SECOND SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

INTRODUCTION

At all times relevant to this Second Superseding Indictment, unless otherwise indicated:

1. The New Generation Cartel of Jalisco (otherwise known as the "Cartel de Jalisco Nueva Generacion," and hereinafter "CJNG") is a dominant force in the trade of illegal narcotics in the Mexican States of Jalisco, Colima, Veracruz and elsewhere.

2. The CJNG maintains a close alliance with "Los Cuinis." Los Cuinis works closely with and shares in the illegal narcotic trade assets with CJNG.

3. The CJNG and Los Cuinis are responsible for transporting multi-ton quantities of cocaine from Colombia and other South American countries to Mexico. The CJNG and Los Cuinis facilitate the transportation of the cocaine to the United States, and other destinations. In addition, the CJNG and Los Cuinis are responsible for the distribution of multi-kilogram quantities of methamphetamine to the United States and other destinations. The CJNG and Los Cuinis also facilitated the collection, transportation, and delivery of narcotics proceeds, from the United States to Mexico.

4. The CJNG and Los Cuinis carry out numerous acts of violence, including murders, assaults, kidnappings, assassinations, and acts of torture. In carrying out these acts of violence, they possess, carry, use and brandish firearms. The CJNG and Los Cuinis commit these acts of violence for a variety of reasons, including but not limited to:

- a. Promoting and enhancing the prestige, reputation and position of the CJNG and Los Cuinis with respect to rival criminal organizations, including other drug trafficking organizations;
- b. Preserving, protecting and expanding the power, territory and criminal ventures of the CJNG and Los Cuinis;
- c. Keeping victims and rivals in fear of the CJNG and Los Cuinis and its members, associates and law enforcement;
- d. Enforcing discipline amongst its members and associates by punishing disloyalty and failure;
- e. Enriching the members and associates of the CJNG and Los Cuinis through criminal activity, including narcotics trafficking; and
- f. Imposing retribution to elected and public officials and others for failing to provide services to the CJNG and Los Cuinis.

5. The defendant Nemesio Oseguera Cervantes, also known as “El Mencho” and “Ruben Oseguera-Cervantes” is the principal leader of CJNG.

COUNT ONE

(Continuing Criminal Enterprise)

6. The allegations contained in paragraphs one through five are realleged and incorporated as if fully set forth in this paragraph.

7. From in or about January 2000, and continuing thereafter, up to and including the date of the filing of this Second Superseding Indictment, both dates being approximate and inclusive, the defendant NEMESIO OSEGUERA CERVANTES, also known as “El Mencho” and “Ruben Oseguera-Cervantes” together with others, both known and unknown, did knowingly and intentionally engage in a continuing criminal enterprise, in that the defendant NEMESIO OSEGUERA CERVANTES committed violations of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 952(a), 959(a), 960 and 963, including Violations One through Five set forth below, which violations were part of a continuing series of violations of those statutes undertaken by the defendant NEMESIO OSEGUERA CERVANTES in concert with five or more other persons, with respect to whom the defendant NEMESIO OSEGUERA CERVANTES occupied a supervisory and management position, and was a principal administrator, organizer and leader of the continuing criminal enterprise, and from which continuing series of violations the defendant NEMESIO OSEGUERA CERVANTES obtained substantial income and resources, in excess of $10 million in gross receipts in a twelve month period for the manufacture, importation and distribution of cocaine, marijuana and methamphetamine. Each violation involved at least 300 times the quantity of a substance described in Section 841(b)(1)(B) of Title 21, United States Code, to wit: 150 kilograms or more of a substance containing cocaine and at least 300 times the quantity of a substance described in Section 841(b)(1)(B) of Title 21, United States code, to wit: 15 kilograms or more of a substance containing methamphetamine. The continuing series of violations, as defined by Title 21, United States Code, Section 848(c), included Violations One through Five set forth below:

(Use of a Firearm, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 924(c)(1)(A)(i), 924(c)(1)(A)(ii) and 924(c)(1)(B)(ii).)

CRIMINAL FORFEITURE ALLEGATION AS TO COUNTS ONE AND TWO

21. The United States hereby gives notice to the defendant that upon conviction of the Title 21 offenses alleged in Counts One and Two of this Second Superseding Indictment, the Government will seek forfeiture in accordance with Title 21, United States Code, Sections 853(a), of all property constituting or derived from any proceeds the defendant obtained directly or indirectly as a result of the alleged Title 21 violations, and all property used or intended to be used in any manner or part to commit and to facilitate the commission of such offenses.

22. Said property includes, but is not limited to:

A sum of money equal to all proceeds the defendant obtained directly or indirectly as a result of the Title 21 offenses charged in this Indictment, and all property used or intended to be used to facilitate the offenses, that is, not less than a sum of money representing the amount of funds involved in the offenses, and all interest and proceeds traceable thereto; in that such sum, in aggregate, was received by the defendant in exchange for the distribution of controlled substances or is traceable thereto. If any of the above-described forfeitable property, as a result of any act or omission of the defendant –

- (a) cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;
- (b) has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third person;
- (c) has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the Court;
- (d) has been substantially diminished in value; or
- (e) has been commingled with other property which cannot be subdivided without difficulty;

it is the intent of the United States, pursuant to 21, U.S.C. § 853(p) to seek forfeiture of any other property of the defendant up to the value of the above forfeitable property.

(Criminal Forfeiture, in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 853 and 970.)

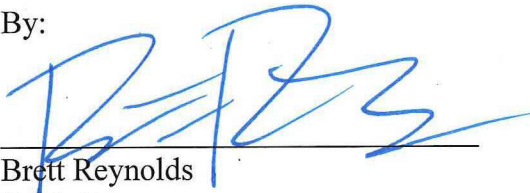

A TRUE BILL.
