Defendant.

-----X

VITALIANO, J.

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

LEVY, M.J.

INTRODUCTION

At all times relevant to this Indictment, unless otherwise indicated:

1. The defendant KISHORE JATTAN was a resident of Queens, New York, and worked as a messenger transporting mail, including, the personal identifying information of individuals, to, from, and in between the offices of a university located in New York City ("the University") and elsewhere within the Eastern District of New York, from on or about September 6, 2011, through on or about December 20, 2012.

2. Personal Identifying Information ("PII") was information that either alone or in combination with other information could be used to uniquely identify, contact, or locate a person. PII included, but was not limited to, names, addresses, Social Security numbers, and dates of birth.

3. By virtue of his work as a messenger, the defendant KISHORE JATTAN had access to records that contained PII, which were maintained and kept within the normal course of business by the University. Between September 2011 and December 2012, JATTAN acquired University records that contained the PII of at least six individuals, and copied those records which included names, Social Security numbers and dates of birth. JATTAN then sold the names, Social Security numbers and dates of birth, to Co-conspirator A, an individual whose identity is known to the Grand Jury, in exchange for compensation.
