MEMORANDUM FOR THE UNITED STATES IN OPPOSITION

---

Petitioner, a member of the Air Force who was convicted at general court-martial of murder, in violation of Article 118 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ), 10 U.S.C. 918, renews his claim (Pet. 14-31) that the court-martial's members were unconstitutionally permitted to convict him by a nonunanimous vote. See Art. 52(a)(3), 10 U.S.C. 852(a)(3) (requiring "the concurrence of at least three-fourths of the members" to convict). The United States Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces rejected that claim based on its earlier decision in United States v. Anderson, 83 M.J. 291 (2023), cert. denied, No. 23-437 (Feb. 20, 2024). See Pet. App. 50a n.1.

As explained in the government's briefs in opposition to the petitions for writs of certiorari in Martinez v. United States, cert. denied, No. 23-242 (Feb. 20, 2024), and Anderson v. United States, cert. denied, No. 23-437

(Feb. 20, 2024), the court of appeals' decision in Anderson is correct. Neither the Sixth Amendment's Jury Trial Clause, the Fifth Amendment's Due Process Clause, the equal-protection component of due process, nor this Court's decision in Ramos v. Louisiana, 140 S. Ct. 1390 (2020), calls into question the military's tradition, predating the Founding, of permitting nonunanimous court-martial verdicts. See Gov't Br. in Opp. at 11-23, Martinez, supra (No. 23-242); Gov't Br. in Opp. at 6-11, Anderson, supra (No. 23-437).<sup>1</sup> As the government's prior briefs further explain, this Court's review is also unwarranted because, among other reasons, the constitutionality of nonunanimous court-martial verdicts is settled by this Court's precedent; implicates no conflict in the courts of appeals; and may be deprived of any prospective significance based on legislative action. See Gov't Br. in Opp. at 12-14, 23-24, Martinez, supra (No. 23-242).

This Court has repeatedly and recently denied petitions for writs of certiorari raising this issue, including this Term. See Martinez, supra (No. 23-242); Anderson, supra (No. 23-437). It should follow the same course here.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> The government has served petitioner with copies of its briefs in opposition in Martinez and Anderson, which are also available on this Court's online docket.

<sup>2</sup> The government waives any further response to the petition for a writ of certiorari unless this Court requests otherwise.

Respectfully submitted.

ELIZABETH B. PRELOGAR
Solicitor General
