SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury in and for the District of New Jersey, sitting at Newark, charges:

COUNT 1
(Conspiracy to Defraud the United States)

Parties and Entities

1. At all times relevant to this Superseding Indictment:
 - a. Defendant MARC SORRENTINO was a resident of Monmouth County, New Jersey, and received income.
 - b. Defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO, a/k/a "The Situation," was a resident of Monmouth and Ocean Counties, New Jersey, and was a reality television personality who gained fame on the television show "The Jersey Shore," which first appeared on the MTV network in or around December 2009. Defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO received income.
 - c. MPS Entertainment, LLC ("MPS") was a limited liability company existing under the laws of the State of New Jersey that was formed in or around January 2010. Defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO held ownership interests in MPS.

d. Employee #1 was employed by MPS in a secretarial capacity.

e. Situation Nation, Inc. ("SitNat") was a corporation registered with the State of New Jersey that was formed in or around October 2010. Defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO held a 100 percent ownership interest in SitNat.

f. Situation Productions, Inc., Situation Capital Investments, LLC, and GTL Management, Inc. ("Other Sorrentino Businesses") were additional business entities established by defendants MARC SORRENTINO and/or MICHAEL SORRENTINO.

g. MPS, SitNat, and the Other Sorrentino Businesses were engaged in the business of exploiting defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO's celebrity status.

Sources of Income

h. MPS, SitNat, the Other Sorrentino Businesses, and defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO received income from a variety of sources, including personal and television appearances by defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO, a partnership interest in a vodka company, ownership of an online clothing business, publication of an autobiography and a comic book featuring defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO as a superhero, and endorsements of products such as vitamins, DVDs, clothing lines, jewelry, tuxedos, and sunglasses. For tax years 2010 through 2012, defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO earned approximately $8.9 million in gross income.

i. From approximately January 2010 through approximately December 2012, defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO entered into numerous contracts for MICHAEL SORRENTINO to make personal appearances at various venues, including nightclubs, bars, and liquor stores, in exchange for booking fees. Defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO contracted that a substantial portion of the booking fee be paid in cash directly to defendants MARC SORRENTINO and/or MICHAEL SORRENTINO.

Taxes and Tax Return Preparation

j. The tax laws of the United States require every citizen and resident of the United States who receives gross income in excess of the minimum filing amount established by law for a particular tax year to annually make and file a U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, Form 1040 ("Form 1040"), wherein a taxpayer reports items including income, deductions, and tax due and owing.

k. MPS was established as a partnership under the Internal Revenue Code. As a partnership, MPS was required to annually make and file a U.S. Return of Partnership Income, Form 1065 ("Form 1065"), reporting, among other items, its ordinary business income ("net business income"). A partnership's net business income as reported on the Form 1065 is determined by subtracting its total deductions from its total income. A partnership does not incur any tax liability for any net business income it may have earned during a given tax year. Instead, the owners of the partnership are required to report such net business income on their respective Forms 1040. Accordingly, any net business income incurred by MPS was required to be reported by defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO on their respective Forms 1040.

1. SitNat was established as an S Corporation under the Internal Revenue Code. As an S Corporation, SitNat was required to annually make and file a U.S. Income Tax Return for an S Corporation, Form 1120S ("Form 1120S"), reporting, among other items, its ordinary business income ("net business income"). An S Corporation's net business income as reported on the Form 1120S is determined by subtracting its total deductions from its total income. An S Corporation does not incur any tax liability for any net business income it may have earned during a given tax year. Instead, the owner of the S Corporation is required to report such net business income on his Form 1040. Accordingly, any net business income incurred by SitNat was required to be reported by defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO on his Form 1040.

m. Any income earned by defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO, in addition to net business income described above, was required to be reported on their respective Forms 1040.

n. Among other things, Forms 1065, Forms 1120S, and Forms 1040 enable the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") to identify income and assess and compute any taxes that may be due and owing on that income.

o. A Form 1099 is an informational form generally required to be filed with the IRS to report payments made to an individual or partnership in the course of a trade or business. A Form 1099 is generally not required for payments made to a corporation.

p. Defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO engaged the services of a certified public accounting firm (the "Accounting Firm"). The Accounting Firm had offices in Staten Island, New York, and was in the business of preparing tax returns for clients.

i. Coconspirator #1, Gregg Mark, charged elsewhere, was employed by the Accounting Firm. For tax years 2010 and 2011, defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO, and Gregg Mark prepared, and caused to be prepared, the Forms 1065 for MPS, the Form 1120S for SitNat, and the Forms 1040 for defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO, and Employee #1.

ii. For tax year 2012, defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO engaged the services of other tax return preparers at the Accounting Firm to prepare the Form 1065 for MPS, the Form 1120S for SitNat, and the Forms 1040 for defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO.

Bank Accounts

q. Defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO maintained personal bank accounts, including accounts ending -7378 and -4910 at JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("Chase"). Defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO maintained sole signature authority over these accounts.

r. MPS maintained business bank accounts, including accounts ending -9768 and -0799 at Chase. Defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO maintained signature authority over these accounts. At various times, defendant MARC SORRENTINO also maintained signature authority over these accounts.

s. SitNat maintained business bank accounts, including accounts ending -3078 and -0395 at Chase. Defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO maintained signature authority over these accounts. At various times, defendant MARC SORRENTINO also maintained signature authority over these accounts.

t. The Other Sorrentino Businesses maintained bank accounts, including accounts ending -3060, -7295, and -9910 at Chase. Defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO maintained signature authority over these accounts. At various times, defendant MARC SORRENTINO also maintained signature authority over these accounts.

u. A portion of the income from the operation of MPS, SitNat, and the Other Sorrentino Businesses was deposited into the various bank accounts described above. Defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO continually commingled monies among the bank accounts and used the monies from the business bank accounts to pay for personal items, such as high-end luxury vehicles and clothing.

v. Financial institutions are required to file Currency Transaction Reports ("CTRs") for monetary transactions involving cash exceeding $10,000, including deposits. CTRs are filed with the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network, a bureau within the United States Department of Treasury, and are used for, among other purposes, tracking income and assets.

The Conspiracy

2. From in or around January 2010 through in or around November 2013, in Monmouth and Ocean Counties, in the District of New Jersey and elsewhere, defendants

MARC SORRENTINO and
a/k/a "The Situation,"

did unlawfully, voluntarily, intentionally and knowingly conspire and agree with each other and others, known and unknown to the Grand Jury, including Gregg Mark, to defraud the United States by impeding, impairing, obstructing, and defeating the lawful functions of the IRS, a constituent agency of the United States Department of the Treasury, in the ascertainment, computation, assessment, and collection of income taxes.

Object of the Conspiracy

3. The object of the conspiracy was to impede, impair, obstruct, and defeat the lawful functions of the IRS, a constituent agency of the United States Department of the Treasury, in the ascertainment, computation, assessment, and collection of income taxes.

Manner and Means of the Conspiracy

4. It was part of the conspiracy that defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO earned approximately $8.9 million in gross income on which they failed to pay all federal income taxes due and owing.

5. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO provided false, fraudulent, and incomplete information and records to the Accounting Firm in connection with the Accounting Firm's preparation of tax returns for themselves and their business entities.

6. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO did not declare to the Accounting Firm and report to the IRS all of the cash that they received as income from promotional and business activities.

7. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO structured, and caused to be structured, cash deposits and attempted to evade bank currency reporting requirements.

8. Prior to in or around October 2010, defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO directed that payments from production companies for services performed by defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO be paid to MPS, whereupon the production companies issued IRS Forms 1099 to MPS with a copy sent to the IRS documenting the payments. It was further part of the conspiracy that shortly after SitNat was formed in October 2010, defendants MARC SORRENTINO and/or MICHAEL SORRENTINO directed that payments from production companies be made to SitNat instead of MPS. Because SitNat was established as an S Corporation, and payments from one corporation to another do not require the issuance of Forms 1099, the production companies did not issue Forms 1099 to SitNat and therefore, no Forms 1099 were sent to the IRS evidencing payments. Defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO did not report all of these payments from production companies to SitNat as income.

9. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO filed, and caused to be filed, with the IRS a false and fraudulent Form 1065 and false and fraudulent Forms 1120S for their business entities. These tax returns were false and fraudulent in that they understated the gross receipts of the businesses, claimed fraudulent business deductions, disguised income payments made to defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO and to Employee #1, and/or underreported net business income.

10. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO filed, and caused to be filed, with the IRS false and fraudulent Forms 1040 for defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO, and Employee #1. These tax returns were false and fraudulent in that they failed to report all of the income that defendants MARC SORRENTINO and MICHAEL SORRENTINO, and Employee #1 received.

11. It was further part of the conspiracy that, despite earning substantial income, defendant MICHAEL SORRENTINO did not file a Form 1040 for tax year 2011.

12. It was further part of the conspiracy that from on or about November 6, 2013, through on or about November 13, 2013, in response to federal Grand Jury subpoenas dated October 8, 2013, defendant MARC SORRENTINO manipulated, and caused to be manipulated, books and records on behalf of MPS and SitNat for tax year 2012. After the Grand Jury subpoenas were served, but prior to MPS and SitNat producing the books and records, defendant MARC SORRENTINO manipulated, and caused to be manipulated, these books and records to alter and reclassify taxable payments to defendant

MARC SORRENTINO as non-taxable payments to him and as legitimate business deductions.
