PUBLIC INQUIRY

PLEASE NOTE: If you are seeking an investigation or law suit, please contact the appropriate investigative agency from the table linked here. The U.S. Attorney's Office prosecutes violations of federal law that are investigated and referred to the U.S. Attorney's Office by various federal, tribal, state, and local investigative law enforcement agencies. Requests by members of the public for an investigation must be presented to the appropriate investigative law enforcement agency, which agency may then refer the matter to the U.S. Attorney's Office for consideration of charges.

The U.S. Attorney's Office also represents officers and agencies of the federal government in civil law suits. If you are involved in a federal civil law suit involving the United States, please contact your attorney or the assigned Assistant United States Attorney, if appropriate.

Once you complete the form, email, or mail it to the appropriate address above.
