COUNT ONE
(Conspiracy to Murder U.S. Nationals)

The Grand Jury charges:

OVERVIEW

1. Between at least in or about 2019 and in or about May 2020, ETHAN PHELAN MELZER, a/k/a "Etil Reggad," the defendant, a Private in the U.S. Army, worked with members and associates of an extremist group called the "Order of the Nine Angles," or "O9A," to facilitate a deadly attack on members of MELZER's Army unit. In or about late-May 2020, MELZER's planned attack was thwarted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the U.S. Army.

2. By at least in or about 2019, ETHAN PHELAN MELZER, a/k/a "Etil Reggad," the defendant, joined O9A. Members and associates of O9A have espoused violent, neo-Nazi, anti-Semitic, and Satanic beliefs, and have expressed admiration for, among others, Nazis, such as Adolf Hitler, and Islamic jihadists, such as Usama Bin Laden, the now-deceased former leader of al Qaeda, which the U.S. Department of State designated as a Foreign Terrorist Organization on or about October 8, 1999. Members and associates of O9A have also participated in acts of violence, including murders.

3. ETHAN PHELAN MELZER, a/k/a "Etil Reggad," the defendant, consumed propaganda disseminated by, among others, O9A and the Islamic State of Iraq and al-Sham, or ISIS, which, along with its predecessor organizations, has been designated by the Department of State as a Foreign Terrorist Organization since October 2004. For example, in connection with the investigation, the FBI seized from an iCloud account maintained by MELZER an ISIS-issued document with a title that included the phrase "HARVEST OF THE SOLDIERS" and described attacks and murders of U.S. personnel in or about April 2020.

4. ETHAN PHELAN MELZER, a/k/a "Etil Reggad," the defendant, joined the U.S. Army in or about 2018. Beginning in or about October 2019, MELZER was assigned to a U.S. military facility in Europe beginning. In or about April 2020, the U.S. Army informed MELZER and other members of his unit that they would be deployed to guard a U.S. military installation in another foreign country. After MELZER was notified of the assignment, he used an encrypted messaging application to send messages to members and associates of O9A and a related group known as the "RapeWaffen Division," including communications regarding MELZER's commitment to O9A and sensitive information related to his unit's anticipated deployment such as the unit's locations, movements, and security, for the purpose of facilitating an attack on the unit.

5. During an interview on or about May 30, 2020, ETHAN PHELAN MELZER, a/k/a "Etil Reggad," the defendant, confessed to his role in plotting an attack on his unit, admitted that he intended for the planned attack to result in the deaths of as many of his fellow service members as possible, and declared himself to be a traitor against the United States whose conduct was tantamount to treason.

STATUTORY ALLEGATIONS

6. From at least in or about 2019 up to and including in or about May 2020, in an offense begun and committed outside of the jurisdiction of any particular State or district of the United States, ETHAN PHELAN MELZER, a/k/a "Etil Reggad," the defendant, who was first brought to and arrested in the Southern District of New York, and others known and unknown, willfully and knowingly combined, conspired, confederated, and agreed together and with each other to kill nationals of the United States.

7. It was a part and an object of the conspiracy that ETHAN PHELAN MELZER, a/k/a "Etil Reggad," the defendant, and others known and unknown, at least one of whom was outside the United States, would and did murder United States nationals anywhere in the world.

Overt Acts

8. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect the illegal object thereof, ETHAN PHELAN MELZER, a/k/a "Etil Reggad," the defendant, committed the following overt acts, among others:

a. On or about May 14, 2020, MELZER sent an electronic message that stated, in substance and in part, that MELZER believed that his "military training, survival, [and] links to other groups" could be useful to other members of O9A.

b. On or about May 17, 2020, MELZER exchanged electronic communications regarding the anticipated deployment of MELZER's unit and passed information regarding the deployment to a purported member of al Qaeda.

c. On or about May 23, 2020, MELZER sent electronic communications to participants in an O9A-related chat group, in which MELZER wrote, in substance and in part, that he was "risking [his] literal free life" by disclosing information regarding his unit's deployment and was "expecting results"; that his "life would be absolutely meaningless in the amount of shit it [i.e., the attack] would cause"; that the attack would cause a "new war"; and that the attack would result in "mascal," which another participant explained meant "mass casualty."

d. On or about May 24, 2020, MELZER participated in an exchange of electronic communications in which another participant characterized the plot against MELZER's unit as a "jihadi attack." During the exchange, MELZER acknowledged that he could be killed during the attack, and wrote, "who gives a fuck [. . .] it would be another war . . . I would've died successfully . . . cause [] another 10 year war in the Middle East would definitely leave a mark."

e. Between on or about May 24 and May 25, 2020, MELZER sent electronic messages with specific information about his unit's anticipated deployment, including, among other things, the number of soldiers who would be traveling, the location of the facility to which MELZER expected the unit to be deployed, and information about the facility's surveillance and defensive capabilities. MELZER also promised to provide additional information after he deployed in order to try to maximize the likelihood of a successful attack on his unit.
