

USDOJ Servicemembers Civil Relief Act Settlement Provisions:

Ally Financial, Inc., Residential Capital, LLC, and GMAC Mortgage, LLC

In exchange for a full release of the United States'¹ potential civil claims under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act ("SCRA"), 50 U.S.C. app. § 501, et seq., arising prior to the date of this agreement against Servicer² with respect to the servicing of residential mortgages, under the provisions of the SCRA related to (a) mortgage foreclosure, and (b) the prohibition against charging more than 6% interest on SCRA-covered mortgaged debt after a valid request by a servicemember to lower the interest rate and receipt of orders, Servicer agrees to the provisions set forth below.

I. Servicer shall comply with all the "Protections for Military Personnel" provisions in the Settlement Agreement ("Article V"). In addition, Servicer shall undertake additional remedial action and agree to the policy changes set forth below.

II. Compensation for Servicemembers and Co-Borrowers

a. Violations of Sections 533 and 521 of the SCRA related to completed foreclosures on active duty servicemembers: Servicer will engage an independent

¹ The following claims are specifically reserved and not released: Any action that may be taken by the appropriate Federal Banking Agency (FBA), as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 1813(q), against Servicer, any of its affiliated entities, and/or any institution-affiliated party of Servicer, as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 1813(u), pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 1818, and any action by the FBA to enforce the Consent Order issued against Servicer by the FBA on April 13, 2011.

² For purposes of the agreement in this exhibit, "Servicer" shall mean Ally Financial, Inc., and its subsidiaries and affiliates, Residential Capital, LLC, and GMAC Mortgage, LLC (including any loans serviced by GMAC Mortgage, LLC and its subsidiaries on behalf of affiliates), and their successors and assignees in the event of a sale of all or substantially all of the mortgage servicing related assets of (1) Ally Financial, Inc., Residential Capital, LLC, or GMAC Mortgage, LLC, or (2) any of Ally Financial, Inc.'s, Residential Capital, LLC's, or GMAC Mortgage, LLC's division(s) or major business unit(s) that are engaged in servicing residential mortgages. Ally Financial, Inc., Residential Capital, LLC, and GMAC Mortgage, LLC, jointly and severally, will be obligated to make the payments specified in the agreement in this exhibit; provided, however, that any successor to or purchaser of all or a substantial portion of the assets of Residential Capital, LLC or GMAC Mortgage, LLC shall not be obligated to pay any of the amounts owed by Residential Capital, LLC, GMAC Mortgage, LLC, or Ally Financial, Inc. under the Consent Judgment.

consultant whose duties shall include a review of all completed foreclosures from January 1, 2006 to the present to evaluate whether the completed foreclosures were in compliance with Sections 533 and 521 of the SCRA. Servicer shall propose an independent consultant and submit the independent consultant's proposed methodology to DOJ for approval within 30 days after the entry of this agreement. The independent consultant shall begin its review within 30 days after receiving the above-referenced approvals by DOJ. The independent consultant shall submit the results of its review to DOJ within 150 days after it receives the data necessary for its analysis from the Department of Defense's Defense Manpower Data Center ("DMDC") providing relevant periods of military service of borrowers for completed foreclosures from January 1, 2006 to present. Based on the information gathered by the independent consultant, information submitted by Servicer, and DOJ's independent investigation, DOJ shall make the determination reasonably based on the information it has received and its investigative conclusions whether or not a completed foreclosure was in compliance with the SCRA. In the event Servicer disagrees with the DOJ's determination, Servicer shall be afforded 30 days to produce evidence of compliance, which DOJ shall consider in good faith. Where DOJ determines that a foreclosure was not in compliance with the SCRA, Servicer shall compensate the borrowers (i.e., any individual(s) who signed the note with respect to a foreclosed property) by providing:

(1) an amount of $116,785.00 to the servicemember-borrower or an amount consistent with what was provided under the Federal Reserve Board Consent

Order Independent Review Process for similar violations of Sections 533 or 521 of the SCRA, whichever is higher;

(2) any lost equity in the foreclosed property, as calculated by: subtracting:

(a) any outstanding principal, interest, and other amounts owing by the borrowers (excluding any fees associated with foreclosure), plus any junior liens at the time of foreclosure and any disbursements made to the servicemember or a third party other than a junior lien holder from the proceeds of the foreclosure sale (exclusive of any fees associated with the foreclosure) from

(b) Either:

- i. a contemporaneous appraisal reflecting the value of the home at the time of foreclosure;
- ii. a BPO or other desktop determination of property valuation that results in property valuations reasonably consistent³ with those contained in contemporaneous appraisals; or
- iii. a retroactive appraisal reflecting the value of the home at the time of foreclosure; and

(3) interest accrued on this lost equity, calculated from the date of the foreclosure sale until the date payment is issued, at the rate set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1961.⁴

⁴ The independent consultant shall calculate the lost equity and interest described herein as part of its review.

While the amount described in subsection (1) shall be paid entirely to the servicemember-borrower on the note securing the mortgage, the amounts described in subsections (2) and (3) shall be distributed among all owners (including non-servicemember owners) on the deed.⁵ In cases where Servicer has already taken remedial actions with respect to a foreclosure which DOJ determines did not comply with Sections 533 or 521 of the SCRA, DOJ shall consider such remedial actions and adjust the compensation to be awarded to the subject borrower or mortgagor.⁶ DOJ will submit lists or electronic links to, the Servicer identifying servicemembers or co-borrowers to be compensated, and Servicer must notify each identified servicemember or co-borrower (using best efforts to locate each person) by letter (using Exhibit 1 or a modified version mutually agreeable to Servicer and DOJ) within 45 days of receiving this list. Any letters returned with forwarding addresses must be promptly mailed to the forwarding address. Servicer shall issue and mail compensation checks no later than 21 days after receipt of a signed release from the servicemember or co-borrower aggrieved person. Every 6 months for a period of two years following entry of this agreement, Servicer shall provide the DOJ with an accounting of all releases received, checks issued (including copies of issued checks), credit entries repaired, and notifications without responses or that were returned as undeliverable.

⁵ If information is available regarding percentages of ownership interest in the subject property, the amounts described in subsections (2) and (3) will be distributed in amounts proportionate to the ownership interests. Otherwise, amounts described in subsections (2) and (3) will be distributed equally among owners.

⁶ In determining the amount of compensation due to any servicemember or co-borrower pursuant to Subsection II.a, DOJ will credit any monetary compensation or other remediation efforts, including returning the home to the borrower, already provided to any servicemember or co-borrower for alleged compliance issues pursuant to Sections 533 or 521 of the SCRA and arising from the same mortgage. In the event that a servicemember located through the Federal Reserve Board Consent Order Independent Consultant review process elects to receive the return of his or her home in lieu of a flat fee damages payment pursuant to the Federal Reserve Board Consent Order remediation plan (which payment shall not be less than the amount provided in Section II.a.(1)) for violations of Sections 533 or 521 of the SCRA and arising from the same mortgage, the servicemember shall be compensated pursuant to the terms of the Federal Reserve Board Consent Order remediation plan rather than Section II.a. of this agreement.

- b. Violations of Section 527 of the SCRA related to failing to limit interest rates to 6% on SCRA-covered mortgage debt: Servicer will engage an independent consultant whose duties shall include a review of either all or a sample of mortgage loans where a borrower on the note securing the mortgage submitted a request either orally or in writing for protection under Section 527 of the SCRA from January 1, 2008 – present to evaluate whether the Servicer complied with Section 527 of the SCRA. The DOJ shall determine whether a sample or a comprehensive review, or some combination thereof, would be more appropriate to locate potential violations by the Servicer. The consultant's methodology must be submitted to DOJ for approval within 60 days after entry of this agreement. DOJ's approval of the methodology will be based on, among other things, DOJ's evaluation of the Servicer's SCRA policies in and around the time period in question, Servicer's search capabilities for determining which individuals requested, either orally or in writing, interest rate protections based on their military status, the servicing platform, and the number of individuals who requested such protection. The consultant shall submit the results of its review within 180 days after DOJ's approval of the methodology. Based on the information gathered by the consultant, information submitted by the Servicer, and DOJ's independent investigation, DOJ shall make the determination, reasonably based on the information it has received and its investigative conclusions, whether or not potential violations of Section 527 occurred. In the event Servicer disagrees with the DOJ's determination, Servicer shall be afforded 30 days to produce evidence of compliance, which DOJ shall consider in good faith. Where DOJ determines that a mortgage loan was not serviced in compliance with Section 527, Servicer shall: (1) refund (with interest, as calculated pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961) all interest and fees charged above 6%; and (2) provide an additional payment of $500 or triple the amount of the refund referenced in subsection (1), whichever amount is larger.⁷ The compensation described in subsection (1) shall be distributed equally among all borrowers (including non-servicemember borrowers) on the note secured by the mortgage. The compensation described in subsection (2) shall be paid entirely to the servicemember. In cases where Servicer has already taken remedial actions with respect to a mortgage which DOJ determines did not comply with Section 527 of the SCRA, DOJ shall consider such remedial actions and adjust the compensation to be awarded to the subject servicemember, borrower, or mortgagor.⁸ DOJ will submit lists or electronic links to the Servicer of identified servicemembers or co-borrowers to be compensated, and Servicer must notify each identified servicemember or co-borrower (using best efforts to locate each person) by letter (using Exhibit 2 or a modified version mutually agreeable to Servicer and DOJ) within 60 days of receiving this list of servicemembers or co-borrowers to be compensated. Any letters returned with forwarding addresses must be promptly mailed to the forwarding address. Servicer shall issue and mail compensation checks no later than 21 days of receipt of a signed release from the servicemember or co-borrower aggrieved person. Every 6 months for a period of two years following entry of this agreement, Servicer shall provide the DOJ with an accounting of all releases received, checks issued (including copies of issued checks), credit entries repaired and notifications without responses or that were returned as undeliverable.

⁸ In determining whether any compensation is due to any servicemember or co-borrower pursuant to Subsection II.b, and, if so, the amount DOJ will consider the timing of any remedial actions and will credit any monetary compensation already provided to any servicemember or co-borrower for alleged compliance issues pursuant to Section 527 of the SCRA and arising from the same mortgage, and/or provided under the Federal Reserve Board Consent Order Independent Consultant review process for violations of Section 527 of the SCRA and arising from the same mortgage.

- c. Concurrent with providing financial compensation to the servicemember-borrower, Servicer must request that all three major credit bureaus remove negative entries for the servicemember(s) and any co-borrower(s) attributable specifically to the wrongful foreclosure or interest overcharges and Servicer shall not pursue, and must indemnify the servicemember and his or her co-borrower(s) against any third-party pursuing, any deficiency that was remaining on the servicemember's SCRA-protected mortgage or junior lien after a foreclosure was completed in violation of the SCRA.
- d. Servicer shall have 10 days after DOJ's final determination that a foreclosure was not in compliance with the SCRA or a mortgage loan was not serviced in compliance with Section 527, to seek judicial review on the ground that DOJ made a clearly erroneous factual determination.

III. SCRA Compliance Policies

- a. Servicer shall submit SCRA mortgage foreclosure-related policies to DOJ for review and approval. If the Servicer decides to make a material modification to these policies, Servicer will provide the modified policies for review and approval. DOJ will advise Servicer of the results of DOJ's review within 60 days of receipt of a complete submission of all SCRA mortgage foreclosure-related policies and any subsequent material modifications. In addition to the areas covered under the "Protection of Military Personnel" provisions in the attached document, these policies must address:

- i. Prior to referring a loan to foreclosure, the Servicer shall review any orders it has received from borrowers⁹ and check borrowers' names and social security numbers against the DMDC website as provided in the "Protections of Military Personnel" provisions in the Settlement Agreement.
- ii. If Servicer pursues a foreclosure action in court and the borrower fails to answer the action, Servicer and/or its agent will file a military affidavit with the court as required by Section 521(b)(1)(A). After the borrower fails to answer and prior to seeking entry of default, Servicer and/or its agent will query the DMDC and review information in its possession or control for orders to determine if the borrower is on active duty. If Servicer and/or its agent learns that the borrower is on active duty or was on active duty at the time of his or her failure to answer Servicer and/or its agent will file an affidavit stating that "the defendant is in military service" or "was in military service at the time of his or her failure to answer" prior to seeking default judgment and attaching the most recent certificate of service from the DMDC or a copy of the military orders.

iii. If Servicer initiates and pursues a waiver under a written agreement as provided in Section 517 of the SCRA, Servicer must initiate the waiver process with the servicemember at least 30 days in advance of any anticipated foreclosure sale date by sending a notice and a copy of the proposed waiver to the servicemember. To the extent Servicer exercises this right, Servicer shall utilize a notice and proposed waiver in the form attached as Exhibit 3. This provision may be modified based on changes in servicing requirements from government-sponsored entities or the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

b. Servicer shall submit SCRA mortgage loan interest rate-related policies to DOJ for review and approval. If the Servicer decides to make a material modification to these policies, Servicer will provide the modified policies for review and approval. DOJ will advise Servicer of the results of DOJ's review within 60 days of receipt of a complete submission of all SCRA mortgage loan interest rate-related policies and any subsequent material modifications. In addition to the areas covered under Article V of the Settlement Agreement, these policies must address:

i. Servicer shall accept servicemembers' requests for reduced mortgage interest rates pursuant to the SCRA via electronic mail, facsimile, U.S. Mail, Federal Express or other overnight/express delivery to facsimile numbers and addresses designated by the Servicer. Within six months after entry of this agreement, Servicer shall also accept servicemembers' requests for reduced mortgage interest rates pursuant to the SCRA via in-person delivery at the Servicer's full-service branch locations, should the Servicer maintain branch locations.

- ii. When a servicemember requests interest rate relief under the SCRA, Servicer shall accept orders as defined in the Settlement Agreement or any other document that the DOD shall deem sufficient as a substitute for official orders.
- iii. Servicer shall seek only orders identifying the beginning date of the applicable period of military service from the requesting servicemember and may not condition providing SCRA benefits on the servicemember submitting orders that include an end date.
- iv. Before concluding that the SCRA permits raising the interest rate on the servicemember's loan higher than six percent, the Servicer shall access the DMDC website to determine the dates, where available, of active duty military service of those servicemembers who request reduced interest rates pursuant to the SCRA. If DMDC indicates that the individual is still on active duty, the Servicer must continue to limit the charges pursuant to Section 527 of the SCRA.
- v. For those servicemembers who request a reduced interest rate pursuant to the SCRA, but are determined not to be eligible for the reduced rate, Servicer shall notify the servicemembers in writing of the reasons for the denial and that they may provide additional documentation or information to establish eligibility for the reduced interest rate.

- c. In the event that DOJ requires a change or modification pursuant to this agreement that is in conflict with a policy required by the appropriate Federal Banking Agency (FBA), as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 1813(q), under the Consent Order issued against the Servicer by the FBA on April 13, 2011, and the FBA will not consent to the change, DOJ shall meet and confer with the FBA to resolve the conflict. Nothing in this agreement prevents DOJ from requiring Servicer to adopt policies that provide additional protections beyond the policies required by the FBA.

IV. Training and Monitoring Program

- a. Within 45 days after entry of this agreement, Servicer shall provide its proposed training on the SCRA and this settlement to DOJ for approval. After receiving DOJ's approval, Servicer shall provide and require training on the SCRA and this settlement for employees (including management officials): (1) providing customer service to servicemembers, (2) involved in mortgage servicing, including adjusting interest rates for mortgage loans, or (3) with significant involvement in the foreclosure process, within 60 days of DOJ's approval (if already employed in such a position), or within 30 days of his or her hiring, promotion, or transfer. Servicer shall also obtain confirmation from third-party vendors, law firms, and/or trustee companies involved in conducting foreclosures that their employees who are involved in the foreclosure process have been trained on their obligations to comply with this settlement and the SCRA.

- b. Servicer shall implement a monitoring program approved by DOJ designed to ensure compliance with this settlement and the SCRA. At a minimum, monitoring will include a quarterly report to be submitted to DOJ¹⁰ within 60 days after the end of each quarter containing an analysis of a sample of foreclosures and a sample of mortgages where a borrower or mortgagor submitted orders seeking protection under Section 527 of the SCRA to determine compliance with the SCRA and this settlement. If Servicer learns that despite the policies required by Section III a violation of Section 521, 527 or 533 has occurred, Servicer will take corrective action as set forth in Section II of this agreement.

V. Term of Agreement

This agreement shall retain full force and effect for three and one half years from the date it is entered (the “Term”). Servicer’s obligation pursuant to Section III to submit quarterly reports and DOJ’s review of the same shall continue for the six months following the Term, after which time Servicer shall have no further obligations under this agreement.

¹⁰ All materials required by this Order to be sent to the Department of Justice shall be sent by commercial overnight delivery service addressed as follows: Chief, Housing and Civil Enforcement Section, Civil Rights Division, U.S. Department of Justice, 1800 G Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20006, Attn: DJ 216-16-2.

Re: Loan Number [Insert]

Dear [Co-borrower]:

We write to inform you that _____ (“the Bank”), entered into a settlement on _____, with the Department of Justice regarding alleged violations of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (“SCRA”). This settlement resolves the Department of Justice’s allegations that the Bank charged servicemembers interest higher than six percent on mortgage loans that the servicemembers originated prior to entering active duty, despite receiving requests for interest rate relief and orders.

In connection with this settlement, the Department of Justice identified you as a person who may be eligible for financial compensation with respect to your loan [add loan number(s)]. If you sign and return to us the release attached to this letter in the enclosed postage paid envelope and your co-borrower signs and returns the declaration and release that will be sent separately to your co-borrower, we will send you a check in the amount of [insert amount]. This amount represents your portion of any interest charges in excess of six percent. In addition, the Bank will request that all major credit bureaus remove any negative entries on your credit report attributable to the higher interest rate.

To receive this payment, you must return the attached release within six months of the date of receipt of this letter. The release, if signed, releases any claim to the return of excess interest that you may have under Section 527 of the SCRA; however, it does not release any other claim you may have under the SCRA, including Section 527, or other laws.

You should be aware that the money you are eligible to receive may have consequences with respect to your federal, state, or local tax liability, as well as eligibility for any public assistance benefits you may receive. Neither the Bank nor the Department of Justice can advise you on tax liability or any effect on public assistance benefits. You may wish to consult with a qualified individual or organization about any possible tax or other consequences resulting from your receipt of this payment.

If you have any questions concerning the release or settlement, please contact [Insert Independent Consultant Name] at [Insert Contact Information including a phone number].

We are committed to serving the financial needs of our customers who serve in the military, and we regret any error that may have occurred on your account.

Sincerely,

IMPORTANT NOTICE AFFECTING MILITARY SERVICEMEMBERS

WAIVER OF RIGHTS AND PROTECTIONS AFFORDED UNDER THE SERVICEMEMBERS CIVIL RELIEF ACT

Attached to this notice you will find a waiver of rights and protections that may be applicable to you and your dependents pursuant to the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, 50 App. U.S.C. § 501, et seq. (the "SCRA"). The SCRA provides military personnel and their dependents with a wide range of legal and financial protections. Among other benefits and protections, the SCRA:

- Upon request by the servicemember, imposes a maximum rate of interest that may be charged on debt obligations incurred by an eligible servicemember before the servicemember began his or her current military service.
- May restrict or prohibit the sale, foreclosure, or seizure of real estate pursuant to a pre-service debt obligation, except where the lender has obtained a valid court order approving the sale, foreclosure, or seizure of the real estate.
- May prohibit a landlord or lender from evicting a servicemember or the servicemember's dependents from his/her residence, except where the lender has obtained a valid court order approving the eviction.
- May, in a court action, give the servicemember the right to postpone the case under certain conditions.
- May, in a court action, give the servicemember the right to have the terms of the mortgage obligation adjusted under certain conditions.

[Judicial State / Non-Judicial State Paragraph - Insert Applicable Paragraph]

[Judicial State] If you choose to sign the waiver, the bank will have the option to proceed with a foreclosure, sale and eviction without the protections of the SCRA. If you do not sign this waiver, the Bank will be required to provide you the protections of the SCRA. You may be able to seek a postponement of any foreclosure or eviction action, and, in the case of foreclosure, an adjustment of the mortgage obligation. Additionally, the court should take steps to ensure that a judgment is not entered against you if you are unable to appear.

[Non-Judicial State] If you choose to sign the waiver, the bank will have the option to proceed with a foreclosure, sale and eviction without going to court. If you do not sign this waiver, the bank will be required to obtain a court order in order to foreclose (if you incurred your debt before you went into military service) or to evict you from your home. You may be able to seek a postponement of any foreclosure or eviction action, and, in the case of foreclosure, an adjustment of the mortgage obligation. Additionally, the court should take steps to ensure that a judgment is not entered against you if you are unable to appear.

Before waiving these important statutory rights, you should consult an attorney regarding how best to exercise your rights or whether it is in your interest to waive these rights under the conditions offered by the bank.

As an alternative to foreclosure, the bank may offer its borrowers the options of pursuing a short sale of their property or executing a deed in lieu of foreclosure. Borrowers in default may find these options to be preferable to foreclosure. Any negotiation for a short sale or deed in lieu of foreclosure is not a threat of current or future litigation, and should not be considered as such.
