Document Number: No document attached

Docket Text:

MINUTE ORDER. Upon consideration of the parties' [46] Joint Status Report Regarding Discovery and the parties' [44][45] Responses, the Court VACATES the April 4, 2023 status hearing.

In accordance with the below schedule, the parties shall provide the Court with their respective proposals to grant Lockerbie victims access to pretrial proceedings and trial as authorized by law, see Act to Provide Remote Access to Court Proceedings for Victims of the 1988 Bombing of Pan Am Flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland, Pub. L. No. 118-37, 138 Stat. 11.

Consistent with the Court's February 26, 2024 minute order and the government's representations in its [45] Response, the government shall file, on or before May 31, 2024, a comprehensive proposal to permit victims access to pretrial proceedings and trial in a secure manner that will not jeopardize the safety or the integrity of such proceedings, see id. In particular, the government shall explain in detail how it will ensure that (1) audio or video proceedings are restricted to victims, see id., (2) unauthorized persons do not gain access to the proceedings, and (3) no recording, (re)distribution, or broadcasting of the proceedings occur. Finally, the government shall identify government resources, including personnel and facilities, it will dedicate to achieve these ends. The defendant shall address the same and file, on or before June 17, 2024, its opposition to the government's proposal, see defendant's [44] Response to Order.

Finally, the defense shall file, on or before March 28, 2024, a notice that indicates whether the defendant consents to exclude time under the Speedy Trial Act until June 30, 2024. So ordered by Judge Dabney L. Friedrich on March 13, 2024. (lclf3)
