SEALED
SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

S5 16 Cr. 387 (JMF)

COUNT ONE
(Racketeering Conspiracy)

The Grand Jury charges:

1. At all times relevant to this Indictment, JULIO MARQUEZ-ALEJANDRO, a/k/a "Chino Montero," LUIS BLONDET, a/k/a "Cabazon," OSCAR VALDES-GARCIA, a/k/a "Pony," JASON DONES-GONZALEZ, a/k/a "Jason," a/k/a "Arrabal," JOSE VICTOR PELLOT-CARDONA, a/k/a "Vitito," REINALDO CRUZ-FERNANDEZ, a/k/a "Remy," and JOSE MARTINEZ-

DIAZ, a/k/a "Tony Zinc," the defendants, and others known and unknown, were members and associates of La Organizacion de Narcotraficantes Unidos ("La ONU," or the "Enterprise"), a criminal organization whose members and associates engaged in acts of violence, including murder, and distribution of controlled substances, including the trafficking of cocaine from Puerto Rico to the Bronx, New York.

2. La ONU, including its leadership, its membership, and its associates, constituted an "enterprise," as defined by Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961(4), that is, a group of individuals associated in fact, although not a legal entity. This Enterprise constituted an ongoing organization whose members functioned as a continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of the Enterprise. At all times relevant to this Indictment, the Enterprise was engaged in, and its activities affected, interstate and foreign commerce.

PURPOSES OF THE ENTERPRISE

3. The purposes of the Enterprise included the following:

a. Enriching the members and associates of the Enterprise through, among other things, the distribution of narcotics, including the trafficking of cocaine to New York.

b. Preserving and protecting the power of the Enterprise and its members and associates through murder, attempted murder, other acts of violence, and threats of violence.

c. Promoting and enhancing the Enterprise and the activities of its members and associates.

MEANS AND METHODS OF THE ENTERPRISE

4. Among the means and methods employed by the members and associates in conducting and participating in the conduct of the affairs of the Enterprise were the following:

a. Members and associates of the Enterprise trafficked in cocaine, cocaine base, heroin, and marijuana.

b. Members and associates of the Enterprise committed, conspired to commit, and attempted to commit, acts of violence, including murder and assault, to protect and expand the Enterprise's criminal operations, and in connection with rivalries with other criminal organizations.

c. Members and associates of the Enterprise used physical violence and threats of violence, including murder, attempted murder, and attempted assault against various people, including in particular individuals associated with rival criminal organizations.

d. Members and associates of the Enterprise obtained, possessed, and used firearms.

e. Members of the Enterprise and their associates engaged in violent acts in order to advance within the enterprise.

f. Members of the Enterprise and their associates were ordered to shoot and kill suspected rival drug trafficking members.

THE RACKETEERING CONSPIRACY

5. From at least in or about 2004, up to and including in or about 2016, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, JULIO MARQUEZ-ALEJANDRO, a/k/a "Chino Montero," LUIS BLONDET, a/k/a "Cabezon," OSCAR VALDES-GARCIA, a/k/a "Pony," JASON DONES-GONZALEZ, a/k/a "Jason," a/k/a "Arrabal," JOSE VICTOR PELLOT-CARDONA, a/k/a "Vitito," REINALDO CRUZ-FERNANDEZ, a/k/a "Remy," and JOSE MARTINEZ-DIAZ, a/k/a "Tony Zinc," the defendants, and others known and unknown, being persons employed by and associated with the racketeering enterprise described above, namely, La ONU, which was engaged in, and the activities of which affected, interstate and foreign commerce, willfully and knowingly combined, conspired, confederated, and agreed together and with each other to violate the racketeering laws of the United States, to wit, Title 18, United States Code, Section 1962(c), that is, to conduct and participate, directly and indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of La ONU through a pattern of racketeering activity, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1961(1) and 1961(5), consisting of multiple acts involving murder, chargeable under Puerto Rico Penal Code Articles 105 and 106 (murder), Article 43 (aiding and abetting), and Article 249 (conspiracy); and offenses involving trafficking in controlled substances, in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 812, 841, and 846.

6. It was a part of the conspiracy that each defendant agreed that a conspirator would commit at least two acts of racketeering in the conduct of the affairs of the Enterprise.

(Title 18, United States Code, Section 1962(d).)

COUNT TWO
(Murder of Crystal Martinez-Ramirez)

The Grand Jury further charges:

7. At all times relevant to this Indictment, La ONU, as described in paragraphs 1 through 4 of Count One of this Indictment, which are repeated and incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein, including its leadership, members, and associates, constituted an enterprise, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 1959(b)(2), that is, an association in fact of individuals engaged in, and the activities of which affected, interstate and foreign commerce. The Enterprise constituted an ongoing organization whose members functioned as a continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of the Enterprise.

8. At all times relevant to this Indictment, La ONU, through its members and associates, engaged in racketeering activity, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1961(1) and 1959(b)(1), namely acts involving murder, in violation of the Puerto Rico Penal Code, and narcotics trafficking, in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 812, 841, and 846.

9. On or about April 9, 2005, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, LUIS BLONDET, a/k/a "Cabezón," the defendant, and others known and unknown, as consideration for the receipt of, and as consideration for a promise and agreement to pay, a thing of pecuniary value from La ONU, and for the purpose of gaining entrance to and maintaining and increasing position in La ONU, an enterprise engaged in racketeering activity, as described above, knowingly murdered and aided and abetted the murder of Crystal Martinez-Ramirez in the vicinity of Calle Jerusalem and Calle Penalara, San Juan, Puerto Rico, in violation of Puerto Rico Penal Code, Articles 105 and 106, in that, (i) with intent to cause the death of another person, BLONDET, and others known and unknown, caused the death of Crystal Martinez-Ramirez; and (ii) under circumstances evincing a depraved indifference to human life, BLONDET, and others known and unknown, recklessly engaged in conduct which created a grave risk of death to another person, and thereby caused the death of Martinez-Ramirez.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1959(a)(1) and 2.)

COUNT THREE

(Use of a Firearm for the Murder of Crystal Martinez-Ramirez)

The Grand Jury further charges:

10. On or about April 9, 2005, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, LUIS BLONDET, a/k/a "Cabezon," the defendant, and others known and unknown, during and in relation to a crime of violence for which he may be prosecuted in a court of the United States, namely, the murder of Crystal Martinez-Ramirez in aid of racketeering charged in Count Two of this Indictment, willfully and knowingly did use and carry a firearm, and, in furtherance of such crime of violence, did possess a firearm, and did aid and abet the use, carrying, and possession of a firearm, and in the course of that crime of violence did cause the death of a person through the use of a firearm, namely the death of Martinez-Ramirez, which killing is murder as defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 1111(a), to wit, BLONDET shot and killed, and aided and abetted the shooting and killing of, Martinez-Ramirez in the vicinity of Calle Jerusalem and Calle Penalara, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 924(j)(1) and 2.)

COUNT FOUR
(Murder of Jean Adorno-Caballero)

The Grand Jury further charges:

11. Paragraphs 7 and 8 of Count Two of this Indictment are repeated and incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

12. On or about June 23, 2006, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, JULIO MARQUEZ-ALEJANDRO, a/k/a "Chino Montero," and OSCAR VALDES-GARCIA, a/k/a "Pony," the defendants, and others known and unknown, as consideration for the receipt of, and as consideration for a promise and agreement to pay, a thing of pecuniary value from La ONU, and for the purpose of gaining entrance to and maintaining and increasing position in La ONU, an enterprise engaged in racketeering activity, as described above, knowingly murdered and aided and abetted the murder of Jean Adorno-Caballero in the vicinity of Calle Ruiz Belvis and Calle Caribe, San Juan, Puerto Rico, in violation of Puerto Rico Penal Code, Articles 105 and 106, in that, (i) with intent to cause the death of another person, MARQUEZ-ALEJANDRO, VALDES-GARCIA and others known and unknown, caused the death of Jean Adorno-Caballero; and (ii) under circumstances evincing a depraved indifference to human life, MARQUEZ-ALEJANDRO, VALDES-GARCIA, and others known and unknown, recklessly engaged in conduct which created a grave risk of death to another person, and thereby caused the death of Adorno-Caballero.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1959(a)(1) and 2.)

COUNT FIVE

(Murder of Jean Adorno-Caballero in Connection with a Drug Crime)

The Grand Jury further charges:

13. On or about June 23, 2006, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, while engaged in an offense punishable under Section 841(b)(1)(A) of Title 21, United States Code, namely, a narcotics conspiracy involving the distribution of cocaine, JULIO MARQUEZ-ALEJANDRO, a/k/a "Chino Montero," and OSCAR VALDES-GARCIA, a/k/a "Pony," the defendants, and others known and unknown, intentionally and knowingly killed and counseled, commanded, induced, procured, and caused the intentional killing of Jean Adorno-Caballero, and such killing resulted.
