CASEY DAVID CROWTHER

CASE NO. 2:20-cr-114-FJM-66MRM
18 U.S.C. § 1344
18 U.S.C. § 1014
18 U.S.C. § 1957

INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges:

COUNT ONE
(Bank Fraud)

A. Introduction

At all times material to this Indictment:

1. Casey David Crowther was a resident of North Fort Myers, Florida, who served as president, director, and registered agent of Target Roofing and Sheet Metal, Inc.

2. Target Roofing and Sheet Metal, Inc. ("Target Roofing") was a Florida corporation controlled by Casey David Crowther with its stated principal place of business in Fort Myers, Florida. Target Roofing operated as a roofing company and provided residential and commercial roofing services, which included the installation of new roofs, reroofing, and roof repair in the Southwest Florida area. Target Roofing maintained bank accounts at a federally insured financial institution (“the Lender”). Casey David Crowther was the sole signatory on those accounts.

3. The United States Small Business Administration (“SBA”) was an executive-branch agency of the United States government that provided support to entrepreneurs and small businesses. The mission of the SBA was to maintain and strengthen the nation’s economy by enabling the establishment and viability of small businesses and by assisting in the economic recovery of communities after disasters.

4. As part of this effort, the SBA enabled and provided for loans through banks, credit unions, and other lenders. These loans had government-backed guarantees.

5. The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (“CARES”) Act was a federal law enacted in or around March 2020 designed to provide emergency financial assistance to the millions of Americans who were suffering the economic effects caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. One source of relief provided by the CARES Act was the authorization of forgivable loans to small businesses for job retention and certain other expenses, through a program referred to as the Paycheck Protection Program (“PPP”).

6. To obtain a PPP loan, a qualifying business was required to submit a PPP loan application, which was signed by an authorized representative of the business. The PPP loan application required the business (through its authorized representative) to acknowledge the program rules and make certain affirmative certifications in order to be eligible to obtain the PPP loan. In the PPP loan application (SBA Form 2483), the small business (through its authorized representative) was required to state, among other things, its: (a) average monthly payroll expenses; and (b) number of employees. These figures were used to calculate the amount of money the small business was eligible to receive under the PPP. In addition, businesses applying for a PPP loan were required to provide documentation showing their payroll expenses.

7. PPP loan applications were processed by a participating lender. If a PPP loan application was approved, the participating lender funded the PPP loan using its own monies, which were 100% guaranteed by the SBA. Data from the application, including information from the borrower, the total amount of the loan, and the listed number of employees, was transmitted by the lender to the SBA in the course of processing the loan.

8. PPP loan proceeds were required to be used for certain permissible expenses, including payroll costs, mortgage interest, rent, and utilities. Under the applicable PPP rules and guidance, the interest and principal on the PPP loan was eligible for forgiveness if the business spent the loan proceeds on these expense items within a designated period of time and used a certain portion of the loan towards payroll expenses.

9. The Lender was a financial institution federally insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”) headquartered and with branches in Lee County, Florida. The Lender participated in the SBA’s PPP as a lender and, as such, was authorized to lend funds to eligible borrowers under the terms of PPP.

B. The Scheme to Defraud

10. Starting in or about April 2020, and continuing through and including the date of this Indictment, in the Middle District of Florida, and elsewhere, the defendant, did knowingly and intentionally execute, and attempt to execute, a scheme and artifice to defraud a financial institution, and to obtain monies, funds, credits, assets, and other property owned by, and under the custody and control of, a financial institution, by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises.

CASEY DAVID CROWTHER,

C. Manner and Means of the Scheme

11. The manner and means by which the defendant sought to accomplish the scheme and artifice to defraud included, among others, the following:

a. It was part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant would and did submit and cause the submission of a false and fraudulent PPP loan application and revised PPP loan application to the Lender on behalf of Target Roofing seeking a PPP loan through the SBA.

b. It was further part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant would and did make and cause to be made material false, fraudulent, and misleading representations to the Lender and SBA related to the use of the PPP funds in the PPP loan application submitted on or about April 7, 2020, and in the revised PPP loan application submitted on or about April 13, 2020.

c. It was further part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant would and did represent that all SBA PPP Loan proceeds would be used by the defendant only for business related purposes as specified in the loan application.

d. It was further part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant would and did certify that the PPP funds acquired from the requested loan would be used to retain workers and maintain payroll or make mortgage payments, lease payments, and utility payments on behalf of Target

e. It was further part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant's materially false, fraudulent, and misleading representations would and did cause the SBA to approve the PPP application and the SBA to issue $2,098,700.00 in PPP funds to the Lender, which the Lender then deposited into an account under the defendant's control.

f. It was further part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant would and did use and cause the PPP funds to be used for unauthorized purposes and for his own personal enrichment, including payment towards the principal of a promissory note and the purchase of a 2020 40' Invincible Catamaran boat.

g. It was further part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant would and did misrepresent, hide, and conceal, and cause to be misrepresented, hidden, and concealed, the purpose of acts performed in furtherance of the scheme to defraud.

D. Execution of the Scheme

12. Starting in or about April 2020, and continuing through and including the date of this Indictment, in the Middle District of Florida and elsewhere, the defendant, knowingly executed the aforesaid scheme and artifice to defraud, by submitting a false PPP loan application and revised PPP loan application on behalf of his company, Target Roofing, in order to receive a loan from the Lender, a bank insured by the FDIC, which loan was guaranteed by the SBA and which proceeds were deposited into accounts at the Lender under the defendant's custody and control.

All in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1344 and 2.

(False Statement to Lending Institution)

knowingly made a false statement, for the purpose of influencing the actions of the Lender, an institution the accounts of which were insured by the FDIC, in connection with a PPP loan application and revised PPP loan application by Target Roofing, in that the defendant signed and initialed a revised PPP loan application representing SBA loan proceeds would only be used for business related purposes and certifying that the PPP funds would be used to retain workers and maintain payroll or make mortgage payments, lease payments, and utility payments on behalf of Target Roofing; when in truth and in fact, as the defendant well knew, all of the SBA loan proceeds would not only be used for business related purposes and that the PPP funds would not be exclusively used to retain workers and maintain payroll or to make mortgage interest payments, lease payments, and utility payments on behalf of Target Roofing.

In violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1014 and 2.
