AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF A CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

I, Jonathan Eades, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

AGENT BACKGROUND AND INTRODUCTION

1. I am a Special Agent with Homeland Security Investigations (“HSI”) and have been so employed since October 2001. As a Special Agent, my responsibilities include the investigation of financial crimes under the Money Laundering Control Act and the Bank Secrecy Act and related offenses. I have a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science from The Citadel. I completed the Criminal Investigator Training Program at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center in Glynco, Georgia, followed by the Customs Basic Enforcement School in 2002. Since my employment with HSI, I have received extensive training and relevant experience in conducting financial investigations that includes the analysis of individual and business records such as journals, ledgers, bank accounts, invoices, receipts and other records evidencing violations of the Money Laundering Control Act and related financial crimes. Prior to my Federal Law Enforcement career, I was a state certified Police Officer in South Carolina for approximately ten years where I rose to the rank of Detective. Currently, I am assigned to the Financial Crimes investigation group for HSI in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

2. I am familiar with the facts and circumstances set forth below from my personal participation in the investigation, including my review of text messages, voice messages, email communications, bank records, other documents, and conversations with other law enforcement officers and other individuals. Because this affidavit is being submitted for the limited purpose of establishing probable cause, it does not include all the facts that I have learned during the course of my investigation. Where the contents of documents and the actions, statements, and conversations of others are reported herein, they are reported in substance and in part, unless noted otherwise.

3. Your affiant has participated in a criminal investigation into ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC, a Bolivian citizen who is believed to be currently located in Florida, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL, a Bolivian citizen currently located in Florida, BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN, a U.S. citizen and resident of Florida, LUIS BERKMAN, a U.S. citizen and resident of Georgia, and PHILIP LICHTENFELD, a U.S. citizen and resident of Argentina who is currently located in Florida. Based on the evidence gathered through this investigation, there is probable cause to believe that from in or around November 2019 through in or around April 2020, ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL, BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN, LUIS BERKMAN, and PHILIP LICHTENFELD, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(h), did knowingly and willfully combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with each other and with others to knowingly transport, transmit, and transfer, and attempt to transport, transmit, and transfer, a monetary instrument and funds from a place outside of the United States to and through a place in the United States, and from a place in the United States to and through a place outside of the United States, with the intent to promote the carrying on of one or more specified unlawful activities, namely: (i) a felony violation of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (“FCPA”), Title 15, United States Code, Section 78dd-2, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(c)(7)(D); and (ii) an offense against a foreign nation involving bribery of a public official and public servant, in violation of the Penal Code of the Plurinational State of Bolivia (“Bolivia”), pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(c)(7)(B)(iv).

4. SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL, BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN, LUIS BERKMAN, and PHILIP LICHTENFELD are charged with violating 18 U.S.C. § 1956(h) in a separate Criminal Complaint. See Complaint (Dkt. No. 1), United States v. Luis Berkman et al., 21-06320-MJ-AOV (S.D. Fla. May 20, 2021).

Your affiant is aware that the FCPA was enacted by Congress for the purpose of, among other things, making it unlawful to act corruptly in furtherance of an offer, promise, authorization, or payment of money or anything of value, directly or indirectly, to a foreign official for the purpose of influencing a foreign official, inducing a foreign official to take or omit to take certain acts, and securing an improper advantage in order to obtain or retain business for or with, or direct business to any, person. 15 U.S.C. §§ 78dd-1, et seq.

6. The FCPA prohibits “domestic concerns”—which include (A) any individual who is a citizen, national, or resident of the United States and (B) companies that are incorporated in the United States or have their principal place of business in the United States—or any officer, director, employee or agent of such domestic concern or stockholder acting on behalf of such domestic concern, from making use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce corruptly in furtherance of an offer, payment, promise to pay, or authorization of the payment of any money, or offer, gift, promise to give, or authorization of the giving of anything of value, to a foreign official or to a person, while knowing that all or part of such money or thing of value would be and had been offered, given, or promised to a foreign official, for purposes of (i) influencing acts or decisions of such foreign official in his official capacity; (ii) inducing such foreign official to do or omit to do acts in violation of the lawful duty of such official; (iii) securing any improper advantage; or (iv) inducing such foreign official to use his influence with a foreign government or agencies or instrumentalities thereof to affect or influence acts or decisions of such government or agencies or instrumentalities, in order to assist the domestic concern to obtain or retain business for or with, or direct business to, any person. 15 U.S.C. §§ 78dd-2(a) and (h)(1).

THE BRIBERY AND MONEY LAUNDERING SCHEME

25. From at least in or around November 2019 through at least in or around April 2020, ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL, Co-Conspirator 1, and others used their official positions to assist Intermediary Company with obtaining government contracts to supply non-lethal weaponry and tactical equipment to the Bolivian Ministry of Defense and to receive payment from the Bolivian Ministry of Defense.

26. In or about November 2019, BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN, the owner of Intermediary Company, and his father, LUIS BERKMAN, sought to win a contract from the Bolivian government to act as an intermediary for the Bolivian Ministry of Defense's purchase of tear gas and other non-lethal equipment from Brazil Company.

27. On or about November 16, 2019, BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN sent a WhatsApp text message to SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL requesting a letter from the Bolivian government stating that a competitor of Intermediary Company (the "Competitor") had been "banned" from selling Brazil Company's tear gas to the Bolivian government: "Uncle, this [Competitor] guy is telling the [Brazil Company] people he still has an entry with the government to be able to sell the gases. The only means of ensuring support for [Brazil Company] is for a letter to be sent to [Competitor] stating that it has been banned and for a copy to be sent to me so I can confirm it with [Brazil Company]. The issue is that [Competitor] has sold a lot of gases on behalf of [Brazil Company] over the last three years, so they're obviously being very careful as to how they try to take the matter forward." (Translated from Spanish).¹

28. On or about November 16, 2019, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL, using email address rodrigo@[XX].com, sent an email to BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN at bryanberkman@[XX].com (the "Bryan Berkman Personal Email Account"), attaching a letter from ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC, drafted on official Bolivian Ministry of Government letterhead and addressed to BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN, in his capacity as a representative of Intermediary Company. ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC's letter stated that "all the suppliers of the previous government regime are vetoed for the provision and sale” of non-lethal weaponry, and requested that Intermediary Company (“your company”), bring quotes for the non-lethal weapons “as soon as possible.”

29. On or about December 19, 2019, Intermediary Company executed a contract with the Bolivian Ministry of Defense to supply tear gas and other non-lethal equipment in exchange for approximately $5,649,137 (the “Tear Gas Contract”). BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN signed the Tear Gas Contract on behalf of Intermediary Company.

30. A purchase order dated December 17, 2019, shows that Intermediary Company purchased the equipment required under the Tear Gas Contract from Brazil Company for approximately $3,357,735, which left Intermediary Company with a profit of approximately $2,291,402, over 40%.

31. On or about December 31, 2019, BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN, using the Bryan Berkman Personal Email Account, sent an email to SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL’s email address ending in @mingobierno.gob.bo (the “Mendez Official Email Account”), attaching a letter “requested by the Ministry of Defense” (translated from Spanish) confirming an extension of the date by which Intermediary Company had to provide its first delivery of equipment to the Ministry of Defense pursuant to the Tear Gas Contract until January 10, 2020.

32. On or about January 13, 2020, the Bolivian Ministry of Defense caused the Central Bank of Bolivia to wire transfer approximately $5,649,137 from a bank account at the Central Bank of Bolivia in Bolivia to the 2425 Account at U.S. Bank 1 belonging to Intermediary Company in Florida, in connection with the Tear Gas Contract (the “January 13, 2020, Wire Transfer”).

33. That same day, January 13, 2020, ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC met with BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN in Miami, Florida. Travel records show that ARTURO

CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC entered the United States on January 11, 2020. On January 13, 2020, at approximately 2:35 p.m., BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN texted a friend that he couldn't speak on the phone because he was "with the fucking SECRETARY OF STATE . . . [of] Bolivia." At approximately the same time, BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN received numerous text messages from LUIS BERKMAN about where to wire the proceeds of the Tear Gas Contract.

34. Later that same day, ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC used his Bolivian passport to open the 8084 Account in his name at the Doral, Florida location of U.S. Bank 3. ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC opened the account with a $10,000 cash deposit. He returned to Bolivia that evening.

35. Representatives of U.S. Bank 1 subsequently raised questions about the January 13, 2020, Wire Transfer.

36. On or about January 15, 2020, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL sent an email using the Mendez Official Email Account to a representative of U.S. Bank 1, which held the 2425 Account for Intermediary Company, copying the Bryan Berkman Personal Email Account, and stating, "I am writing from the Bolivian Ministry of Government to request to be contacted in case further information is required in relation to the contract signed by my country's government agencies with [Intermediary Company]." (Translated from Spanish). SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL signed the email, "Rodrigo Méndez Mendizabal, MINISTRY OF GOVERNMENT." (Translated from Spanish).

37. On or about January 29, 2020, U.S. Bank 1 declined to accept the January 13, 2020, Wire Transfer and returned the approximately $5,649,137 to the Central Bank of Bolivia.

38. On or about February 11, 2020, LUIS BERKMAN forwarded to BRYAN BERKMAN and PHILIP LICHTENFELD two text messages that appear related to the payment to Intermediary Company pursuant to the Tear Gas Contract. LUIS BERKMAN wrote to BRYAN BERKMAN, “This is between Arturo and me.” LUIS BERKMAN wrote to PHILIP LICHTENFELD, “This I sent to Arturo”:

- a. [Luis:] “Thanks Brother. Help me with the payment please.”
 - b. [Murillo:] “We’re all going to meet at the Ministry of the Economy at 7.30 tomorrow and the go-ahead will be give[n].” (Translated from Spanish.)
39. On or about March 13, 2020, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL sent a WhatsApp text message to LUIS BERKMAN and PHILIP LICHTENFELD containing a screenshot of a text message conversation between SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL and another Bolivian official in the Ministry of Government relating to what your affiant believes to be a reference to a wire payment from the Central Bank of Bolivia to Intermediary Company. Specifically, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL asked the other official if he had “news.” The other official replied “Nothing . . . but they are sons of bitches. They are not answering me any more . . . We have 45 min left. Until 6:30. So that [B]anco [C]entral can make the deposit. But Economia [the Ministry of Economy] doesn’t want to do it.” (Translated from Spanish).²

40. On or about March 17, 2020, members of the conspiracy and others caused a transfer of approximately $3,976,902 to be made from a bank account at the Central Bank of

² LUIS BERKMAN had recruited PHILIP LICHTENFELD into the conspiracy to assist with several financial aspects of the Tear Gas Contract. On or about January 4, 2020, LUIS BERKMAN sent a WhatsApp text message to BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN referring to PHILIP LICHTENFELD’s involvement in the scheme: “Philip is with us ($500K fee). I’ll talk to you tomorrow.” (Translated from Spanish). Based on the evidence collected in this investigation, your affiant believes that PHILIP LICHTENFELD not only helped to coordinate bribe payments to ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL and Co-Conspirator 1, but also assisted in obtaining a “guarantee” of payment to Brazil Company to ensure that Brazil Company would make the first delivery under the Tear Gas Contract on January 10, 2020, even though Intermediary Company had not yet received the funds from the Bolivian Ministry of Defense to make the payment to Brazil Company.

Bolivia in Bolivia to the 0506 Account at U.S. Bank 2 belonging to Intermediary Company in Florida. The payment was made in connection with the Tear Gas Contract.

41. On or about March 18, 2020, Intermediary Company wire transferred approximately $3,357,735 from the 0506 Account at U.S. Bank 2 to a bank account belonging to Brazil Company in Brazil to pay for the equipment required under the Tear Gas Contract for the Bolivian Ministry of Defense.

42. On or about March 27, 2020, LUIS BERKMAN forwarded a WhatsApp voice message from an unidentified speaker to BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN, PHILIP LICHTENFELD, and another associate of PHILIP LICHTENFELD, stating, “Philip, uh . . . Rodri, uh . . . and Bryan, I just spoke with uh . . . with [Co-Conspirator 1], uh . . . about the payments, uh . . . he tells me that obviously because of the bureaucracy, the emergency problems in Bolivia, and obviously the serious problems in Bolivia, all of which you probably know about Rodri, that please this can take up to five (5) business days before the transfer goes out. He has obviously explained to me the reasons and why this is the case, and I assume it is the truth, but to let you know short, brother, he tells me that please a minimum of five (5) business days for us to get paid. Rodri, if you can find out anything from your end and confirm, let us know if there is any change. As soon as I hear anything else I will let you know. Take care.” (Translated from Spanish). Based on the evidence collected in this investigation, your affiant believes that “Philip” refers to PHILIP LICHTENFELD, “Rodri” refers to SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL, and “Bryan” refers to BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN.

43. On or about April 8, 2020, members of the conspiracy and others caused a transfer of approximately $1,754,584 to be made from a bank account at the Central Bank of Bolivia in Bolivia to the 0506 Account at U.S. Bank 2 belonging to Intermediary Company in Florida, in connection with the Tear Gas Contract.

April 2020 Transfer of $582,000 for the Benefit of
SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL and ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC

44. From at least as early as March 2020, through in or around April 2020, BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN, LUIS BERKMAN, PHILIP LICHTENFELD, and others coordinated the payment of a $582,000 bribe to SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL in Bolivia. The $582,000 bribe originated from the same funds that Intermediary Company had received into the 0506 Account at U.S. Bank 2 from the Bolivian Ministry of Defense under the Tear Gas Contract. A portion of the $582,000 bribe was for the benefit of ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC.

45. On or about March 21, 2020, PHILIP LICHTENFELD sent a WhatsApp text message to Individual 1 to discuss a plan to deliver approximately $700,000 in cash to Bolivia: “Just yesterday they deposited part of the approximately 700,000 for me so I can deposit it for you in the USA.” (Translated from Spanish).

46. On or about April 12, 2020, LUIS BERKMAN sent a WhatsApp text message to LICHTENFELD, stating “500 Ph 300 Ro 600 Ar 400cb 200mi 615 Mi. 15. pp-lc.” Based on the review of evidence collected, your affiant believes this message means, in part, that (i) “Ph” (or PHILIP LICHTENFELD) would receive $500,000; (ii) “Ro” (or SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL) would receive $300,000; and (iii) “Ar” (or ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC) would receive $600,000, divided into $400,000 in Cochabamba, Bolivia, and $200,000 in Miami. As described below, PHILIP LICHTENFELD in fact received $500,000 and SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL in fact received, for the benefit of himself and ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC, close to $600,000 in Cochabamba, Bolivia.

47. On or about April 13, 2020, LUIS BERKMAN left a WhatsApp voice message for PHILIP LICHTENFELD, stating, “Uh . . . Phillip how are you brother? Maybe you’re sleeping at this hour but . . . I just talked to Arturo, brother, and obviously they are already bothering us a lot with this. Ah . . . tomorrow as soon as you can, send me the . . . the account where we are going to deposit this money so we can fix all this. Ah . . . nothing else, brother, take care.” (Translated from Spanish). As of the date of this voice message, all equipment purchased under the Tear Gas Contract had been delivered two weeks before.

48. On or about April 13, 2020, LUIS BERKMAN left a WhatsApp voice message for PHILIP LICHTENFELD, stating, “Uh . . . Phillip, I just spoke to my accountant. Brother, see if it is possible that the wire transfer to my accounts be from American banks, if possible brother. That is very important. She just told me that so there’s no . . . you know, misunderstandings or anything. That would be very good. And two (2), uh . . . tomorrow I will explain to you regarding everything I talked to her about and I will wait for your comments to talk to . . . Arturo, once you tell me what to do. Take care.” (Translated from Spanish).

49. On or about April 13, 2020, Individual 1 sent a WhatsApp text message to PHILIP LICHTENFELD, stating, “Dear Philip the account into which you should deposit is: [U.S. Bank 2] CHECKING [account number] [Individual 1].” PHILIP LICHTENFELD responded, “Excellent just one more piece of information[.] I’ll do a USD 700,000 transfer today.” (Translated from Spanish). PHILIP LICHTENFELD then forwarded these text messages to BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN.

ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC Continued to Communicate with his Co-Conspirators About the Bribery and Money Laundering Scheme and Receive Laundered Proceeds

71. On or about June 29, 2020, PHILIP LICHTENFELD sent LUIS BERKMAN a hand-written ledger breaking down “Transfer ‘Arturo’”. The ledger listed two “USD” transactions, one for $100,000 and another for $79,000. Records for the 0506 Account show two matching June 2020 wire transfers, one from the 0506 Account to a U.S. bank account ending in 7665 for $100,000, and another from the 0506 Account to an account at U.S. Bank 2 ending in 8861 for $79,000.

72. The ledger also listed two corresponding “CASH” payments totaling $160,000. Based on the title of the ledger, “Transfer ‘Arturo,’” and the layout of the transactions, it appears that ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC was paid $160,000 in “CASH,” paid for by two wire transfers initiated in the 0506 Account totaling $179,000.

73. On or about November 10, 2020, ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC wire transferred $250,000 from an account in Bolivia to the 8084 Account. At the time of transfer, ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC had not executed any other transactions in the 8084 Account, other than the deposit of $10,000 in cash on January 13, 2020, as described above.

74. On November 19, 2020, the 8084 Account was closed. ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC received two cashier’s checks, each worth approximately $130,000.

75. On or about January 5, 2021, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL sent a WhatsApp text message to PHILIP LICHTENFELD that said, “Regarding the thing with the excellent friend, 30k ... let me know when you have the information I will tell him.” (Translated from Spanish).

76. On or about January 6, 2021, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL sent a WhatsApp text message to ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC that contained a screenshot of the WhatsApp messages between SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL and PHILIP LICHTENFELD concerning “30K” for the “excellent friend.” (Translated from Spanish). In response, ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC replied, “Is he here??? Let me know to pick up. I ask you because it isn’t clear .” (Translated from Spanish).

77. That same day, PHILIP LICHTENFELD sent a WhatsApp text message to Individual 2 containing ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC’s phone number. Minutes later, PHILIP LICHTENFELD sent Individual 2 a WhatsApp voice message that said, “Here I sent you Arturo Murillo’s telephone number, that’s the man, uhhh, the friend that’s going to receive the 30. Will you call him to coordinate?” (Translated from Spanish.)

78. On or about January 7, 2021, Individual 2 sent a WhatsApp text message to PHILIP LICHTENFELD that said, “All good with Arturo, I passed by, easy going guy, all good.” (Translated from Spanish.)

79. That same day, January 7, 2021, LUIS BERKMAN sent PHILIP LICHTENFELD a WhatsApp text message containing a photograph of a list of transactions that Intermediary Company executed with proceeds of the Tear Gas Contract. For example, the list included (i) the two wire transfers from the 0506 Account to Individual 1 for $700,000 that ultimately led to the $700,000 cash delivery in Bolivia at PHILIP LICHTENFELD’s relative’s house to pay for the bribes; (ii) the $500,000 wire transfer from the 0506 Account to the Lichtenfeld Bolivia Bank Account; (iii) the $320,000 wire transfer from the 0506 Account to the Lichtenfeld Bolivia Bank Account; and (iv) the two wire transfers totaling $179,000 that were listed in PHILIP LICHTENFELD’s ledger under the title “Transfer ‘Arturo,’” one from the 0506 Account to a U.S.

bank account ending in 7665 for $100,000, and another from the 0506 Account to a U.S. Bank 2 account ending in 8861 for $79,000.

80. Based on the foregoing, there is probable cause to believe that, from in or around November 2019 through at least in or around April 2020, BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN, LUIS BERKMAN, and PHILIP LICHTENFELD, all “domestic concerns” under the FCPA, willfully and corruptly made use of the mails and means and instrumentalities of interstate commerce in furtherance of an offer, payment, and promise to make payments for the benefit of ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL and Co-Conspirator 1 for the purpose of influencing ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL and Co-Conspirator 1 to use their official capacities, securing an improper advantage, and inducing ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL and Co-Conspirator 1 to use their influence to affect the Bolivian Ministry of Defense and the Bolivian Ministry of Government, in order to assist Intermediary Company, BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN, LUIS BERKMAN, and PHILIP LICHTENFELD in obtaining and retaining business for, and directing business to, BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN, LUIS BERKMAN, PHILIP LICHTENFELD, Intermediary Company, and others, in violation of Title 15, United States Code, Section 78dd-2.

81. Based on the foregoing, and based on my review of the Bolivian Penal Code, there is also probable cause to believe that the bribery scheme conducted by ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC, BRYAN SAMUEL BERKMAN, LUIS BERKMAN, PHILIP LICHTENFELD, RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL, Co-Conspirator 1, and others as described above, in which ARTURO CARLOS MURILLO PRIJIC, SERGIO RODRIGO MENDEZ MENDIZABAL and Co-Conspirator 1 received bribes from BRYAN SAMUEL

BERKMAN, LUIS BERKMAN, PHILIP LICHTENFELD, and others, in exchange for, among other things, obtaining and retaining business from the Bolivian Ministry of Defense, was an offense under, inter alia, Bolivian law prohibiting bribery of a public official and public servant.
