Supp. 3d at 231 (noting that an award of attorneys' fees for a motion to compel in the context of a Section 1782 subpoena is governed by Rule 37(a)(5) and requesting an accounting of fees and costs incurred in preparing a successful motion to compel). ARIANA ARNOLD, Case No.: 1:18-cv-00012-ABJ Defendant DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEY'S COSTS AND FEES NOW COMES Defendant Ariana Arnold ("Defendant"), serving in her official role as attorney for Howard University ("Howard" or "University") by and through undersigned counsel, hereby files this Motion for Attorney's Costs and Fees under Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. | |

Feb 02, 2018

Order - MINUTE ORDER. Plaintiff was ordered to show cause by January 26, 2018 why this case should not be dismissed under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8. Plaintiff has not responded to the Court's order. However, defendant's 5 motion for attorney fees and costs will be DENIED given plaintiff's limited ability to comply with such an order. Also, defendant's previous motion for attorney fees and costs in Case No. 1:17-cv-2185 was still pending when the instant lawsuit was filed, and plaintiff had not yet received the order that specifically warned that since it was not improper for counsel for the University to remove a case filed in Superior Court to federal court, any additional complaints based on the same theory will be dismissed. The Court reiterates that any lawsuits brought in the future that are based on defendant's lawful actions in removing plaintiff's cases to federal court will be dismissed, and that in the future, sanctions, including attorneys' fees, may well be imposed.

16 Mar 10, 2017  View Brief - REPLY to opposition to motion re 12 MOTION for Summary Judgment and Opposition to Cross-Motion filed . . . The DOJ submits that any discussion of whether COA is a prevailing party is premature and should be determined in a future motion regarding attorneys' fees. 9 Case 1:16-cv-02226-RBW Document 16 Filed 03/10/17 Page 10 of 11 IV. Conclusion For the reasons stated above, the United States' Motion for Summary Judgment should be granted, and COA's Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment should be denied.

The Court notes that this memorandum opinion does not determine whether the Institute was a prevailing party for purposes of determining whether the Institute is eligible for an award of attorneys' fees and costs. Additionally, the Court's conclusion that this case is moot does not prevent the Institute from filing a motion seeking attorneys' fees and costs.

I will grant the motion of the plaintiffs to 13 the extent that I am making a finding of a violation of 14 discovery ruling and as appropriate respond to the Court's 15 ordering of costs and attorneys' fees for this motion. 16 Otherwise, the motion is denied holding them in contempt. I 17 find this a violation of the Court's order but not in 18 contempt because they made an attempt to comply with the 19 order untimely, not originally done as should have been done.

... 13 Petitioner notes that it also seeks "costs of this proceeding including reasonable attorneys' fees," but it has not provided the Court with a motion for fees and costs, or its billing records. If petitioner believes that it is entitled to that relief, it may bring an appropriate motion. 14 CONCLUSION For the reasons explained above, the Court finds that it has subject matter and personal jurisdiction over the Republic of Niger in this case. Under the Federal Arbitration Act, the Court will grant the petition to confirm the arbitral award, and the motion for a default judgment, and it will award judgment to Africard in the amount of $46,128,410.46. Neuwirth of Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, ... If and when the Court is presented with a motion for attorneys' fees , it can make a fully informed decision regarding any fee award. III. CONCLUSION For the foregoing reasons, the Plaintiffs Lavin, Yeninas, King, and Jung respectfully submit that the Court should appoint Hausfeld and CPM as Interim Co-Lead Counsel along with the proposed three-firm Executive Committee to lead this case. 14 Since all class members are alleged to have suffered the same harm--the payment of artificially inflated airfares--Hausfeld-CPM are unaware of any current conflicts on the plaintiff side and do not foresee any future conflicts. | |

| 74 | Oct 27, 2016 | | View Brief - REPLY to opposition to motion re 67 MOTION for Summary Judgment filed by JOSEPH HENCHMAN, BRITTANY The plaintiffs' motion challenges these fees on two independent grounds. The first is that the IRS's own justifications for the PTIN regulations are impermissible in light of Loving v. IRS, 742 F.3d 1014 (D.C. Cir. 2014), which invalidated the IRS's parallel attempt to impose eligibility criteria on return preparers. This makes the fees unlawful under the APA. The second is that, even setting the IRS's justifications aside, the agency lacks statutory authority to charge the fees because--in the absence of licensing power--it confers no "service or thing of value" in exchange for them. | Docket Key SM |

(lcckk3) (Entered: 06/03/2014) In its discretion, the Court declines to enter a default judgment for attorneys' fees and costs absent documentation of the hours each attorney worked on this matter, the specific costs incurred by the attorneys , and the reasonableness of their fees. Accordingly, the Court shall deny Plaintiffs' motion for attorneys' fees and costs without prejudice. IV. CONCLUSION For the foregoing reasons, the Court finds that Plaintiffs provided sufficient documentation to support their request for damages, but failed to provide the documentation necessary to support their request for attorneys' fees and costs. Accordingly, Plaintiffs' [18] Motion for Default Judgment is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART as set forth above. The Court enters judgment for the Fund in the amount of $11,846.37. | |

Amy Berman Jackson on 7/12/13. (ms,) (Entered: 07/12/2013) . . .
 . . . The Court will deny NLS's motion for attorney's fees and costs. III. CONCLUSION The Court concludes that it lacks personal jurisdiction over the NLS in this matter and that the amended complaint fails to state claims under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the Fair 13 Debt Collection Practices Act, the D.C. Consumer Act and Consumer Protection Procedures Act, and the D.C. Criminal Code upon which relief can be granted. Accordingly, NLS's motion to dismiss will be granted. Its motion for an award of attorney's fees and costs will be denied. An Order accompanies this Memorandum Opinion. DATE: July 12, 2013 /s/ AMY BERMAN JACKSON United States District Judge 14

Although Lauer's attorney made the underlying FOIA request, is named as the plaintiff in the complaint, and filed the pending motion for attorneys' fees, these actions were taken on behalf of Lauer.

Jan 06, 2015

Order - MINUTE ORDER (paperless) GRANTING the plaintiffs' 54 Motion for Extension of Time to File Rule 54(d) Motion Relating to Attorney Fees and Costs. The plaintiffs' Motion for Extension of Time to File Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs, docketed at ECF No. 54-1, is deemed timely filed. Moreover, the District Court for the District of Columbia was closed by order of the Chief Judge on January 2, 2015, the last day for filing such a motion pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(d)(2)(B). Thus, the plaintiffs' 54 Motion was timely filed on January 5, 2015, since the last day for filing under Rule 54(d)(2)(B) was a day on which the Court "clerk's office [was] inaccessible." See Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(a)(3)(A). Signed by Judge Beryl A. Howell on January 6, 2015. (lcbah1) (Entered: 01/06/2015)

... ABM requests attorney fees and costs but cites only Taragan v. Eli Lilly & Co., 838 F.2d 1337 (D.C. Cir. 1988), which concerned Rule 41(a)(2). The motion for fees and costs will be denied. The Court rejects ABM's insinuations that Plaintiffs failed to investigate their claims adequately before filing suit: the Central Pension Fund and the law governing it are both complex and opaque and Plaintiffs have responded promptly and appropriately to Defendants' arguments. 15

These arguments fail in view of the explicit language in Rule 37 that requires an award of attorneys' fees when a motion to compel is granted. Moreover, Rule 37 requires only that counsel confer on the issues prior to the filing of the motion; it does not specify the manner in which counsel confer. Plaintiffs only raise one argument regarding the actual amount of the expenses. Plaintiffs argue that the costs incurred are "excessive" in view of the fact that plaintiffs' counsel has earned no money in his representation of plaintiffs in this long-standing litigation. | |

Because the Court agrees with the PBGC and finds no reason to amend this restriction, it will deny Class Counsel's Motion seeking further fees . I. Background The two class-action lawsuits underlying this Motion are older than the majority of today's law-school students. In the late 1980s, the cases were initially assigned to then-Chief Judge Aubrey Robinson and were then transferred to Judge Richard Roberts in March 2001, where they remained until his retirement in April 2016, at which point they was assigned to this Court. | Docket Key SM |

| 651 | Aug 12, 2013 |  View | Motion - MOTION for Attorney Fees under the Equal Access to Justice Act by ASSOCIATION TO BENEFIT CHILDREN, 9. The number of different attorneys involved is due, in part, to the financial constraints placed on any attorney performing work pro bono. Because the attorneys worked on a pro bono basis, with no certainty of recovery and subject to Equal Access to Justice Act fee caps, the attorneys were required to balance their work on this case against their work for commercial paying clients. This resulted in spreading the work among a number of attorneys , and the corresponding need for the attorneys to confer to coordinate tasks. | |
