- 2. As more fully described below, We Buy's business model was to purchase stolen merchandise from individual sellers, otherwise known as boosters, at prices reduced to reflect the fact that the goods were stolen. It was obvious to defendants that the goods were stolen based on circumstances surrounding the sales, including, for example:
 - The goods appeared to be new, and often had anti-theft devices affixed to them;
 - The goods were often labeled "not for resale" or related language;
 - Boosters sometimes disclosed that the goods were stolen; and
 - Boosters offered the goods for sale at a price far below their market value.

After purchasing the stolen merchandise, defendants offered the merchandise for sale at a higher price through eBay and Amazon. Defendants then shipped the stolen merchandise from Washington to buyers in other states or countries.

3. BALUN and BOBAK did not report We Buy's purchases to the state of Washington, as required for legitimate pawnbrokers and secondhand dealers by Revised Code of Washington Chapter 19.60 and associated regulations.

B. The Conspiracy

4. Beginning at a time unknown, but no later than January 2018, and continuing through on or about December 19, 2023, in King County, within the Western District of Washington, and elsewhere, ANDREY A. BALUN and VITALIY F. BOBAK along with others known and unknown, did knowingly and willfully conspire, combine, confederate, and agree to commit an offense against the United States, that is: Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2314 and 2, as charged in Count 2.

C. Manner and Means

The defendants and their co-conspirators acted in the following manner, and used the following means, to effect the conspiracy:

- 5. BOBAK operated We Buy by allowing one booster, or one group of boosters, to enter the storefront at a time.
- 6. BOBAK purchased stolen merchandise, predominately over-the-counter medication and health and beauty products from these boosters.
- 7. The products BOBAK purchased often contained visible anti-theft devices or stickers attached. BOBAK removed these anti-theft devices with heat guns, drills, and other tools, and used solutions such as "Goo-Gone" to remove left-over residue. BOBAK also taught the boosters how to remove the anti-theft devices themselves.
- 8. The conspirators used a warehouse adjacent to the We Buy storefront to store, package, and ship the stolen merchandise. BOBAK also used his personal residence to store, package, and ship some of the stolen merchandise.
- 9. BOBAK hired employees to assist in this process. BOBAK supervised and directed the work of these employees. BOBAK paid these employees in cash.
- 10. BOBAK listed, or directed subordinate employees to list, the stolen merchandise for sale on an eBay store called "abcstore555" and an Amazon store called "Medikus."

eBay store "Abcstore555"

- 11. The conspirators operated an online store on eBay using the moniker "abcstore555."
 - a. The abstore555 eBay account was registered to BOBAK.
- b. Abcstore555's registered address is BOBAK's Federal Way, Washington residential address.

- c. Abcstore555 had no sources of inventory other than the stolen merchandise BOBAK and BALUN purchased from boosters at We Buy.
- d. The conspirators conducted approximately 90,000 sale transactions through the abcstore555 eBay store between January 1, 2022 and November 28, 2023, totaling approximately $3 million. These transactions predominately involved the sale of stolen over-the-counter medications, supplements, and health and beauty products.
- e. BOBAK directed eBay to deposit the proceeds of these sales directly into two accounts he controlled at Bank of America an individual account held in his name, ending x2586 (BOBAK BOA) and a joint account he held with his spouse, ending x3971 (BOBAK BOA JOINT). BOBAK transferred some of the proceeds eBay deposited into the joint account to his individual account. Between January 1, 2022 and November 28, 2023, eBay deposited more than $2 million into these two accounts.

Amazon store "Medikus"

- 12. The conspirators operated an online store on Amazon using the moniker "Medikus."
 - a. The Medikus Amazon account was registered to BALUN.
- b. Medikus had virtually no sources of inventory other than the stolen merchandise purchased from boosters at We Buy.
- c. The conspirators conducted over 60,000 sale transactions through the Medikus Amazon store between January 1, 2022 and December 18, 2023, totaling approximately $1.6 million. These transactions predominately involved the sale of stolen over-the-counter medications, supplements, and health and beauty products.
- d. BALUN directed Amazon to deposit the proceeds from these sales directly to accounts he controlled, first at JPMorgan Chase Bank, and then, beginning in January 2022, to an account at Sound Credit Union ending x6253, held in the name Medicus LLC (MEDICUS SCU), for which BALUN was the only authorized signatory.

Between January 25, 2022 and December 12, 2023, Amazon made approximately 76 deposits to the MEDICUS SCU account, totaling approximately $1 million.

- 13. Individual buyers from across the country and the world purchased the stolen merchandise from these online stores, with large quantities of products purchased by customers in states such as Virginia, Florida, and New Jersey, and countries such as Norway, Mexico, and Sweden.
- 14. BOBAK and BALUN then shipped, caused to be shipped, or directed subordinate employees to ship, the stolen merchandise to customers located in these states and foreign countries, thereby causing the stolen merchandise to be transported to those locations.
- 15. On a typical day BOBAK, or those working at his direction, shipped 165-286 outgoing packages to other states or foreign countries.
- 16. Parcels fulfilling orders placed on the abstore555 eBay store and the Medikus Amazon store were shipped from the We Buy storefront and from BOBAK's residence.
- 17. Between January 1, 2022 and November 28, 2023, BOBAK and BALUN conducted or caused to be conducted approximately 156,934 sale transactions through the abcstore555 eBay and Medikus Amazon stores, with a combined sales total of over $4.5 million.
- 18. Between January 1, 2022 and November 28, 2023, BOBAK and BALUN caused eBay and Amazon to deposit approximately $3.1 million of proceeds from the sale of the stolen goods to accounts they controlled. Subsequently, the conspirators conducted a variety of financial transactions with these proceeds, including paying rent on the WeBuy storefront and adjacent warehouse. They also withdrew more than $1 million in cash, which they used to continue the criminal operation by purchasing additional stolen property to sell on eBay and Amazon.

19. As of December 19, 2023, the conspirators possessed more than 74,000 items of stolen merchandise valued at approximately $2.4 million.

D. Overt Acts

- 20. In furtherance of the conspiracy, and to effect its object, within King County, in the Western District of Washington, and elsewhere, BOBAK and BALUN, together with other individuals known and unknown, committed and caused to be committed, among others, the following overt acts, which are representative of the various overt acts undertaken in furtherance of the conspiracy:
- a. On or about April 16, 2021, BALUN sent a text message to BOBAK advising how to respond to a complaint that the Medikus Amazon store was not an authorized seller of products it had offered for sale. BALUN drafted the response and sent it to BOBAK.
- b. On or about April 26, 2023, at the We Buy store, BOBAK purchased numerous items presented to him as obviously stolen merchandise, including, among other items, a Braun brand electric trimmer that had anti-theft stickers and a "spider wrap" anti-theft alarm device affixed to it.
- c. On or about July 25, 2023, BOBAK caused the Braun electric trimmer to be listed for sale on the abcstore555 site. That same week, BOBAK shipped or directed the shipment of the trimmer, via United States Postal Service, to an address in Rhode Island. On or about August 1, 2023, the package arrived in Rhode Island. The package's return address listed BOBAK's name and home address. The package contained a Braun electric trimmer with distinct markings identifying it as the same Braun electric trimmer BOBAK purchased on April 26, 2023.
- d. On or about October 24, 2023, at the We Buy store, BOBAK purchased, among other items presented as stolen, a brand-new Keurig Coffee maker.

- e. On or about November 15, 2024, BOBAK caused the same model Keurig Coffee maker to be listed for sale on the Medikus Amazon store. On or about November 17, 2023, BOBAK shipped or directed the shipment of the Keurig Coffee maker, via United States Postal Service, to an address in Oregon. The package's return address listed a Bellevue address that Medicus LLC is registered at. The package contained a Keurig Coffee maker with the same serial number as the coffee maker purchased by BOBAK on October 24, 2023.
- f. On December 9, 2023, at the We Buy store, BOBAK purchased, from a single booster, numerous items presented as stolen, including Sonicare electric toothbrushes with retail security stickers affixed to them, Rogaine products with security stickers on them, and bottles of wine with device cap locks affixed to them. BOBAK used a torch lighter to remove the security stickers. BOBAK then used a drill to remove the security cap from the wine bottles.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.

COUNT 2

(Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property)

- 21. The allegations set forth in the foregoing paragraphs are re-alleged and incorporated as if fully set forth herein.
- 22. Beginning at a time unknown but not later than January 2018, and continuing through on or about December 19, 2023, in King County, in the Western District of Washington, and elsewhere, VITALIY F. BOBAK and ANDREY A. BALUN, and others known and unknown, did unlawfully transport, transmit, and transfer in interstate commerce, from Washington to other states and countries, including, but not limited to, Rhode Island, Oregon, New Jersey, Florida, Virginia, Norway, Mexico, and Sweden, goods, wares, and merchandise, of the value of $5,000 or more, knowing the same to have been stolen, converted, and taken by fraud.

B. Object of the Conspiracy

- 26. The objects of the conspiracy were:
- a. to promote Conspiracy to Commit Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371, and Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2314 and 2;
- b. to conceal and disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, and control of proceeds of Conspiracy to Commit Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371, and Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2314 and 2; and
 - c. to illegally enrich the conspirators.
- 27. In furtherance of the objects of the conspiracy, and to attain the ends thereof, BOBAK and BALUN, and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, conducted, caused to be conducted, and aided and abetted the conducting of the financial and monetary transactions described herein, among others.

C. Manner and Means of the Conspiracy

The defendants and their co-conspirators acted in the following manner, and used the following means, to effect the conspiracy:

- 28. BOBAK and BALUN, and others, arranged to sell on eBay and Amazon stolen merchandise they purchased from boosters at We Buy, transport that stolen merchandise to purchasers in various states and foreign countries, and receive payment from the sale of that stolen merchandise from eBay and Amazon into financial accounts they controlled.
- 29. BOBAK and BALUN caused eBay and Amazon to deposit funds from sale of the stolen goods to accounts they controlled at different financial institutions. The deposits made by eBay and Amazon to BOBAK and BALUN's financial accounts are proceeds of the Conspiracy to Commit Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371, as charged in Count 1, and Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2314 and 2, as charged in Count 2.

- 30. BOBAK and BALUN caused eBay to deposit funds from the sale of stolen goods on the abcstore555 store to accounts at Bank of America, the BOBAK BOA and BOBAK BOA JOINT accounts. Between January 1, 2022 and November 28, 2023, the conspirators caused eBay to deposit more than $2 million directly into these two financial accounts. We Buy was the only source of the merchandise sold on the abcstore555 eBay store.
- 31. BOBAK and BALUN caused Amazon to deposit funds from the sale of stolen goods on Medikus to the MEDICUS SCU account. Between January 25, 2022 and October 31, 2023, the conspirators caused Amazon to deposit approximately $1 million directly into the MEDICUS SCU account.
- 32. After eBay and Amazon deposited proceeds from the sale of the stolen goods into the BOBAK BOA, BOBAK BOA JOINT, and MEDICUS SCU accounts, BOBAK and BALUN, and others, conducted and caused to be conducted financial transactions to transfer the proceeds from those accounts, including to accounts at other financial institutions and held in other names. These financial transactions included wire transfers, ACH transfers, purchases of cashier's checks, deposit of checks and cashier's checks to other accounts, and withdrawal and deposit of cash.
- 33. BOBAK and BALUN caused some of the proceeds to change forms and locations multiple times as a result of these financial transactions, further obfuscating the nature, location, source, ownership, and control of the proceeds.

- 34. BOBAK and BALUN also withdrew some of the proceeds they transferred to these other accounts in cash, and then used that cash to expand the scope and duration of the Conspiracy to Commit Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property and to promote additional Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property offenses by purchasing additional stolen property to sell on eBay and Amazon.
- 35. BOBAK and BALUN transferred and caused to be transferred most of the remaining proceeds they received to themselves, their other businesses, and their family members, to support their lifestyles.

Flow of Proceeds Received from sales on eBay

- 36. BOBAK and BALUN used the BOBAK BOA JOINT account as one funnel account to receive deposits of proceeds from eBay and distribute those proceeds to other accounts, including an account at Sound Credit Union ending x0518, held in the name of MBA Trading LLC (MBA Trading SCU x0518). BOBAK and BALUN each held signatory authority over the MBA Trading SCU x0518 account.
- 37. BOBAK and BALUN conducted and caused to be conducted these financial transactions with the intent to conceal and disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, and control of these proceeds, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(a)(1)(B)(i). Each of these financial transactions also involved more than $10,000 of criminal proceeds, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1957(a).
- 38. BOBAK and BALUN also used the BOBAK BOA account as a funnel account to receive deposits of proceeds from eBay and distribute those proceeds to other accounts. For example, between January 1, 2022 and November 28, 2023, eBay deposited approximately $2 million into the BOBAK BOA account. Between March 4, 2022 and November 15, 2023, BOBAK and BALUN conducted and caused to be conducted, financial transactions to transfer at least $1.5 million of proceeds from the sale of the stolen goods on the abcstore555 eBay store from the BOBAK BOA account into an account at Sound Credit Union ending x6436, held in the name of MBA Trading LLC (MBA Trading SCU x6436).

- 39. BOBAK BOA account statements reflect virtually no activity in the account other than the deposits from eBay and outgoing checks that were deposited into the MBA Trading SCU x6436 account.
- 40. BOBAK and BALUN conducted and caused to be conducted these financial transactions with the intent to conceal and disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, and control of these proceeds, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(a)(1)(B)(i). Each of these financial transactions also involved more than $10,000 of criminal proceeds, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1957(a).
- 41. BOBAK and BALUN also conducted and caused to be conducted these financial transactions with the intent to expand the scope and duration of the Conspiracy to Commit Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371, and to promote the commission of additional offenses of Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property, in violation of Title 18 United States Code, Sections 2314 and 2. These financial transactions facilitated subsequent withdrawal of the proceeds from the MBA Trading SCU x6436 account in cash, which BOBAK and BALUN used to purchase additional stolen goods to sell on eBay and Amazon to continue the ongoing criminal operation.
- 42. Shortly after making the transactions noted above, BOBAK and BALUN, made and caused to be made a series of cash withdrawals from MBA Trading SCU x6436 account. Between March 4, 2022 and October 26, 2023, these withdrawals from totaled approximately $1 million.

- 43. After the proceeds eBay deposited into BOBAK's accounts at Bank of America were funneled into the MBA Trading SCU x6436, BOBAK and BALUN conducted and caused to be conducted additional financial transactions, through ACH transfers and check deposits, to disguise these criminal proceeds as legitimate "payroll" payments from MBA Trading LLC to BOBAK and BALUN. For example, in this manner they moved over $100,000 into a US Bank account (USB x7802) held in BALUN's name.
- 44. The conspirators also disguised the criminal proceeds by using them to pay for luxury items. For example, on July 17, 2023, BOBAK laundered approximately $66,000.00 of the proceeds the conspirators transferred to the BOBAK JPMC account by purchasing a 2023 Lexus NX. BOBAK paid for the 2023 Lexus NX in a single transaction, using a debit card linked to the BOBAK JPMC account, which received the "payroll" transactions from the MBA Trading SCU x6436 account. Approximately $66,000.00 of the $67,300 purchase is directly traceable to criminal proceeds of the Conspiracy to Commit Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2 and $2315 and Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2 and §2314 offenses.

Flow of Proceeds from Sales on Amazon

- 45. BALUN and BOBAK caused Amazon to deposit proceeds from the sale of stolen goods on the Medikus Amazon store to the MEDICUS SCU account. Between January 25, 2022, and October 31, 2023, the conspirators caused Amazon to deposit approximately $1million directly into the MEDICUS SCU account.
- 46. BALUN and BOBAK then conducted and caused to be conducted financial transactions transferring some of the proceeds Amazon deposited into the MEDICUS SCU account to the MBA Trading SCU x6436 account.
- 47. BALUN also conducted and caused to be conducted numerous financial transactions to transfer proceeds Amazon had deposited into the MEDICUS SCU account to himself and members of his family.

27

- 48. BALUN also conducted and caused to be conducted numerous financial transactions to transfer proceeds that Amazon had deposited into the MEDICUS SCU account to other companies he controlled.
- 49. BALUN and BOBAK used some of the proceeds that Amazon had deposited into the MEDICUS SCU account to make monthly rent payments for the We Buy storefront and warehouse.
- 50. BALUN also purchased and caused to be purchased large cashier's checks using proceeds Amazon had deposited into the MEDICUS SCU account.
- 51. BALUN also conducted financial transactions to transfer proceeds that Amazon had deposited into the MEDICUS SCU account to his USB x7802 account (the same account to which eBay proceeds were transferred, via MBA Trading SCU x6436).
- 52. After conducting successive financial transactions to transfer proceeds from the MEDICUS SCU (Amazon proceeds) and MBA Trading SCU (eBay proceeds) accounts to his USB x7208 account, BALUN conducted additional financial transactions from his USB x7208 account to further disguise and conceal the proceeds. For example:
- 53. On February 17, 2023, BALUN caused a check in the amount of $37,000 to be drawn on the MEDICUS SCU account and deposited into the USB x7208 account. On February 28, 2023, BALUN withdrew $37,000 from USB x7208 and purchased a $37,000 Cashier's Check, payable to T.I., with a memo reading "house." On or about February 28, 2023 T.I. purchased real property located on Summer Palace Way, Las Vegas, NV, for approximately $543,000. Statements for a bank account opened on or about March 2, 2023 at U.S. Bank, ending x2348, and held in the names of T.I., N.B., and BALUN, are addressed to the real property on Summer Palace Way, Las Vegas, NV.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(h).
