT OF A MATERIAL FACT OR WILLFUL MISREPRESENTATION

32. PRICE's U.S. citizenship must be revoked and his Certificate of Naturalization canceled because he procured his naturalization by willful misrepresentation and concealment of material facts.

33. An individual who procures naturalization through willful misrepresentation or concealment of material facts is subject to revocation of naturalization. 8 U.S.C. § 1451(a).

34. PRICE concealed and misrepresented the material fact of his criminal activity during the naturalization process.

35. As set forth above, throughout the naturalization process, PRICE willfully misrepresented and concealed that he had committed the crime of statutory rape in violation of Georgia Code § 16-6-3. Specifically, PRICE swore under penalty of perjury on his naturalization application and during his naturalization interview that he had never committed a crime or offense for which he had not been arrested, despite knowing that this representation was false and misleading. Accordingly, PRICE made this misrepresentation willfully.

36. PRICE's misrepresentations and omissions were material to determining his eligibility for naturalization because the disclosure of his criminal conduct would have had the natural tendency to influence USCIS's decision to approve his naturalization application. In fact, as set forth above, PRICE's criminal conduct precluded him from establishing the requisite good moral character to naturalize. Had PRICE disclosed the truth about his criminal conduct, his ineligibility for naturalization would have been disclosed, and USCIS would not have approved his application or administered the oath of allegiance.

37. PRICE thus procured his naturalization by willfully misrepresenting and concealing material facts and his naturalization must be revoked under 8 U.S.C. § 1451(a).

CONCLUSION

38. Based on the facts outlined in the foregoing paragraphs, good cause exists to institute proceedings pursuant to section 340(a) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. § 1451(a), to revoke PRICE's citizenship, and to cancel his Certificate of Naturalization.

39. PRICE currently resides at [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. Therefore, venue is proper in this district.
